Subject: Written Testimony submitted to the U.S. Senate Judiciary Committee Monday, 09 August 2021 "Student Loan Bankruptcy Reform"

Please find, attached -- in 2 file formats -- my testimony and one supporting document, a proposed bill to assist the judiciary committee in implementing what some members sought in regards to spending and subsidy cuts. My testimony has both the required bio and a Federal unsworn affidavit, as well as the implicit invitation for video and/or in-person testimony, should it be needed.

I am "the" Gordon Watts who almost won the Terri Schiavo case -- all by myself -- losing it in Florida's Supreme Court by a razor-thin 4-3 margin. For context, Gov. Bush, when he was governor, lost 7-0 before the same panel and on the same subject matter. Additionally, I participated as an Amicus Curiae in the landmark Federal Appeals case of the gay marriage law, as I document in my curriculum vitae.

What this means, in practical terms, is that the Conservative committee members should welcome some additional Conservative analysis, as Dr. Akers and Sen. Cruz overlooked some key things. Additionally, Democrat members should be pleased that a "true heavyweight" Conservative supports their bill, and offers additional information that will help make it so; you may check my references: I'm sure many staff in Sen. Rubio's Tampa office or my other Federal lawmakers' offices will verify that I am indeed Gordon Wayne Watts behind this email (or you have ways to verify, if you doubt).

If there is any additional thing required of me, please do not hesitate to let me know; I will be happy to testify by audio and/or video teleconferencing, if needed. With kind regards, I am, Sincerely,

"First, they [Nazis] came for the Jews. I was silent. I was not a Jew. Then they came for the Communists. I was silent. I was not a Communist. Then they came for the trade unionists. I was silent. I was not a trade unionist. Then they came for me. There was no one left to speak for me." (Martin Niemöller, given credit for a quotation in The Harper Religious and Inspirational Quotation Companion, ed. Margaret Pepper (New York: Harper & Row, 1989), 429 -as cited on page 44, note 17, of Religious Cleansing in the American Republic, by Keith A. Fournier, Copyright 1993, by Liberty, Life, and Family Publications.

Some versions have Mr. Niemöller saying: "Then they came for the Catholics, and I didn't speak up, because I was a Protestant"; other versions have him saying that they came for Socialists, Industrialists, schools, the press, and/or the Church; however, it's certain he DID say SOMETHING like this. Actually, they may not have come for the Jews first, as it's more likely they came for the prisoners, mentally handicapped, & other so-called "inferiors" first -as historians tell us -so they could get "practiced up"; however, they did come for them -due to the silence of their neighbors -and due in part to their own silence. So: "Speak up now or forever hold your peace!" -GWW
