You are correct: I left you a similar, somewhat lengthy, voicemail. Thank for your suggestions, atty Tumialan. I hope to do as you suggest. As soon as you are able to look into my questions, you would have my gratitude for clarifying these gray areas.

I know normally email suffices, but the last matter looked important, and I thought maybe it wouldn't inconvenience you when you might know the answer easily, so I called before it got too late in the central time zone, where you are. But as important as the service matter may be (and I admit frustration with the system, tho not with your client), take your time if you need more time to get clear answers yourself. Thank you in advance in this regard.

Ps: what are gmac's interests in this matter, as they apparently suffered less losses than myself and Mr. Daniggelus, if I may ask?

I received a similar long winded voicemail. Tread carefully. And perhaps only in writing.
