[STATE REPRESENTATIVE, DIST. 64]

State Representative, Dist. 64: Kelli Stargel

Published: Saturday, October 18, 2008 at 12:40 a.m.

Last Modified: Saturday, October 18, 2008 at 1:42 a.m.

Florida House District 64 covers most of the area inside the Polk Parkway loop and the section of the county north of Interstate 4. The only candidate on the ballot is Kelli Stargel of Lakeland, who defeated two other Republicans in the September primary.

With no Democrat running, the race could have been open to voters of all parties. But two write-in candidates signed up for the seat. Only Republicans voted in the race.

Qualifying as a write-in is one way to avoid paying filing fees. But there's another alternative that was used by some other candidates on the ballot: gathering enough signatures to substitute for the fee. In that case, the candidate's name appears on the ballot.

The most recent campaign contribution report showed that the two write-in candidates haven't raised more than $300 for their campaigns combined.

Even though three candidates are running, there is only one choice. The Ledger recommends Kelli Stargel, Florida House, District 64.
