I have delete my Facebook already because of censorship. If you have their direct e-mail or telephone numbers that will greatly appreciated. Already subscribed to Steve Rhode's Newsletters. Please share my petition so that we can change the oppressive, bad law of undue hardship. I would like also to invite you to read Richard Fossey's Blog, I have been using his writings as one of my sources. Please see: <http://www.condemnedtodebt.org>. He is a friend of mine. Thank you again.

STUDENT LOAN PETITION TO WHITE HOUSE

WE the PEOPLE
YOUR VOICE IN THE WHITE HOUSE

WE THE PEOPLE ASK THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT TO CALL ON CONGRESS TO ACT ON AN ISSUE

Repeal 11 USC § 523(a)(8)

Created by J.C. on February 12, 2017

The economics of higher education are in crisis: tuitions are soaring, with increases in college and school costs outpacing inflation students are exiting college and graduate school more indebted than ever hastransformed student loans into the largest source of consumer indebtednessafter mortgages. To make matters worse, all of this comes as the value of higher education is being called into question. With returns sinking and tuitions, indebtedness, and defaults surging, the need for higher education financial reform is pressing. Students are unlikely to be able to repay, and § 523(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code exacerbates the effects of such burdensome debt by allowing private and federal student loans to be discharged only upon a showing of "Undue Hardship." Please sign this petition.

THE WHITE HOUSE MAY SEND ME EMAILS ABOUT THIS AND OTHER ISSUES.

REQUEST: Dear Mr. Armstrong: I am trying to discharge student loan in the bankruptcy court, and it is very tough battle. I am in the situation that it is all out war with the U.S. Department of Education. I have been reading your blog for more than a year now and found that we have common grounds. I agree that we have to make the student loan dischargeable again in the bankruptcy court. I humbly and respectfully request for your help to promote my petition to the White House that We the people should ask the Congress to repeal 11 USC § 523(a)(8), which the statute states that “unless excepting such [student loan] debt from discharge under this paragraph would impose an undue hardship on the debtor and the debtor’s dependents.” This is the petition I created recently: You now have 30 days to get 99,999 signatures in order for your petition to be reviewed by the White House. Until your petition has 150 signatures, it will only be available from the following URL and will not be publicly viewable on the Open Petitions section of We the People:

REPLY: I will sign your petition. I would point out that this was pay-back from the Clintons to the bankers. The logic was that a student has no collateral, so eliminate bankruptcy protection. The Clintons agreed. Then the bankers still wanted parents to cosign. Thus, this was the greatest fraud that the Democrats pulled off to help the bankers and eliminate bankruptcy protection for even the parents.

Bankruptcy in the United States is governed under the US Constitution (Article 1, Section 8, Clause 4) which authorizes Congress to enact “uniform Laws on the subject of Bankruptcies throughout the United States.” To exclude students violate the Due Process clause and Equal Protection Clause. Supreme Court case of Allgeyer v. Louisiana in 1897, the Court came to the conclusion that the Due Process Clause in the Fourteenth Amendment extended to private contracts as well, allowing such liberties as “freedom of contract” to be enforced without the implementation of various social and economic regulations passed by Federal and State governments.

This is discrimination for the government should NOT be allowed to discriminate also against a class of people, not just race or creed. All the students whose teachers allow them to cut class and protest against Trump for his immigration ban for 120 days, would never allow their students to do the same on this issue for schools will not have it so easy if they have to compete for students and provide degrees that are worth something. Forbes Magazine reported that 60% of students cannot find a job in what they paid for.

Therefore, the education system also violates consumer fraud statutes. The definition i

Hi Gordon,

Good afternoon. I came across your briefs and argument for the student loan. I am in the process of my discharging my student loan through bankruptcy process. It has been upheaval process and I am having difficulties with my current adversary proceeding. I would like to ask if I could use your writings into my pleadings, and get some additional guidance from you. I am neither lawyer nor any close to expert in bankruptcy laws. I think this is my only shot to erase my student loan and I would need every ounce of help I could get. Please advice and thank you in advance.

Sincerely,

Jaime

Some versions have Mr. Niemöller saying: "Then they came for the Catholics, and I didn't speak up, because I was a Protestant"; other versions have him saying that they came for Socialists, Industrialists, schools, the press, and/or the Church; however, it's certain he DID say SOMETHING like this. Actually, they may not have come for the Jews first, as it's more likely they came for the prisoners, mentally handicapped, & other so-called "inferiors" first -as historians tell us -so they could get "practiced up"; however, they did come for them -due to the silence of their neighbors -and due in part to their own silence.
