Last updated: Mon 08 Aug 2016, 09:14pm (EST) Sign Rob Applebaum's petition: HR 4170, The Student Loan Forgiveness Act of 2012 NOTE: The Register isn't liberal. We're not asking for outright 'Loan Forgiveness' (See Fri 05 Feb 2016 news item below) We ask that bankruptcy protection be returned to Student Loans—just like all other borrowers have. Cf: Requesting Cosponsors To Discharge Student Debt through Bankruptcy: H.R.449 - 114th Congress (2015-2016) petition.  PopVox.com petition (Very Important)  Petition2Congress.com petition (Very Important)  Congress.gov (Official website)  Read this first: "Why College Prices Keep Rising"

Press corps give news coverage (Thr. 04 Aug. 2016, IN THE NEWS) News; Press; Higher Education; U.S. Rep. Dennis A. Ross (R-FL-15th)

Politics; Congress: * The Dennis Ross 'Higher-Ed' solution in the news * After much effort on the part of all parties, the two "Higher Ed" solutions that central-Florida Republican congressman, Dennis A. Ross supported in a recent Town Hall Meeting (news item below) have now been receiving increased mainstream news media attention. Register editor/publisher, Gordon W. Watts, who was the initial proponent of these popular solutions, is in agreement with Ross' two proposed solutions: (#1) removal of taxpayer dollars from higher ed loans, in the first place, as a preventative measure, and (#2) for existing college loans, the return of bankruptcy, which would repair an Unconstitutional Law: University of Connecticut law professor Philip Shuchman testified before Congress, explaining that their removal of bankruptcy from college loans violated Federal Equal Protection: (source 1) * (source 2) * (cached archive) Watts, who nearly won on behalf of Terri Schiavo, all by himself, thinks that there are additional Constitutional problems with current U.S. Bankruptcy Law regarding student loans.

Meanwhile, increasing mainstream news media seems to agree with Watts:
