Rule 321 motion to limit Contents of the Record on Appeal

NOTICE: Defendant, Gordon Wayne Watts, no longer resides in Lakeland, Florida, and his new contact information is Gordon Wayne Watts, 2046 Pleasant Acre Drive, Plant City, FL 33566-7511 (H:863-687-6141, C:863-688-9880)

This Rule 321 motion comes to the court pursuant to the order of the District Court of Appeal, First District, ILLINOIS, dated, OCT 25 2018 [Exhibit-A], which directed that “Appellant must direct inquiries on the content of [the] record on appeal to [the] clerk of the circuit court of Cook County.”

CAVEAT: It is on record and clearly documented that This Court has previously received timely motions of this type, but in violation of Federal Procedural Due Process, This Court didn't review on the merits nor rule on prior motions, such as the timely-filed motion to Intervene dated 7-7-2017 [Exhibit-F], and on file with this court, nor did it rule on the timely Rule 321 Motion Electronically-filed on “4/20/2018 6:34 PM,” in this case [Exhibit-C], in the CIRCUIT COURT OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS LAW DIVISION, which Defendant-Appellant filed pursuant to the ORDER ENTERED MARCH 28, 2018, Appellate Court, First District. In refusing to rule on the 4/20/18 motion, supra, This Court, effectively disobeyed the appeals court, since the appeals court clearly did not ask defendant, Watts, to file a motion with the intent that it get ignored, violating Federal Procedural Due Process, as well (not to mention something that gives This Court a bad name). Furthermore, in doing so, it's clear that the only possible motive for such extreme action would be to protect Joseph Younes, an influential local attorney, by refusing to rule against him or return Daniggelis' house to its rightful owner. But, This Court does itself no favours when it continues to protect a documented trouble-maker, who's been an embarrassment to the legal profession (and court), when local news media has continued to write about how he took the house (which he obtained via documented mortgage fraud) & attempt to illegally demolish it as shown in at least nine(9) recent news items [click-able DNAinfo links]:

* Bonus: This doesn't even count numerous embarrassments that Defendant, Paul Shelton (who was Younes' law partner), brought the legal profession, when he lost his law license in the Lessie Towns case, for similar mortgage fraud, garnering embarrassment to both lawyers & court:

[10] "And Paul Shelton_of Trust One Mortgage has agreed to a consent order that bans him for life from any work originating loans..."Lifetime bans are never issued without cause. There are always reasons for lifetime bans," said [Brent] Adams, [Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation secretary]." It damages the court's reputation when it protects Younes, a man who is documented (in Judge Otto's 3-8-2013 order in this case[[]]) to have used a forgery to execute mortgage fraud theft of elderly Daniggelis' house, land, and equity, documented to be hundreds of thousands of dollars:

To show partiality in judgment is not good: Whoever says to the wicked, "You are in the right,"... Whoever says to the guilty, "You are innocent," will be cursed by peoples and denounced by the public; nations will abhor him as corrupt. [[]]Note: Otto admits (Order, p.4, top of page, [Exhibit-D]) that the July 9, 2006 warranty deed "is in most respects identical" to the May 9, 2006 warranty deed that Daniggelis signed (except, of course, for the word 'July' being hand-written in), which supports Daniggelis' claims that there was photocopy forgery of his signature, which forgery—all by itself—would void the entire illegal transfer of title.

[12] Nor does this count the illegal rulings by the reviewing court, in which it, inter alia, claims that it does not have Mandamus jurisdiction [Exhibit-L], in spite of the clear, plain meaning of Art.6, Sec.6, Ill.Const, and relevant case law. See September 28, 2018 order by reviewing court: "This cause coming on to be heard on the Court's Own Motion, and the Court being advised in the premises;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that this Cause is DISMISSED for lack of this Court's jurisdiction.

See: Gassman v. THE CLERK OF THE CIRCUIT COURT OF COOK COUNTY (1-15-1738) and Midwest Medical v. Dorothy Brown (1-16-3230), both of which are examples of Reviewing Court having the authority to issue Mandamus Writs, as Art.6, Sec. 6 of the ILLINOIS CONSTITUTION (sentence 3) clearly says: “The Appellate Court may exercise original jurisdiction when necessary to the complete determination of any case on review,” which, of course, includes Mandamus actions. Gross Error justifies Federal Review of this, as permitted by Rooker-Feldman, Younger Abstention, etc., to offer a check & balance against legal discord.

To assure This Court that a pro se (non-lawyer) appellant has enough experience to not be a waste of This Court's time: Even though Appellant, Watts, is not an attorney, he almost won the infamous Terri Schiavo case all by himself, doing even better than former Gov. Jeb Bush [Exhibit-G], and he was the only non-lawyer who one Federal Appeals court allowed to participate in the recent Gay Marriage case. [Exhibit-B] See also, his filings in Watts v. Flannery, Shelley, No.123481 before the Illinois Supreme Court in this matter.

[13] Nor does this count the illegal rulings by the reviewing court, in which it, inter alia, claims, in its May 03, 2018 ruling [Exhibit-H], that: “This court has no jurisdiction to order the Cir. Ct. to allow Watts leave to intervene, grant a fee waiver, or to prepare the record on appeal & transmit to App. Ct. in this matter (1-18-0572). Motion denied.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

/s/ Justice Daniel J. Pierce,” in spite of the fact that Appellate Courts have Rule 321 authority to order a limited record on appeal—or to intervene, as allowable under City of Chicago v. John Hancock Mutual Life Ins. Co., 127 Ill.App.3d 140, 144 (1st Dist. 1984),...not to mention that this order wrongly denies the inherent Rule Rule 301 jurisdiction of the appeals court—and as allowable under SECTION 6, ARTICLE VI, Constitution of the State of Illinois.

In preventing appellant an opportunity to appeal the actions of the circuit court, both the Illinois circuit and appellate State judges are not protected by Federal Judicial Immunity under the highest FEDERAL standards: “A judge thus remains unquestionably immune as long as he does not take actions that intentionally and plainly prevent further review. The duty imposed on a state-court judge, then, is only to recognize that his own decisions may sometimes be in error and to ensure that orders affecting important constitutional rights can be reviewed in another court.” [“JUDICIAL IMMUNITY VS. Circuit court refused to even rule on the 7-7-17 Intervention Motion (Exhibit-F), thus preventing any review, and it also refused to allow appellant to prepare a Record on Appeal that he could afford. The Appeals Court (First District, IL) also refused to ensure that the record on appeal was prepared, even when appellant generously offered to limit the Record on Appeal to approximately twelve (12) items (see proposed Order, (Exhibit-C)), sufficient to review the plain—and admitted—forgery fraud. (Judge Otto's order, cited supra, admitted duplicate identical signatures, e.g., forgery.) Thus, as infamous vexatious litigant, Robert J. More (a party to this action, by the way) is wont to say, judges have incurred legal liability and are not protected by Judicial Immunity. (However, appellant, Watts, will strive to be polite, diplomatic, and respectful—and carefully document such strong claims. While appellant, Gordon Wayne Watts, very strongly disagrees with actions of this court and the ones above, he realises that the judges/justices are "real people," who often have a heavy case-load, and will strive to do his part to make their jobs as easy as possible—and show honour & respect, even under duress.)

The Movant meets all three (3) prongs for Intervention under City of Chicago v. John Hancock Mutual Life Ins. Co., 127 Ill.App.3d 140, 144 (1st Dist. 1984), timeliness, inadequacy of representation, and sufficiency of interest, and is qualified to intervene as allowable by 735 ILCS 5/2-408(a)(2) and 735 ILCS 5/2-408(a)(3), as documented in defendant's motion to intervene, dated 7-7-2017, and on file with this court. Although defendant proved that his interests were not sufficiently represented by Mr. Galic, attorney for Defendant, Richard Daniggelis, in his 7-7-2017 filing, that is even more true now: Mr. Galic, whose motion for 'non-suit' aka voluntary dismissal, was granted by Hon. Diane Shelley, in her 12-07-2017 Order, has been AWOL and totally absent in his promise to Mr. Daniggelis to refile the case within the one-year deadline; therefore, we see that Galic has ensured total & complete “inadequacy of representation” of Watts' documented interests.

Since defendant, Watts, has previously documented that he qualifies to proceed as an indigent (Exhibit-I), he could, legally, request This Court prepare the entire record on appeal, and transmit it to the appellate court for review. But, in the interests of fairness to the court (humane treatment and judicial economy), Watts notes that the size of the docket in the underlying Chancery case, in this case number, is huge, and would burden This Court to prepare. Indeed, in the 10-17-2018 “Motion – En Banc – for Extension of Time to file Record on Appeal,” which the reviewing court granted (Exhibit-J), defendant quoted Patricia O'Brien, Deputy Chief of Civil Appeals, in which she concurred and admitted, in her Oct 15, 2018 email reply, that: “as you are well aware, this case is eleven years old and was several boxes in size many years ago.” Instead of asking this court to prepare the entire record, defendant instead asks This Court to prepare a Rule 321 limited record with the twelve (12) filings enumerated in the proposed order of the 4/20/2018 motion which defendant, Watts, electronically-filed, and which is on file with this court. (Exhibit-C) Defendant, Gordon Wayne Watts, makes a formal request, via this rule 321 motion, to prepare the limited record on appeal, enumerated in his 4-20-2018 filing.

* APOLOGY and Explanation for slowness in filing ****

The above legal arguments seem difficult at best with their references to egregious Federal Civil Rights violations—and possibly even insulting, or disrespectful, even though Defendant, Watts, is not trying to insult The Court—which would, of course, be just cause to strike the brief, declare it a frivolous/vexatious filing, and of course restrict/deny Watts Redress before the court, as a restricted/denied filer. (And, of course, this would greatly decrease the chances of my motions being considered, reviewed, and relief granted—something you know I want to avoid.) However, one “last” issue needs to be addressed, and so I will: In a break from “3rd-person” professional language in this motion (and most filings to the court), I, the undersigned Defendant-Appellant-Movant, Gordon Wayne Watts, will apologize to This Court and the appellate court above for slowness in filing this motion today.

Now, at the circuit court, there are no “hard deadlines” to file the record on appeal (as this court has not issued any order directed to myself with deadlines—indeed, only one judge in this case, Judge Otto, issued any orders whatsoever directed to myself, the undersigned Movant, in his humourous Orders dated 10/29/2015 and 12/07/2015, denying my Amicus). However, the appellate court generously extended the deadline for filing the record to February 28, 2019 (and this was 10 more days than I had requested, looking at the 02-18-2019 date in my proposed order). Now, I am still “timely” in my filings (and not 'technically' late), as I will likely have both this motion (to the Cook County, IL circuit court) and yet another motion to extend time (to the First Appellate Court) filed by February 28, 2019. Indeed, one friend said that since I am still timely, I shouldn't even waste The Court's time with an apology, as I'm really not “late.”

However, my slowness in getting back in touch with your court, and making (yet another) request for the record on appeal puts the appeals court at a major inconvenience –and means that your actions will have to be “faster” to make up for my slowness: I “waited until the last minute,” something that (ideally) should have been avoided. So, morally (even if not legally) I owe This Court (and the appeals court) an explanation: As the court has been told before, my father just died, (Exhibit-K), and about a month later, I nearly died from a bad reaction to OTC medication (Exhibit-E). Moreover, after we were evicted (Exhibit-M), the landlady demolished her house, and (of course) forced us to move to the new address. However, the house was in disrepair, and both electric and pump well were not working properly, and we could not take showers, do laundry, flush the lavatory, or get well-water for drinking, because the first (1st) and original pump (Exhibit-N) had been vandalised and damaged before we arrived. So, we purchased a second (2nd) pump on 10-03-2018 for $3,114.80 (Exhibit-O), just before our eviction (in preparation for moving in the new house), but it failed and was replaced. It was under warranty, but we had to pay $375.00 in labour on 01-19-2019 (Exhibit-P), and we got a third (3rd) pump, which was NOT under warranty, since it was burnt up by a voltage problem: It pump failed, we discovered, because the electric ground was not sufficiently grounded, and TECO (Tampa Electric Company) was honest enough (Exhibit-N) to warranty the damaged pump, and paid for a fourth (4th) pump to be put in (Exhibit-Q), actually paying for both pumps they damaged. (But the inconvenience of being unable to take a shower, flush lavatory toilets, have drinking water, do laundry, etc., plus TIME LOST in these ventures, slowed me down, and impeded my attempts to file in This Court earlier.) Furthermore, my computer (the thing that lets me get online and type of a coherent motion or brief) was packed away, and, for months on end, unavailable, and covered beneath piles of a lifetime of belongings. And, even when I could finally get it unpacked, the Internet out here in the country (all we can currently afford) is even slower than dial-up speed. (Exhibit-R) Besides weeks (if not months) of lack of 'basic' things like lavatory toilet, shower, Internet, and computer, I'm still on food stamps, and barely able to keep up with the most basic bills (gas, food, car insurance, rent & utilities, etc.), both financially, and even more-so, from a time-management standpoint.

My filings in this court (and the appeals court above), in which I compete against “rich and powerful” attorneys—whom this court had adamantly and repeatedly protected, after they took my friend's house, and didn't pay him a dime for it, taking hundreds of thousands in documented equity, as well—takes huge amounts of my precious time (that I could, theoretically, spend working a job—if one were to be found in my area).

This “last” issue should be addressed before I make my conclusion: I apologize to This Court (and the appeals court, who will be reviewing this filing and any motion to extend deadlines), for my slowness, but it is all I can do to barely hold-even against the tide. (I will be lucky to file this in time for you to respond before my 02-28-2019 deadline expires, meaning, even if you respond today, you will still have to compile and transmit the record on appeal, necessitating another Order to Extend Time, no matter what occurs, here today.) That being said, I point out the Electric Company (Exhibit-D), which paid for their damage: They didn't hesitate to pay for what they damaged, and I firmly believe that the judges of This Court are at least as honest and sincere. Indeed, I vividly recall Daniggelis telling me, on several occasions, that Judge Diane M. Shelley was careful to warn his attorney, Andjelko Galic, that she might not be in this division next year should he refile this case after her Order granting his “Non-Suit” aka “Voluntary Dismissal” motion, which clearly shows that she cared for him, as a person, and did not, merely, view Daniggelis & his attorney “as a number.” And, Justice Daniel J. Pierce, on the appellate court, could easily have denied any or all of my motions to extend time; And, whatever other egregious complaints I might have with his court or yours, I am firmly certain that he—like most judges and justices—are sincere and want to “do the right thing” as we saw the electric company do.

So, I am apologizing much for making mistakes or being slow on a few, recent occasions—when it was mostly out of my control. And, yet, This Court is NOT apologizing (or making good), at all, for denial of my fair day in court on many occasions, repeatedly. That contrast is a key difference in how different parties are carrying their end of the burden.

But, in spite of the court's obvious slackness in doing it's part, I know that 2 wrongs do not make a right, and I am genuinely sorry for what little I have done to impede the wheels of justice. That is why I go to lengths to make a personal, and detailed, apology.

CONCLUSION

Since this court never ruled on defendant's 7-7-2017 Motion to Intervene, procedural due process is implicated. In light of Judge Flanney's complaint (see Exhibit-S, his March 01, 2018 order) that this court never granted leave to intervene (participate, his words), it is therefore appropriate for this court to review on the merits—and rule on—the following three (3) legal questions:

- 1) 735 ILCS 5/2-408(a)(2) and 735 ILCS 5/2-408(a)(3) Intervention [my 7-7-2017 motion, Exhibit-F]
- 2) Rule 298 Application for Waiver of Court Fees [see my ELECTRONICALLY FILED, 1/22/2018 6:33 PM, 2007-CH-29738, Exhibit-I]
- 3) This Rule 321 motion to limit Contents of the Record on Appeal [the instant motion]

As Judge Michael F. Otto delineates in his December 07, 2015 Order in the Chancery case by the same case number, which underlies this case, this court considers motions on the merits, not its title or caption, citing Vanderplow v. Krych, 332 Ill. App. 3d. 51, 54 (1st Dist. 2002) (“the nature of a motion is determined by its substance rather than its caption... and a court should not blindly adhere to nomenclature at the expense of reality”) (citations and punctuation omitted). Since the elderly Daniggelis was made homeless, this is not unlike a 911 situation, and I remind the court and clerks: What if you called 911, and the the 911 dispatcher—instead of giving you needed service—rather, asked you to provide “boxes and boxes” (see Patricia O'Brien's email, above) of paperwork, which he knew you couldn't afford. While the court is not a police station, the analogy is comparable, because both acts (or lack) could put lives of elderly people in jeopardy. This case has dragged on, unnecessarily delayed years (if not decades) by a court-system which refuses to afford either Procedural Due Process or Substantive Due Process, to both elderly Rich Daniggelis, or appellant Watts.

The “proposed order” in this motion is “light-weight,” and not heavy at all: It simply requests a VERY SMALL quantity of material be compiled into a 'limited' Record on Appeal (not very costly to this court) and, I'm very aware of the financial strains under-which ILLINOIS has recently found itself, and am confident that this matter will not burden you much—and can probably be easily & quickly prepared in a few days or weeks. Therefore, defendant-appellant Watts asks this court to consider this “Rule 321 motion” on the merits of all three (3) legal questions above, and issue a ruling on all three legal questions: Movant asks this court, after having granted technical motions 1 and 2 above, to speedily order the Civil Appeals Division to prepare the limited record enumerated in the proposed order of the 4/20/2018 motion, and speedily transmit it to the IL First Appellate Court, in appellate file number 1-18-0091.

Motion for Clarification concurrent with Rule 321 motion to limit Contents of the Record on Appeal

In the exercise of the reviewing Court's appellate authority, the Appellate Court, First District, has entered an order, in GMAC v. Watts, 1-18-0091, that: "Appellant must direct inquiries on the content of the record on appeal to the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County."

ORDER ENTERED MAR 28 2018, Appellate Court, First District.

Pursuant to the above-quoted/cited order (see infra: Exhibit-A), Appellant, Gordon Wayne Watts, now directs inquiry to This Court regarding the content of the record on appeal in 1-18-0091—hereby moving for clarification of whether or not the 7-7-2017 motion to Intervene stated sufficient grounds to intervene in the case at bar.

Moreover, in concurrent motion, Appellant, Watts, now moves this court to "order less" for the Record on Appeal, in accordance with Rule 321, notice, and proper hearing will having been given. [In support of this motion, Movant respectfully points out that a stipulation is highly unlikely given the fact that many parties can't even be located or have bad service addresses, and/or are unlikely to consent to anything, big or small, in this regard.]

Specifically, movant requests that the clerk prepare the limited record sought in the 3/16/2018 Motion for Extension of Time, in GMAC v Watts, 1-18-0091, a copy of which has been served upon this court in prior filings—and reproduced below, in the proposed order.

Respectfully submitted,

Judge Otto's 3-8-2013 order in this case[[]], which documentes and verifies the forgery to execute mortgage fraud theft of elderly Daniggelis' house, land, and equity, documeted to be hundreds of thousands of dollars:

[[]]Note: Otto admits (Order, p.4, top of page, Exhibit-D) that the July 9, 2006 warranty deed "is in most respects identical" to the May 9, 2006 warranty deed that Daniggelis signed (except, of course, for the word 'July' being hand-written in), which supports Daniggelis' claims that there was photocopy forgery of his signature, which forgery—all by itself—would void the entire illegal transfer of title.

ORDER

THIS MATTER coming before the Court for ruling on the Motion of Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant U.S. Bank National Association (“Plaintiff” or the Bank) for Partial Summary Judgment as to Counts II and III of the Third Amended Complaint and Counts I, II, III and V of Richard Daniggelis’s Amended Counterclaim, and Counter-Plaintiff Daniggelis’s Motions to Strike the Affidavits of Rashad Blanchard and Howard Handville, the Court being fully advised in the premises including the oral arguments presented regarding this and other motions on February 15, 2013;

THE COURT HEREBY ORDERS:

The Bank’s Motion for Partial Summary Judgment is denied in part as moot, and granted in part, and Daniggelis’s Motions to Strike are denied as moot, for the reasons stated below.

Background

This case has been pending before this Court for approximately five and a half years. Voluminous pleadings have been filed, motion practice engaged in and discovery propounded. The relevant factual framework for purposes of the issues raised in the motions presently before the Court, however, can be stated succinctly. In short, Daniggelis claims to be the victim of mortgage rescue fraud. See, e.g., LaSalle Bank v. Ferone, 384 Ill. App. 3d 239 (2d Dist. 2008). He asserts that in 2006, Paul Shelton, Erika Rhone and Joseph Younes conspired to dupe him into signing over to Younes a deed to his home, under the guise of rescuing his home from a foreclosure suit then pending against Daniggelis. They then subsequently misused that deed, along with a power of attorney Daniggelis had executed to Rhone, to effectuate a sale to Younes without Daniggelis’s consent.

The Bank has now moved for partial summary judgment, arguing in essence that the Bank merely provided money to finance a facially valid transaction. As such, the Bank argues, it must be held blameless regardless of whether any such fraud in fact occurred.

The below facts are either uncontradicted or are taken from Daniggelis's December 3, 2009 Verified Third Amended Answer, Affirmative Defenses and Counterclaims, and the Exhibits thereto. For the purposes of this Motion, the Court assumes the truth of the well-pled facts contained therein. The Court makes no finding to that effect, however, as it is not necessary (nor would it be appropriate) to do so at the summary judgment stage.

Defendant Daniggelis has lived at the subject property since 1989. In 2004, he fell behind on his mortgage payments and his lender, Deutsche Bank, filed a foreclosure action against him in this Court. See Deutsche Bank v. Daniggelis, No. 04CH10851.

In May 2006, while the Deutsche Bank foreclosure action was still pending, Daniggelis signed a warranty deed transferring the property to Defendant Joseph Younes. Daniggelis has attached that deed as Exhibit G to the Counterclaim.

Also in May 2006, Daniggelis executed a "Limited Power of Attorney For Real Estate Transaction" (POA) in favor of Rhone. Daniggelis has attached the POA as Exhibit L to the Counterclaim.

Exhibit L consists of two pages. Daniggelis asserts that both pages are part of the POA. Page 1 is a typewritten document, captioned as noted above. It is signed by Daniggelis, and names Rhone as his true and lawful Attorney-In-Fact to act in, manage and conduct all my affairs individually for that purpose in my name and on my behalf to do and execute any or all of the following acts, deeds, and other documents and things, to wit:

To execute any and all documents and perform any and all acts necessary to effectuate the sale of the property at:

THE EAST 66 FEET OF LOT 8 IN C. J. HULLS SUBDIVISION OF BLOCK 51 IN CANAL TRUSTEE'S SUBDIVISION OF SECTION 33, TOWNSHIP 40 NORTH, RANGE 14, EAST OF THE THIRD PRINCIPAL MERIDIAN, IN COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

CKA: 1720 North Sedgwick Street Chicago Illinois 60614

PIN#: 14-33-324-044-0000

Other Acts (if any): _____

HEREBY GIVING AND GRANTING unto my said attorney full power and authority whatsoever requisite or proper to be done in or about the premises, as fully to all intents and purposes as I might or could lawfully do if personally present, and hereby certifying and confirming all that my said attorney shall do or cause to be done under and by virtue of these presents.

AS LONG AS I (RICHARD) DO NOT SIGN
OR SELL WITH ANYONE ELSE
BACK BY EITHER SELLING
JOE YONES [sic] OR RICHARD PAY
HIM BACK DIRECTLY I ERIKA WILL N
USE THE POWER OF ATTORNEY F
ANY REASON OTHER THAN TODA
PAYMENT OF ANY LEGAL AND MORTGAGE ARREARAGE

Subsequently, on July 28, 2006, there was a closing at Stewart Title. Daniggelis did not attend the closing. Where Daniggelis's signature was required on the closing documents, they were signed "Richard Daniggelis, attorney in fact, Erika Rhone." The settlement statement from the closing lists Daniggelis as selling of the property to Younes, for a purchase price of $833,000.

To finance the property, Younes entered into the loan at issue in the present matter, in the amount of $583,100, in addition to funds from at least two separate sources. The settlement statement indicated that among the disbursements was a payoff in full of the Daniggelis mortgage with Deutsche Bank, in the amount of $634,604.55.

Daniggelis attaches as Exhibit DD to his Counterclaim a copy of the warranty deed from Daniggelis to Younes which was recorded with the Cook County Recorder of Deeds on August

16, 2006. The document is in most respects identical to the warranty deed Daniggelis claims to have signed in May. The date, however, differs. Exhibit G to the Counterclaim states that it was signed "on this 9th day of May, 2006." The entire clause is typewritten. The recorded version of the deed, however, states that it was signed "on this 9th day of July, 2006." The word "July" is handwritten in the document. No initials appear next to it. (Exh. DD.) The notary stamp also contains a handwritten "July."

In August 2006, Rhone came to Daniggelis's home, informed him about the July 2006 closing, and tendered him copies of the closing documents, which he refused to accept. In April 2007, Daniggelis filed a Notice of Forgery with the Recorder of Deeds, stating that the deed filed in August 2006 was a forgery.

Daniggelis contends that the deed he signed in May 2006 was intended to take effect only if the property was sold on or before May 31, 2006. He claims that the July 2006 closing took place without his awareness or consent.

Pleadings

Complaint. In 2007, LaSalle Bank filed the instant foreclosure action. The Bank's third amended complaint, filed October 7 2011, is in three Counts. Count I of the Complaint is a mortgage foreclosure action, asserting that mortgagor Younes has defaulted on the July 2006 loan. Count II of the Bank's Complaint seeks equitable subrogation to the Deutsche Bank loan which was paid off at the July 2006 closing. Count III of the Complaint seeks to recover principal and interest on the July 2006 loan based on the theory of unjust enrichment.

Counterclaim. Daniggelis answered the Complaint and brought an 11-count Counterclaim. The several counts of the Counterclaim seek relief against many counter-defendants, including the Bank, Younes, Rhone, Shelton, Stewart Title, and others. Multiple legal theories are raised. Only four counts of the Counterclaim are at issue for purposes of the present motion, however. Those are:

Count I: Quiet Title: Invalid Deed

Here Daniggelis seeks to quiet title in himself because the Bank (and others) "knew or should have known that the deed had been altered on its face and was no longer valid when the closing occurred."

Count II: Quiet Title: Invalid Power of Attorney

Here Daniggelis seeks to quiet title in himself because the Bank (and others) "knew or should have known that Daniggelis did not consent to the closing" because the POA "specified that it was only to be used to pay the arrearages on the Home and not for any other purpose."

Count III: Rescission Based on Unjust Enrichment

Here Danigellis seeks to rescind the transaction as against the Bank because the Bank was “unjustly enriched to the extent it received fees from the subject transaction and/or a security interest in Daniggelis’s property and the right to collect interest on the new mortgage executed by Younes.”

Count V: Quiet Title: Based on Erika Rhone and Paul Shelton’s Fraud Against LaSalle Bank, N.A.

Here Danigellis seeks to quiet title in himself because Rhone and Shelton “fraudulently used the Power of Attorney and Warranty Deed to effectuate the sale of the Home to Younes” and the Bank (and others) “knew or should have known that Rhone used the Power of Attorney fraudulently to effectuate the sale to Younes.”

Motion Practice

The Bank has now moved for Summary Judgment on Counts II and III of its Complaint and Counts I, II, III and V of the Daniggelis Counterclaim.

Daniggelis filed no response to the Bank’s Motion, but instead only moved to strike the affidavits of Rashad Blanchard and Howard Handville, which were among the exhibits to the Bank’s Motion. The Bank filed a combined Response to Daniggelis’s Motions to Strike.

Concurrently with Bank’s Motion for Summary Judgment and Daniggelis’s Motions to Strike, numerous other motions were brought.

- The Bank brought a separate motion for summary judgment on Count I of the Complaint (foreclosure) against Younes, Mortgage Electronic Registration Systems, Inc. (“MERS”), and unknown owners and non-record claimants – this motion was not directed against Daniggelis.
- The Bank also moved to find MERS in default.
- Daniggelis moved for summary judgment against the Bank on Counts I, II and III of the Complaint.
- Younes moved for Summary Judgment against Daniggelis, contending that Younes was a bona fide purchaser for value. This motion does not on its face state explicitly the counts of the pleadings towards which it is directed, but does reference Daniggelis’s three quiet title counts against Younes (Counts I, II and V of the counterclaim).

The Court disposed of all motions other than the pending Motion for Summary Judgment and Motions to Strike as provided in its Order of February 15, for the reasons stated on the record at the hearing.

ANALYSIS

I. Counts II and III of the Third Amended Complaint

The Court denies the Bank's Motion as to Counts II and III of the Third Amended Complaint on the grounds of mootness. At the February 15 hearing, after the Court had disposed of the other motions noted above, the Court inquired of the Bank whether there remained a need to decide the instant motion for summary judgment given the Court's disposition of the other motions – specifically, the Court having granted Younes's Motion for Summary Judgment against Daniggelis and the Bank's Motion for Summary Judgment on Count I of the Complaint. The Bank acknowledged that the instant motion was moot as it pertains to Counts II and III of the Complaint, because those Counts sought relief if the Court found Daniggelis's rights superior to Younes (or declined to rule). Because the Court has granted the Bank a judgment of foreclosure against Younes based on the default on the July 2006 mortgage, and has found Younes to be a bona fide purchaser from Daniggelis, there is no need to resolve Counts II and III of the Complaint.

II. Counts I, II, III and V of the Counterclaim

The Court grants the Bank's Motion for Summary Judgment on Counts I, II, III and V of the Counterclaim. On these matters, the Bank's Motion is a Celotex-type motion for summary judgment. See Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 323, 91 L. Ed. 2d 265, 273, 106 S. Ct. 2548, 2552 (1986). As the Appellate Court has explained:

A defendant who moves for summary judgment may meet its initial burden of production in at least two ways: (1) by affirmatively disproving the plaintiff's case by introducing evidence that, if uncontroverted, would entitle the movant to judgment as a matter of law (traditional test), or (2) by establishing that the nonmovant lacks sufficient evidence to prove an essential element of the cause of action (Celotex test).

Williams v. Covenant Med. Ctr., 316 Ill. App. 3d 682, 688-689 (4th Dist. 2000) (citations omitted). Here, the Bank, as Counter-Defendant, argues that Daniggelis lacks evidence to support his counterclaims against the Bank.

In opposing a Celotex-type motion, the non-movant may rely on his pleadings. See *Id.*² Thus, the Court assumes for purposes of analysis the truth of the well-pled facts contained in Daniggelis's Counterclaim and the Exhibits thereto.

² By contrast, "a party may not rely upon his or her own verified pleadings to oppose a motion for summary judgment when the movant has" filed a traditional motion for summary judgment, and has "supplied evidentiary material, such as an affidavit, that, if uncontradicted, would entitle him or her to judgment as a matter of law." Gassner v. Raynor Mfg. Co., 409 Ill. App. 3d 995, 1005 (2d Dist. 2011).

Count I: Quiet Title: Invalid Deed

The Bank's motion is granted as to Count I. Daniggelis does plead that the warranty deed from himself to Younes "had been altered on its face" and provides evidence in support of that allegation – specifically, Exhibits G and DD to the Counterclaim, the Deed he signed in May 2006 and the Deed recorded with Cook County, with the latter identical but for the July handwritten the signature date.

The difficulty for Daniggelis is that he provides no factual or legal support for his assertion that, assuming the signature date to have been altered, the Bank therefore "knew or should have known that the deed ... was no longer valid when the closing occurred." It is true that any material alteration of a written instrument after signature will render the instrument void. See, e.g., Ruwaldt v. McBride, Inc., 388 Ill. 285, 293 (1944). But this rule defines a "material" change as one which "so changes [the instrument's] terms as to give it a different legal effect from what it originally had, and thus work some change in the rights, obligation, interests or relations of the parties." Id. By contrast, a change which "could have no effect whatever upon the [instrument] or upon the rights, obligations, interests or relations of the plaintiff and defendant as the parties thereto ... could not be an alteration changing the legal effect of the instrument." Cities Service Oil Co. v. Viering, 404 Ill. 538, 547 (1949). Instruments remain fully enforceable notwithstanding an immaterial change. Id. Indeed, in Viering, the Illinois Supreme Court upheld a decree of specific performance of a land contract notwithstanding the deletion of a signator's name, on the grounds that the signator was not necessary.

In the instant matter, Daniggelis has offered no factual or legal support why the alteration of the signature date would have had any effect on the validity of the document, why the Bank should have believed the modification to have any legal effect on its enforceability, or for that matter why the Bank should have believed the modification to have been made after signature, as opposed to at the time Daniggelis signed the deed. Thus, even assuming the signature date to have been changed after Daniggelis signed it, the Bank is entitled to summary judgment.

Count II: Quiet Title: Invalid Power of Attorney

The Bank is entitled to summary judgment on Count II of the Counterclaim for similar reasons. Danigellis again has shown no evidence why the Bank "knew or should have known" that the POA "specified that it was only to be used to pay the arrearages on the Home and not for any other purpose." The first page of the POA is facially a complete document. Daniggelis has presented no evidence that the Bank was ever made aware of what he represents to be the second (handwritten) page of the POA, nor why the Bank should have been aware of that page.

Count III: Rescission Based on Unjust Enrichment

The Bank is also entitled to Summary Judgment on Count III, Danigellis's claim for rescission based on unjust enrichment. Daniggelis has shown no legal or factual basis for his contention that the Bank was "unjustly enriched" by having "received fees from the subject transaction and/or a security interest in Daniggelis's property and the right to collect interest on the new mortgage executed by Younes." These matters – fees for extending a loan, a security interest and the right subsequently to collect interest on the loan – are ordinary, if not indeed essential, attributes of a mortgage transaction. Daniggelis has not given any explanation of how they constitute unjust enrichment in the instant case.

Count V: Quiet Title: Based on Erika Rhone and Paul Shelton's Fraud Against LaSalle Bank, N.A.

Finally, the Bank is clearly entitled to summary judgment on Count V of the counterclaim, which seeks to quiet title based on Rhone and Shelton's fraud against the Bank. Although Daniggelis asserts that the Bank should have known that Rhone was using the POA fraudulently, he provides no support for that conclusion here, just as he provided none in Count II of the Counterclaim, of which (at least as applied to the Bank) Count V appears to be nothing more than a restatement.

III. Daniggelis Motions to Strike

The Court denies as moot Daniggelis's Motions to Strike Affidavits. As noted above, the Bank's Motion for Summary Judgment on the Counterclaim is a Celotex-type Motion, in which the Bank argues it is entitled to judgment because Daniggelis "lacks sufficient evidence to prove an essential element of the cause of action." Williams, 316 Ill. App. 3d at 688-689. The Court has found the Bank entitled to judgment on that basis. Accordingly, the Court did not consider the evidentiary material the Bank submitted in support of its Motion as regards Counts II and III of the Complaint. The Motions to Strike are thus moot.

Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Judgment is DENIED IN PART AS MOOT, as regards Counts II and III of the Complaint. The Motion is GRANTED as regards Counts I, II, III and V of the Counterclaim.

Counter-Plaintiff's Motions to Strike are DENIED AS MOOT.

Notice of Motion

To: This Honourable Court and all parties being served (see attached service list, below)
From: Mr. Gordon Wayne Watts, LAKELAND, Fla. (full contact data, below)

Notice Proper: Pursuant to Local Rule 2.1 ["Notice of Hearing of Motions"], the undersigned movant is hereby giving this honourable court and all parties proper notice of the attached "MOTION TO INTERVENE BY INTERVENOR, GORDON WAYNE WATTS," being filed instanter, in the above-captioned case—a copy of which is attached hereto and is being served upon you.

Due to unfamiliarity with this very uncommon "local rule," movant did not give proper "notice" of past motions, via the "notice of motion," in accordance with said local rule, which is peculiar to this court alone. As This Court can see, the attached Motion to Intervene gives overwhelming evidence of Movant's right to claim legal standing to intervene – and that the interests not being represented are not "de minimus," (unless the court and parties are willing/able to reimburse to Mr. Watts the full amount documented herewith, and then some for unrecorded costs, time lost from work, and emotional losses).

Moreover: The undersigned Intervenor, Gordon Wayne Watts, through human fault, committed three (3) unintentional offenses against This Court (and all parties), and, by virtue of this pleading, is offering a sincere apology:

(1) While the undersigned litigant has generally had excellent and professional relations with the many clerks and lawyers involved (in Chancery, Civil, and Law Divisions, as well as numerous judges' chambers and the chambers of the Chief Judge, as well as the Office of the State Attorney, and the IL Attorney General), on rare occasion he has expressed human emotion to certain unnamed clerk(s), expressing profound disappointment over the rulings in the various cases regarding defendant, Daniggelis. While this is inexcusable and indefensible, Intervenor, Watts, views Daniggelis as sort-of a grandfather-figure (whom he feels was cheated out of a house, property, and hundreds of thousands of dollars of equity therewith), and, all of us being human can understand that if you kick a dog repeatedly (Mr. Watts is comparing himself to a dog), the dog will eventually yelp or holler. This does not justify the yelping bark, but it is offered up as "mitigating circumstances." Therefore, Mr. Watts offers his sincere apologies for occasional lapses in professionalism.

(2) Although Mr. Watts' legal standing to Intervene is very strong (see above—and the attached motion to intervene), he felt an "amicus" brief would be less invasive and more acceptable. While this may be the view of most courts, nonetheless, for reasons unknown, case law suggests that Cook County, IL courts take a much dimmer view of amicus curiae briefs than they do of, say, Intervention actions. Therefore, Mr. Watts offers his sincere apologies for taking an unintentionally-offensive legal tact, and is hereby changing course to a more accepted and conventional course: that of direct intervention, as provided by statutory and case law.

FILED DATE: 2/27/2019 10:47 PM 2007CH29738

(3) As mentioned in the instant "Notice of Motion," Intervenor, Watts, was unfamiliar with this uncommon rule (Local Rule 2.1, requiring a "notice of motion" to accompany motions) which appears unique to Cook County, IL courts—and therefore didn't comply with the rules of the court. Therefore, pursuant to R.2.1, proper notice is being given of the above-mentioned motion—and an apology herewith is tendered to the court and parties.

Details: Normally, a notice of motion contains a promise for the movant to appear as such-and-such time in such-and-such courtroom to present the motion: "Please take notice that on (certain date) and at (certain time), I shall appear before (named judge) – or any other judge, as may be holding court, in his/her absence – in (certain courtroom) to present (certain motion), which is attached hereto."

The undersigned Movant understands the value and importance of in propria persona physical appearance (to be available, for example, to answer any questions in real time, as well as connect name & face). However, physical appearance (as is normally done) is mathematically impossible, and yet Due Process requires that This Court consider the matter on the merits, so notice is given – with arguments for an alternative.

Problem: Movant lives in a far, distant locale called "Lakeland, Florida" (which is squarely between Tampa and Orlando, Fla.), and has neither a local attorney retained (to appear on his behalf), nor resources to glibly travel at the drop-of-a-hat whim to Chicago, Illinois (to appear for himself), due to oppressive and ever-present financial constraints.

Proposed Solution: This motion should be considered on its merits via written submission to This Court. In the alternative, This Court may also (if it so chooses) invoke Art. II, Rule 135 (Telephone Conferences), R.Civ. Proceedings in the Trial Court, and/or Rule 206(h)(Remote Electronic Means Depositions), etc., by calling movant at either of his two phone numbers of record: 863-688-9880 (home) and/or 863-409-2109 (cell)

Arguments Whereof: It is very common legal precedent for motions to be considered in written form only. (In fact, this is probably the most common form, or at least a close second, if not first-place.) Here are but a few examples:

(1) Intervenor, Gordon Wayne Watts, filed direct intervention as "next friend" in the Florida Supreme Court on behalf of the late Theresa Marie "Terri" Schindler-Schiavo (see e.g., Exhibit-A). While the court eventually ruled against him in a razor-thin 4-3 split decision (garnering almost 43% of his panel), Mr. Watts' motions, nonetheless, were considered on the merits before the full Supreme Court of his home state, in this high-profile case, and, in fact, his intervention got even farther than that of former Florida Governor, John Ellis "Jeb" Bush, who filed similar intervention on behalf of Ms. Schiavo (Bush lost 7-0), or even Schiavo's blood family (who got only about 33% of their panel in Federal Court).

Watts lost 4-3 on rehearing. Bush lost 7-0 on rehearing – before the same panel, and on the same issue. (Apparently, the court liked Watts' "food/water" arguments better than the similar, but inferior "feeding tube" arguments presented by both Gov. Jeb Bush and Schiavo's parents.) Although Watts occasionally visited The Florida Supreme Court in person while he was a student at The Florida State University (in Tallahassee, Fla.), he never appeared in person to present his motions for intervention in the infamous "Terri Schiavo" case, and yet The Court still considered the matter on the merits. (See Exhibit-A)

(2) Subsequently, Mr. Watts decided to file an Amicus Curiae (a friend of the court brief) in one of the recent "Gay Marriage" cases pending before the Federal Appeals court in his circuit. In fact, he even went as far as to ask The Court for leave to amend 'out of time' (a rare procedure to allow a litigant to amend a brief, even though filing deadlines have passed, to correct errors and/or to add additional materiel, facts, arguments, etc.). It is believed that Watts was the only non-Lawyer litigant allowed participation in this case. (In fact, Watts was permitted to amend his initial brief, out of time, even though another pro se non-Lawyer was denied: Ex-B) In any event, although Mr. Watts did not present, “in person,” his motion for leave to file an amicus brief, nor the amicus brief itself, by traveling to The U.S. 11th Circuit FEDERAL Court of Appeals, in Atlanta, GA, nonetheless, the court considered his brief and all related motions on the merits. (See, e.g., Exhibit-B)

(3) Let us also consider the case of an imprisoned Illinois prisoner – in some state or county jail: many a “jailhouse lawyer” exists in our correctional institution's incarcerated population. They file all kinds of frivolous lawsuits, motions, and torts! While most of them end up in “file-13” of that great wastebasket of the Judicial System, nonetheless, state and federal Due Process requires these motions be considered on the merits. While the undersigned litigant has no “expert” knowledge of The State of Illinois court system, it goes without saying that not all prisoners are carted “back and forth” to the court for numerous frivolous motions (for very obvious cost-restraint reasons—in fact, Illinois is currently facing a financial crisis!). These prisoners, many of whom do not appear in person to present their motions, nonetheless, get “their day in court”: They don't appear in person, and yet their motions are still considered on the merits!

(4) Perhaps, the best argument for consideration of a motion, where the litigant can't travel to The Court in person to present it, comes from This Court itself! (And would, thus, be legally-binding case-law precedent.)

Looking at GMAC MORTGAGE LLC, et al. v. RICHARD DANIGGELIS, et al. (case number: 2007-CH-29738), which was heard before the Chancery Division of the Cook County, IL circuit court (not to be confused with a case heard in the Law Division, and by the same style and case number, which was subsequently transferred from Chancery to Law), we see a spirited fight put up for justice in this case, by no less than Mr. Watts, himself: As but one example of a motion considered without litigant appearing in person, we find from the docket in the above-mentioned case, on 11/30/2015, Watts moved for rehearing (without appearing in person), and on 12/07/2015, The Court (Hon. Michael F. Otto, associate judge, presiding in this case) ruled, in courtroom 2804, in a ruling titled: “MISCELLANEOUS MOTION – ALLOWED.” While Judge Otto commits a tort of slander on page 3 of his Dec. 07, 2015 ruling¹, nonetheless, he does rule on the merits of Watts request to Supplement the Record on Appeal (in the appeal that was pending at that time).

Although the undersigned movant would argue that rulings made by Hon. Judge Michael F. Otto (Associate Judge, #2605) were exceptionally incorrect (as a matter of case law, statutory law, and State & Federal constitutional rights), as applied to the facts of that case, nonetheless, Judge Otto finally (after much prodding and begging) considered the motions on the merits—and issued a ruling (right or wrong), not just once, but several times. (Judge Otto should be commended for an “A+” performance of granting “Procedural Due Process,” even if “Substantive Due Process” was trampled upon by what movant argues were “unjust” rulings.)

Therefore, even This Court's own legally-binding precedent confirms that State and Federal Due Process require all redresses, grievances, suits at law, and related motions to be heard on the merits—whether or not litigants seeking redress can physically travel to The Court in propria persona: The Court does not discriminate nor deny due process to litigants simply for being “too poor” to afford to hire a lawyer to appear—or to travel to appear themselves. Discrimination is wrong—in any of its forms or manifestations.

¹ Falsely claiming that Watts is arguing that vexatious litigants practices are 'OK'—direct quote: “The argument that all strangers to a case should be allowed to engage in the tactics of a vexatious litigant is so unpersuasive as to require no further discussion.”—Watts never said such things within the “4 Corners” of any of his briefs, arguing only that if vexatious litigants be given a fair hearing, then he should be heard & treated fairly too. Thus judge's statement/claims was false, and slanderous, but we're all human, and make mistakes—and this argument & documentation of slander/libel is not meant as disrespectful of the judge or the court.

Prayer(s) for Relief: Therefore, please review and rule on my motion for intervention, filed instanter, granting speedy relief to effect justice for both Defendant, Mr. Daniggelis, as well as Intervenor, Mr. Watts.

Arguments defending this position are on docket, as This Court has been good enough to grant extensive Procedural Due Process and document (by docketing) the sworn affidavit and arguments of the undersigned Intervenor—in prior filings he has submitted within the last several years to the Chancery, Civil, and Law Divisions of the Cook County, IL circuit/trial courts.

While a “CASE SET ON TRIAL CALL” [whether “bench trial” or a “trial by jury”] might theoretically grant justice, this is passing the buck; and, as The Court created this problem (by transferring title without legal justification—a brute show of force, and no more), therefore the court, which created the problem should decline to “pass the buck” to a “trial call,” and, instead, solve that problem which it, itself, created. Now, I pray This Court speedily grant speedy Substantive Due Process on any & all claims of Redress which I've previously made—and which were made by Defendant, Mr. Richard B. Daniggelis.

I realise that I'm effectively asking for a “Summary Judgment,” which is addressed and circumscribed by Local Rule 2.1(f) (“Filing motions for summary judgment in the Law Division”). This sub-section states en toto: “All motions for summary judgement shall be filed and duly noticed for hearing such that the motion comes before the court for initial presentation and entry of a briefing schedule not later than forty-five (45) days before the trial date, except by prior leave of court and for good cause shown or unless a deadline for dispositive motions is otherwise specified in the case management order.” [Emphasis added for clarity; not in original]

Here is 'Good Cause': Since the nature and magnitude of the injustices are egregious, and since the court and parties have all had very ample opportunities to hash out their arguments, it would prejudice no one should the court issue an order of show cause to Mr. Younes as to why title should not transfer back to its rightful owner—or (simpler & better yet), should the court issue a summary judgment as a matter of law—in favour of Daniggelis. To decline to issue a summary judgment would fulfill the prophecy: “Justice delayed = Justice denied.”

Specifically, This Court is asked to return title of 1720 N. Sedgwick St. to its rightful owner, Richard B. Daniggelis (and award damages as it sees fit for his numerous losses—not the least of which is the fact that he's losing huge amounts of monies paid out-of-pocket for storage of his belongings, as well, possibly, as rent to procure a replacement housing—so that he does not have to live on the streets or in his van—as was reported widely, in the recent past), unless The Court can offer an excellent, detailed, and coherent explanation to the contrary. [Note: While Judge Otto made valiant efforts to argue against justice here, none of his legal arguments were sound or persuasive, excepting the one pointing out that the trial courts had temporarily lost jurisdiction when the matter was on appeal. The mandate has issued, and that appeal is finalised, so no longer will that dog hunt: The trial court is responsible for cleaning up its own messes.] Respectfully: If This Court disagrees with the legal arguments herewith, I hereby move The Court – and all of its judges – to grant a motion for clarification to the contrary. Barring that, relief is sought as previously requested.

This Court may also (if it so chooses) invoke Art. II, Rule 185 (Telephone Conferences), R.Civ. Proceedings in the Trial Court, and/or Rule 206(h)(Remote Electronic Means Depositions), etc., by calling movant at either of his two phone numbers of record: 863-688-9880 (home) and/or 863-409-2109 (cell).

AFFIDAVIT OF GORDON WAYNE WATTS

STATE OF FLORIDA
COUNTY OF POLK

Before me, the undersigned Notary, on this 5th day of July, 2017, personally appeared Gordon Wayne Watts, known to me to be a credible person and of lawful age, who first being duly sworn, upon his oath, deposes and says:

AFFIANT STATEMENT: I, Gordon Wayne Watts, declare (certify, verify, and state) under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America and the States of Florida and Illinois that the following statement is true and correct to the best of my knowledge:

I personally know Richard B. Daniggelis, a defendant in the above-captioned case, and who was named as a defendant in at least four (4) cases related to the same subject matter: Deutsch Bank v. Daniggelis, et al. (2004-CH-10851), GMAC Mortgage et al. v. Daniggelis et al. (2007-CH-29738) [heard in CHANCERY and transferred to the LAW DIVISION, e.g., the above-captioned case, thus counting as "two" cases], and Younes v. Daniggelis (2014-M1-701473). Mr. Daniggelis made me aware of mortgage fraud; while I believed him, I had no proof of it. However, I later obtained proof of fraud and discovered that This Court hadn't been made aware of much of the proof that I found through my own private research. So, I felt moral obligation to bring this to The Court's attention via a previously-filed a "Friend of the Court" brief with This Honourable Court in all of the above-captioned cases, excepting the Deutch Bank case. – I submitted: Statements of Facts, Documentation to Verify, and Arguments whereof.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH:

(1) HOWEVER, after having done much research for Mr. Daniggelis (costing me time lost from work, labour, and public records fees to research and obtain numerous documents & facts, not to mention emotional distress), he has agreed to pay me monies owed; but, due to the situation of him having lost his house in mortgage fraud, this places, upon him, a financial burden frnt that Mr. Daniggelis has lost due to a cloud on the title, attorneys fees, & costs to obtain replacement housing and storage for his belongings, at the least.

(2) While Amicus Curiae briefs are not a matter of right (but at the court's discretion), nonetheless, I know that his hardships reduce the chances of him paying me what is owed, thus giving me an absolute right to Intervene under 735 ILCS 5/2-408(a)(2) because "the representation of the applicant's interest [e.g., what he owes me in labour, time lost from work, and Public Records pull fees, etc.] by existing parties is or may be inadequate and the applicant will or may be bound by an order or judgment in the action."

FILED DATE: 2/27/2019 10:47 PM 2007CH29738

(3) Moreover, I state, for the record, that I have the right to intervene under 735 ILCS 5/2-408(a)(3) because "the applicant [the undersigned Affiant] is so situated as to be adversely affected by a distribution or other disposition of property in the custody or subject to the control or disposition of the court or a court officer."

(4) I am the sole author of this affidavit, the accompanying proposed "Motion to Intervene," and the related "notice of motion," as required by the rules of your court.

(5) Although I have previously submitted a sworn & notarised Affidavit in both the Chancery case (on 8/10/2015) and the above-captioned case (on 9/14/2015), as well as legal arguments, supporting documentation, and statements of fact (in my prior briefs), there have been several new developments (as well as overlooked facts & legal arguments) that compel me to take my valuable & limited time to carefully write up (hopefully) this last & final Affidavit (and related filings) to help shepherd Mr. Daniggelis' case through the court—and, of course, to avail myself of my Rights of Intervention, as proscribed by ILLINOIS statutory and case law:

My intervention as of right is asserted, and "the trial court's jurisdiction is limited to determining timeliness, inadequacy of representation and sufficiency of interest; once these threshold requirements have been met, the plain meaning of the statute directs that the petition be granted." City of Chicago v. John Hancock Mutual Life Ins. Co., 127 Ill.App.3d 140, 144 (1st Dist. 1984). [Emphasis added in underline & bold; not in original] I satisfy all three requirements, giving me rights to intervene under 735 ILCS 5/2-408(a)(3).

NEW DEVELOPMENTS: Very recently, I got an unexpected email response from (disbarred) Atty. Paul L. Shelton (the former law partner of Joseph Younes, and who conspired with Younes to defraud Daniggelis out of his house, title, and land), in response to me serving him his "service copies" of my filings, via email. (See attached.) Mr. Shelton has been very helpful, to me, in comparing notes and candidly discussing this case, and a few of his observations are worth bringing to This Court's attention: As we all recall, Shelton was not only stripped of his broker's license by the IDFPR, but subsequently, he was disbarred, and thus stripped of his IL law license, by the IARDC—and, in both instances, for mortgage fraud, as the publicly-accessible IL Records clearly show. (Both of Shelton's disbarments, above, made me suspect Younes, since both law partners were named defendants in numerous of Daniggelis' cases—also involving mortgage fraud.)

Mr. Shelton told me in his May 16, 2017 reply (see attachments) that: "This is personal and confidential and I'm trusting that none of what I say here is used against me." For that reason [and because the 3 emails comprise fourteen (14) pages, which is a bit lengthy for the court's review], I'm hesitant to include his replies. HOWEVER, after reviewing his replies, nothing, in my opinion would do him any harm or injury. (His loss of law license means it can't get any worse, other than criminal charges, and nothing he said makes his case any worse. In fact, I have hopes that if he "turns state's evidence" & helps The Court by testifying, he can get some form of leniency or partial reinstatement.) MOREOVER, This Court need not read through the minutiae of our email exchange, but I must include, in relevant part, key portions, "in context," of our exchange to verify & demonstrate genuine authenticity, e.g., that it was Mr. Shelton (not myself) who wrote his reply.

The key thing that Shelton tells me is that: "But in reality, he [Daniggelis] gave her [Erika Rhone] POA and she had [legal] right to alter deed, even date, "forge" it or sign properly as attorney in fact. That is the judges point." [Comments in bracket to clarify; not in Shelton's original reply.] While this may seem irrelevant to the casual reader (what 2 non-Lawyers are discussing), I include this "new development" because I believe sitting judges may accept this wrong view of statutory and case law: As This Court can see in my "Thu, May 18, 2017 at 6:56 AM" reply to Atty. Shelton, he's incorrect, & I cite several sources to verify, including LeagleBeagle.com, Caring.com, LegalZoom.com, StandardLegal.com, and NationalNotary.org, all which all clearly state that you can not "forge" another person's signature, even if you are their POA (Power of Attorney), and moreover, you must make it clear that you are signing as the POA for the principal. In fact, StandardLegal clearly states that: "When signing on behalf of a Grantor as Attorney-in-Fact, you should always sign YOUR OWN NAME, followed by the words "Power of Attorney".

Do NOT sign the Grantor's name — EVER!

By signing your own name with the words "Power of Attorney" after your name to any contract or other legal document, the person receiving the documents signed by you on behalf of the person who granted you the Power of Attorney understands exactly what is being provided." <http://www.StandardLegal.com/blog/if-i-have-power-ofattorney-how-do-i-sign-legal-documents-on-behalf-of-my-grantor>

Shelton goes on to say (see email exchanges) how he was trying to help Daniggelis and now regrets it, and he implores me to not waste my time with him. Shelton also answered legal questions about whether one needed their own money at closing, and the difference between a mere notice of deposition and an official & binding subpoena. Finally, Shelton goes on to say:

"A lot of your legal arguments are very valid...but you are fighting for a liar and scammer. I firmly believe that. Your resources are being wasted in the eyes of God." [In his 5/16/2017 11:14:43 P.M. Eastern Daylight Time reply] and: "Good luck but please leave me alone if possible." [In his 5/16/2017 6:49:24 A.M. Eastern Daylight Time reply, that morning].

I agree with Shelton on some of what he says (about the strength of my legal arguments), but disagree that it is a waste of time, and I'm hoping that This Court does not prove him right on this point. He asks me to leave him out of it "if possible," but since he's a material witness in the criminal Grand Theft of a house and land, by means of clear & obvious forgery, he can't be "out" of it except by leave of This Court, and even that (if the court issued such an order) would be contrary to loads of case law & statutes regarding witnesses, crimes, etc.

 Relevant Legal Arguments which came up in newly-discovered email exchanges with SHELTON ***

But, in short, I include our email exchange because I believe his claims that the judges may have used this (incorrect) legal standard, namely, falsely assuming that a POA could legally forge the signature of the principal. (And, I school him on the terms of the contract, showing that even assuming the POA existed, it was a "limited" POA, limited both by scope and time, and both made it illegal to transfer title, as it was for a sale, not a quit claim, and no sale ensued as there was no payment to Daniggelis—and his signature was clearly forged.

 Overlooked Legal Arguments & Statements of Fact that DANIGGELIS has desired to be included ***

Richard Daniggelis has told me, on numerous occasions, of his desire to include both certain legal arguments and certain recollections of which his attorney, Andjelko Galic, did not include in his filings. As I'm intervening as a matter of right, I have a right to include said "orphaned" legal arguments and statements of fact:

- 1) Richard has repeatedly asked me why Younes didn't evict him right away, after having gotten "legal" title to the house, from Judge Otto's ruling and/or Judge Diana Rosario's order in the Civil Court. Mr. Daniggelis clearly told me that he felt Younes was afraid of being found out for mortgage fraud, or else he would've evicted him sooner.
- 2) Mr. Daniggelis also told me that Judge George F. Scully, Jr., who apparently was assigned the civil division case, at one point, said (in open court, I think) that he had had lunch with Judge Michael F. Otto (who was a Chancery judge for Daniggelis' case at one point). Daniggelis then said that shortly thereafter, Judge Scully adjured & warned Younes to "be careful for what you ask for—you just might get it" or words to that effect. While I'm not sure of what legal significance this might have, Daniggelis said that he felt that Scully & Otto had discussed the matter privately at lunch, and I include it in my statements, in order that the record not be lacking. (As this is probably the last chance to include relevant filings—I want to give The Court all the tools it needs to do its job.)
- 3) As further clarified in "Exhibit-D" of my 04/17/2017 filing to This Court, Richard asked me to search for & locate documentation which would support his theory that Younes' complaints to the Office of the Attorney General (OAG) intimidated the banks & title companies, thereby blackmailing them into colluding to commit R.I.C.O. Crimes—and intimidated into giving him a “sweetheart” loan modification. [While it's harder to prove collusion or intent, it's a matter of record that the bank did, in fact, reduce both the interest and principal of Younes' loan by huge amounts—as I clearly document.]

- 4) When discussing this matter with one mutual friend, has asked me if the original signature (you know, the one I'm alleging is forged) could be produced by the banks and/or Atty. Joseph Younes. My friend was implying that since Daniggelis' signature was forged (he's a mutual friend of Daniggelis and myself, and believes Daniggelis' claims), no original existed: It was a photocopy, e.g., felony forgery fraud. Since my friend's observation is good, I include it in my overlooked legal arguments, here.
- 5) This Court is fully aware of the fact that John LaRoque has continued to (illegally) evade deposition by Daniggelis' attorney, Andjelko Galic. While I don't know what Galic might ask him (nor do I know what LaRoque is trying to hide), it's painfully obvious—even to any blind person—that John LaRoque is trying to hide something, and I think that “something” is further proof/details of the forgery fraud.
- 6) Richard repeatedly told me that when people hear he signed the POA & the first Warranty Deed (where his signature wasn't forged), they automatically think that this is proof that he just “gave away” the house. Because of that, Richard has been trying (in vain, I might add) to somehow convey to This Court that this isn't true—and offer a sound legal explanation. Since Richard is unable (and his attorney is either unable and/or unwilling), I shall do so—since it represents my interests in Intervention: Richard told me (repeatedly) that other attorneys had previously had him sign Warranty Deeds (like he did here) to help them in their negotiations to discuss refinancing, part-ownership shares, or other matters—and that, in no instance did any attorney try to take title. Because of this, when Younes & Shelton asked Daniggelis, in like-manner, to sign a warranty deed & POA, he believed it was necessary for the transaction—and that it was not his intent to simply “give away” the house—based on past attorney interactions—and based on what Younes & Shelton told him—in their official capacity as attorney at law.
- 7) Daniggelis has said (or implied) numerous times that people view him as helpless & pushover because of his advanced age (I think he is 78 year-old or so, at this time), and that they think it would be “unwise” to allow him to hold title. But, since Daniggelis has said that he thinks he can get a reverse mortgage and/or sell shares to Investors, and/or rent out rooms, therefore these arguments (about his age and alleged inability to manage the house/land) must be rebutted and resisted. Here, I am so doing.
- 8) Daniggelis has said that, at one court hearing (I think, while waiting for court to convene) that Younes said that he wanted to “wash his hands” of 1720 N. Sedgwick, since it was becoming more trouble than it was worth. While I'm not sure of any “direct” legal relevance, here, this recollection (and others above) that Daniggelis made might be useful in helping understand the issues. So, since Daniggelis can't enter them into the record—and since I have legal rights of intervening, I shall do so, here.
- 9) Oh, and perhaps the most interesting (and possibly useful) recollection that I must add is this one: When Judge Michael F. Otto, the Chancery Division judge for GMAC v. Daniggelis (the case that was transferred to the Law Division, the above-captioned case) entered his 5/15/2014 order snatching title from Daniggelis—and giving it to Younes—Mr. Daniggelis tells me that he jumped up in court and blurted out to the effect of: “Hey, if I were not the true owner of 1720 N. Sedgwick, then why was there a huge monetary judgment settlement by Stewart Title to me, for such-and-such amount!?” Mr. Daniggelis tells me that Judge Otto was startled & possibly frightened by the fact that he'd just entered an incorrect order, but that he was unwilling to admit any wrongdoing, and—instead—Daniggelis tells me that Judge Otto “passed the buck” and said: “Ah, we're going to have to transfer this case to the Law Division,” or words to that effect. [I would add: 'Passing the Buck' is not good practice, and diminishes the reputation of the court—since, of course, The Buck Stops Here, and the matter should be decided here—and not elsewhere.]

Closing statement:

I fully know, realise, & understand that This Court has received lots of lengthy written filings from me, and I'm not joyful or happy at the thought that it might be difficult to read (because of the length).

[Just remember, tho: As hard as it may be to read, it was 10X harder for me to write, so please appreciate that.]

I am not trying to make This Court's job harder—or be “vexatious” in any manner—since I know judges, clerks, & staff are all human, like myself. (And, as stated in my opening arguments in my Intervention, I inserted a rare apology for being slightly emotional with certain unnamed clerks. But, as Daniggelis is like a grandfather to me, and his repeated mistreatment—and this court's refusal to grant him justice—is like continually kicking a dog, then I will compare myself with a “dog” and say that while barking is not necessarily right, nonetheless, I beg Forgiveness and Pardon from This Honourable Court for being human: If you keep kicking a dog, it will eventually yelp.

Therefore, I respectfully submit this sworn, witnessed, & notarised Affidavit, which should serve as a legal proxy for the “Statements of the Case & Facts” in my legal briefs.

Wow - you have taken quite a bit of time to respond to me in great detail, twice, just now; Thank you, Paul.

I will try and reply to each point in both of your emails in one response, -- and 'interleave' my replies below each of your responses, for clarity --
 As email is usually done, I will put your more recent response on top, and I'll respond in bold-faced dark green for clarity. (So, that means you'll read it from the bottom up, like usual.) -- see below... [[I will number my points to make it a bit easier.]]

You need to get past the "forgery". Richard is a liar. He gave what's her name a POA so he could make all these fraud claims. But in reality, he gave her POA and she had right to alter deed, even date, "forge" it or sign properly as attorney in fact. That is the judges point.

[[#10]] Wow, finally some thoughts or a counter-argument. Thank you, Paul!! While I think I'll respectfully dissent, know this solemn axiom: I don't get smarter by asking views or feedback from people who are 'yes' men/women - and only agree with me!.. Anyhow, I saw the record: While there "was" a POA, it obviously wasn't as powerful as you suggest -- otherwise, the title would have transferred on the May 2006 deed, and Younes kicked him out with a 5-day notice back then. Besides, the POA I see in my record <http://gordonwaynewatts.com/MortgageFraudCourtDocs/2007-CH-29738-LAW-DIV-Sept09-2015-Motion-Amicus-Exhibits-GordonWayneWatts.pdf> or <http://gordonwatts.com/MortgageFraudCourtDocs/2007-CH-29738-LAW-DIV-Sept09-2015-Motion-Amicus-Exhibits-GordonWayneWatts.pdf> see "Exhibit Watts-G," was good only until June 30, 2006, when it became irrevocable (and was revoked by the affidavit of forgery put in the recorder's office, remember?), meaning that the July 09, 2006 'signature' -- even if possibly with the POA, before then, wasn't possible afterward, as the POA had expired. (But good argument!)

Besides, "Exhibit Watts-F," was the same copy, but not notarised, meaning the notary stamp was illegally put on after-the-fact (unless someone had a photocopy machine at that Starbuck's that day, to scan a before & after - not likely). But, unless Rhone testified that she used the POA for that purpose (and she didn't, I don't think), it is clear that fraud occurred.

Note also, it was a 'limited' POA, for a real estate 'transaction,' to an outright quit claim deed transfer - big difference. A transaction is more than merely deeding over the property, and, again, no consideration is an issue, below...

The deed was a valid transfer instrument, in equity. She did what she did with his authority and the title co accepted it. End of story.

[[#11]] But the lack of consideration was a stumbling-block, as I point out: Stilk v. Myrick, 170 Eng. Rep. 1168, 1168 (1809) (L.R.C.P) (Ellenborough, L) (holding a renegotiated contract void due to lack of consideration). Danlggelis wasn't paid, which voids any 'transfer' on that grounds too.

Please keep in mind I am not a liar, and I have no reason to lie now!

[[#12]] by and large, believe you, Paul - but I still have doubts about Daniggelis' claim that you & your wife testified that she witnessed something he signed, when he says she never met him. And, the fact you have Exhibit-F in my attached brief, here not notarised, but Exhibit G was? How was that possible? Probably, someone notarised this after he signed it - again, not the worst crime (people do it all the time - and Daniggelis DID admit to signing it), but still a fib is a fib, and unnecessarily gives you a bad name if Daniggelis is correct here.

And I tried to help Richard. A waste of a lot of time. I feel stupid about it now. He lied to me and was hatching his plan to claim he was wronged. This is a man who inherited the building free and clear,

[[#13]] Actually, he says the he bought out his siblings' shares - and, I'm guessing, at a substantial cost. (I think he has no reason to lie about this, but I admit I don't know all the fact - and this point is really unimportant to the criminal aspects.)

sold the garage for profit; refinanced multiple times and never made a payment and used the cash out to do who knows what cause the place is a pit. He filed BK many times by himself. Like I say dumb like a fox. He was at the end of the line and the women beguiled him and "convinced" him to sell to an investor, live there 6 months and move. Richard agreed, but hatched his real plan to cry ignorance and nativity and fraud. It's worked. I helped him out and tried to get him to write his book; I spoke to him for hours about his life and plan.

[[#14]] He does talk and talk and talk!. (And, just between you & me, Richard agrees with me & thinks you are much more honest than Younes, and even told me how you said that you couldn't stand Younes any longer and had to stop being his law partner. Rich thinks and hopes that you will turn state's witness and help us win, which would be appropriate if, in fact, laws were broken.)

Even if Rich made stupid financial decisions & bit off more than he could chew, nonetheless, 2 wrongs make not a right, and, while I like the strength of your POA argument above, I think it's clear that Erika Rhone's scheme didn't work, since her POA expired, and was legally revoked. Even if a judge says otherwise, I still am not convinced. (Let's not forget the side-agreements that limited the POA for use of paying arrearages, etc. Since title didn't transfer on the May 2006 Warranty deed, this is proof of the side-contracts existence, which limited this transfer; otherwise, title would have not had to wait til the July 2006 warranty deed!

Besides, Paul, even if* what you're saying is true about her use of the POA, she would have had to sign her OWN name, and invoke the POA, to make it legal. Otherwise, she was committing a forgery. I'll give you an example: Even IF I hired a security guard, and gave him permission to enter a property I (theoretically) owned, it would be illegal for him to impersonate ME and try to enter it. Rhone, if she was the one forging the signature, is still guilty of forgery. Just remember, a POA does NOT give any person license to break the law, and forgery is still criminally illegal - and has no statutes of limitations. Moreover, there were 'acts of furtherance' committed more recently (Younes' continued attempts to gain property via forged signature, and knowingly dealing in styolen property), which I think will (a) possibly convince the State's attorney supervisor to overrule Asst. State Atty. Thomas Simpson on this point, and (b) convince the IARDC to revoke Younes' law license.

Remember, Paul - even if Younes "got away" with this due to statutes of limitations expiring, there was a local teacher in my area who, while unable to be "criminally" prosecuted for making a sexual joke to a student, will probably get fired as a teacher. A lawyer need not break a criminal law to be disbarred - as you found out the hard way. Younes is, in my view, MUCH more guilty than you, and if the IARDC doesn't disbar him SOON!!, I will probably contact John Kass and friends and inform them that the IARDC admits (and/or knows) that criminal acts were committed that were "untouchable" due *solely to SOL (Statutes of Limitation) issue - and that the IARDC is saying that you can commit a crime and still be an attorney in "Crook County," IL so long as the SOL expire! ... not. SOL also stands for sh-t out of luck, and that is the case, as Younes is obviously much more guilty than you, and will sooner-or-later face even harsher sanctions, if there is a God. - .. - .. There is a God.

He convinced me he would move out and go to his sisters. The place was simply mortgaged out. Check the records. He has you now working for free, all to keep squatting for free.

[[#15]] Ah, "mortgaged out": a term meaning that he To borrow more than is necessary to secure the purchase or improvement of real estate. Yes, but no proof of payment exists, so even so, the 'contract' is not valid: Stilk v. Myrick, 170 Eng. Rep. 1168, 1168 (1809) (L.R.C.P) (Ellenborough, L) (holding a renegotiated contract void due to lack of consideration). Daniggelis wasn't paid, which voids any 'transfer' on that grounds too.

But, anyhow, Karen Shanner, formerly with Steward Title, allegedly testified that you & others broke a bunch of broker rules. AND, if you knew the title was transferred on a forged signature & didn't speak up, you were at fault. (But maybe you believed Rhone had POA permission, even tho I know that no POA authorises anyone to break a law, like forgery, etc.)

There is a better client for you. Richard simply is a scammer. He sucked all the equity from the place and his time is up.

[[#16]] OK, even he admits he spent a little bit of it for improvements, and such, but this is de minimus if crimes were committed. Rhone can't simply break a law because of a POA - that is absurd!

I wish you'd move on to someone who deserves your work.

You've convinced yourself Richard is honorable. But he is not.

[[#17]] Well, while Daniggelis is argumentive and talkative, I don't accept your legal analysis. (But am open to being wrong! Remember, I admitted to Judge Otto that I was wrong about teleconferences for people like me in Florida, and that it was only optional, not mandated!)

C'est la vie.

[[#18]] Such is life: that's how things happen. I wish blessings upon you too, but if you are indeed guilty of lying about witnessing / notarising that Exhibit-G in my PDF attachment, in this email, and/or wrong in your assessment that Rhone could commit a forgery & break the law, you should admit where you're wrong - but only IF you're wrong, and for nothing more. Defend yourself where you're innocent, which is true for the vast majority of the Issues.

Blessings

This is personal and confidential and I'm trusting that none of what I say here is used against me.

[[#1]] While I will admit that I think you and/or your wife may have lied about my friend, Richard Daniggelis (regarding her alleged witness of his signing something), I have absolutely no motive to betray your confidence or otherwise do you harm. (While I'm far from perfect, Paul, please remember that even when I was convinced you were the 'main' bad guy, I was trying to encourage you to hang in there - and also see what solution I could propose that would be fair to all - AND, even now that I'm sure that Joseph Younes KNOWINGLY took title of a house, when he KNEW that the transfer was done using a forged signature (I KNOW he knew, because I notified him, hello!), and I'm convinced that he's FAAAR more criminally-guilty – and quite evil to boot – nonetheless, even regarding Younes, I don't wish to seek for him to be made homeless or even unemployed (tho some of that may eventually result anyway).

So, what I'm saying is this, Paul – even tho I'm sadly VERY human & make mistakes, if I don't even wish revenge (but merely punishment) on Younes, I certainly don't want to kick "you" while you're down, in any way, if I can help it. (I'm guessing you were probably guilty of something small, but were punished far more than you should have been. I say that because I believe Daniggelis has no reason to make up a story and falsely accuse you & your wife of lying on the stand. So, I VERY much believe you & your wife lied about her witnessing his signature, and would like to hear your take on why Daniggelis said this – and come clean, if his accusation is correct – but, even if true, all agreed that Daniggelis signed the POA, and so lying about a notary witnessing it, while wrong & illegal, is a self-inflicted unforced error, and not at all as criminally-illegal or as morally-immoral as what Younes did, in taking a house while knowing it was done on a forged signature – and then bragging to Daniggelis that he was "distanced" or "separated" from the actual crime.

Please come clean on this small point – or else defend yourself in the best way you know how: not only am I curious, but moreover, this will come back to haunt you if you don't address it.

I did nothing wrong as to Richard, deep down Richard knows the truth. I lost time and money on Richard, trying to help him. He fooled me. The real culprit was the African American girl, can't remember her name, she had POA over Richard, and brought Richard to me. She is dumb like a fox and was very attractive too and used that to manipulated people. Richard was one of many she figured out away to make money upon. I saw closed deals with her where her company netted $80-100k on flipping to a 700 credit "buyer". She'd buy a two flat in depressed black neighborhood for like $80k do a quick rehab and "sell" it to someone for $240k making that nice profit for rehab costs to her company.

[[#2]] I think it may be Erika Rhone?...

I have to think on this, the LaRocque issue. He was once my best friend and only supplied the money which is not illegal.

[[#3]] I spoke briefly by phone with Lou Brydges (by phone - after pestering him a lot via email & phone voice mail messages), and he says the same thing; While I know you don't like him, I'm glad both of you weighed in. Moreover, Robert J. More, the weirdo "vexatious litigant" character who was the infamous unpaying tenant of Daniggelis, is like an idiot savant on case law (but with no common sense), and when I asked him the same question, he said he saw no reason that it would be illegal for Younes to borrow money from LaRocque to do a closing. I think Mr. More's logic is sound, and, except for possible credit-worthiness issues (where some obscure law might require a person to prove their credit or financial mojo is good), I tend to agree. Thanks once again for clarifying what happened – and what is legal here. After I asked him if he remember my Fla Supreme Court filings, Brydges did, however, say he was impressed with my 4-3 loss in the Fla Supreme court in re Terri Schiavo, the famous 'feeding tube' girl, and said, in his view, it was a win, since I came so close to winning against stacked long odds. I sort-or agree.

No reason to take his testimony at all. It was just another investment. He is quite rich so I just think he doesn't want to waste his time.

[[#4]] That sort of makes sense, and thx 4 offering your thoughts. But if Galic keeps seeking to depose him, and LaRocque keeps hiding, this smells, to me, like there's something there. (Why else would Galic pursue, and why else would LaRocque hide? Avoiding wasting time is not motive enough in light of the risk if his ass being arrested, charged, and either fined or locked up - not to mention possibly losing his FINRA credentials.) Something doesn't seem right here, Paul, but I can't put my finger on it, and neither can Daniggelis or More – and Galic is not talking (Lawyer-client privilege, plus he wants to surprise LaRocque, so he's keeping silent & tight-lipped.)

In reality though, Richard really has no case.

[[#5]] Respectfully, I disagree: While Daniggelis (as a practical matter) may be in over his head in payments, etc., really, Paul, how could the transfer of title be legal in light of the fact that —a—, it's an obvious photocopy (identical signature, plus whiteout), and —b— Daniggelis didn't get paid either (no contract is valid without consideration e.g., payment). Plus, —c— Daniggelis has no motive to just give up the house & land with hundreds of thousands of dollars of equity, which makes the transfer even more criminal, in light of the stolen equity. (And, —d— sources tell me that there was usuary or otherwise illegal interest schemes, not to —e— mention that Linda Green fraud issue.) — really, Paul, how could any transfer of title be legal like that? If you're saying this is legal, then —f— (since a-e add up) I'll just go and forge a signature and take whatever I want!.. Oh, really?... .. —NOT.

| Certainly you can create one but I know the truth. Richard is dumb like a fox too.

[[#6]] Yes, and even Rich admits he over-extended himself in trying to buy or otherwise build 2 houses, but 2 wrongs make not a right, and nothing can legally justify what happened to Rich. ONLY if he did a quit claim or something (which he didn't do) would it even be "possible" to consider condoning or otherwise supporting such an (otherwise illegal) transfer.

| She was just "dumber".

[[#7]] Well, if she did the forgery, then yes — what comes around, goes around: "KARMA" is the eastern way of saying the Godly law of Sowing & reaping is true!... She'll get hers if she did the forgery — or knew about it and was silent - or both.

| He should eventually give up the house. He is still squatting, little birds tell me.

[[#8]] Well, the house has NO roof, and is being rained on — but (spiritually-speaking, anyhow), yes, he's squatting.

| Good luck but please leave me alone if possible.

[[#9]] Well, I believe you will eventually be summoned to testify — I can't guarantee it (and have no power and no much more influence, here), but if (as I am guessing) you're only guilty of lying about the notary witnessing Daniggelis signing a POA, my guess is you should come clean, which would gain you credibility, and then it would (greatly, I'm guessing) lessen the probability of you getting charged with doing and/or covering up the forgery. What? Sent from an iPhone? That nutty Robert J. more character just bought me an Android cell phone, and I'm discovering just how hard it is to type in on such a small keypad — I am amazed that ANYONE uses those things! And I only use it via WiFi (on my own modem or uptown with others' Wifi), as a 'plan' costs WAAAYY too much money. My own cell phone (863-409-2109) is a prepaid welfare phone — since the economy is so bad that even us right-wing Conservatives are lining up for social programs. My home phone, 863-688-9880, is much more "normal," altho it doesn't text or anything.

But, anyhow, if you're (almost 100%) innocent, you have nothing to lose and much to gain by following my example of speaking up about wrongs. You want to do that as a 'national' or whatever, right? Why not do so where it can make a difference. Capt. James T. Kirk, in Star Trek: Generations (a movie) told Capt. Jean-Luc Picard that ONLY when he was in the captain's seat could he make a difference — I'm old (just turned 51!), and you're what? Even older? We won't be here forever, Paul — only while we're in the 'Captain's Chair' can we make a difference — observe:

GMAC v Younes, Daniggelis, Shelton, et al, 2007-CH-29738 <https://w3.courtlink.lexisnexis.com/cookcounty/Finddocket.asp?DocketKey=CAAH0CH0CJHDI0CH> was transferred out of Chancery and into the Law Division, https://w3.courtlink.lexisnexis.com/cookcounty/FindDocket.asp?NCase=&SearchType=2&Database=2&case_no=&PLtype=2&sname=daniggelis&CDate= and under the same case number to boot. In case you haven't noticed, Andjelko Galic, Daniggelis' attorney, keeps deposing John LaRocque, and LaRocque keeps evading deposition: Obviously, he must feel he has something to hide. Judge Sanjay Tailor was threatening to dismiss the case if Galic couldn't get LaRocque into deposition - but a few things seem odd:

- 1) Why does Galic want to question him? To see who committed the obvious forgery, maybe? (The signatures on the two warranty deeds is IDENTICAL, as you well recall - and there's whiteout on the latter one, which was used to transfer title, after the 1st deal fell through, due to unpleasant side-agreements Daniggellis put in place.)
- 2) Why would LaRocque be afraid to testify? (Maybe Galic has some documentation to pin him down to testify on some point?..)
- 3) Judge Tailor is said to have suggested Galic not merely 'depose' LaRocque, but rather, issue a subpoena, something that (according to Daniggellis) he did not do. Why would he be afraid to issue a subpoena? (And, what's the difference in deposing him and issuing a subpoena, or maybe I'll ask Google that one!)
- 4) Lastly, Daniggellis thinks that maybe Joseph Younes, who eventually got title to the house (see my news item, below), was supposed to bring his own money to the closing, and didn't and that this broke some law. Could that be the reason Galic wants to depose LaRocque? My sources tell me that it's not illegal to go to a closing using someone else's money, and that it's merely borrowing it.

What are your thoughts on 1-4, here? Thanks!

Long time no see, Paul. Sadly, the only person that pays me for my hard work, here, is the Lord God, himself... (of course, through intermediaries, like family), but even my friends (who benefit) almost never repay or compensate me. I'm not even sure what an American National is, but I'm guessing it is like a Patriot, like when I used to have time to stand by the roadside (e.g., the Interstate Overpasses, which is where it got its name) with signs for the Overpasses for America movement (which used to be called Overpasses for the Impeachment of Obama).

I personally know James Neighbors, the national founder for Overpasses, and Dallas Thurman, who is lieutenant; they're both on my Facebook. While they're generally conservative, they are also against corporate welfare and "Crony" capitalism, so it is more populist or libertarian in nature, I'd say. You know, it would help if you could volunteer some information about who executed the forgery. While there might be some short-term "legal pain," long-term, it would be the best investment. My guess is that you're much more honest than Younes, which is clear because he is unnecessarily rude (telling me to not call him back, when I called once a long time ago to apologize for not filing something informative & helpful sooner). But, no disrespect meant, when Daniggelis tells me you & your wife lied about a notary being present when he signed something (not sure why anyone would want to lie about that, as he freely admits that he signed it), I believe him, and I wonder why he would say that. He has said that you told him that Younes disgusted you or words to that effect, and that Younes was getting to be too evil "even for you" I thin were his exact (or similar) words. This suggests that Daniggelis thinks you're dishonest, but less than Younes.

I feel bad that there is the chance that you did something wrong (possibly Daniggelis was right about his claims you & your wife lied - I don't know, and must give both sides the benefit of the doubt, as a misunderstanding could have occurred, making both of you honest). But anyhow, no one I've ever spoken with (and no one I've ever "dealt with" - excepting the bad judge Otto character) disputed my assessment that the 2nd warranty deed was forged via a photocopy. Even Otto didn't outright dispute it, but rather made light of it in his ruling, suggesting that even if his court had jurisdiction on the merits (it was on appeal, then), that this new finding would not have made any difference. I'm calling bullshit on his claim, as it was pure B.S. His order, of course, is on my online docket, if you want to read it.

So, don't you think that it's pretty-much certain that the 2nd warranty deed used a photocopied signature of the 1st one? And, what should (or can) be done about that, now? What do you think about these tough questions? (Well, the 1st one wasn't tough: Easy for even a blind man to see it was forged, but the ramifications of the court system's refusal to fix it are a "tough" pill to swallow.) But anyhow, what you think of it? And, what are you doing now days?

"First, they [Nazis] came for the Jews. I was silent. I was not a Jew. Then they came for the Communists. I was silent. I was not a Communist. Then they came for the trade unionists. I was silent. I was not a trade unionist. Then they came for me. There was no one left to speak for me."(Martin Niemöller, given credit for a quotation in The Harper Religious and Inspirational Quotation Companion, ed. Margaret Pepper(New York: Harper & Row, 1989), 429 -as cited on page 44, note 17, of Religious Cleansing in the American Republic, by Keith A. Fomier, Copyright 1993, by Liberty, Life, and Family Publications. Some versions have Mr. Niemöller saying: "Then they came for the Catholics, and I didn't speak up, because I was a Protestant"; other versions have him saying that they came for Socialists, Industrialists, schools, the press, and/or the Church; however, it's certain he DID say SOMETHING like this. Actually, they may not have come for the Jews first, as it's more likely they came for the prisoners, mentally handicapped, & other so-called "inferiors" first -as historians tell us- so they could get "practiced up"; however, they did come for them -due to the silence of their neighbors -and due in part to their own silence. So: "Speak up now or forever hold your peace!"-GWW//

Ah, that's the difference between a mere notice of deposition and an official & binding subpoena. Thank you for your detailed analysis, Paul. While your analysis seems foreign to me (and frankly a surprise that I wasn't expecting!), I must assume both possibilities could be true, and look at them for plausibility:

First off, while schemers & scoundrels do exist, I don't think it likely that Daniggelis would risk outright losing the house without any documented payment (other than a few home-improvement loans) for the chance to "get it for free," something I think he would view as unlikely. So, while - theoretically - your analysis is possible, I think it improbably or unlikely. Schemers, who try to steal elderly peoples' houses (those who are seeking refinancing, investors, etc.), also exist, and I think this possibility is more likely/probably. That's just my take, but thank you for the positive feedback on both my legal arguments and your well-wishes for me & my endeavors.

Actually, I didn't know the distinction between the notice and the actual subpoena, but then again, I'm not a lawyer (and barely even a legend in my own mind anymore!).

Now, if Rich were dishonest, as you suppose, why would he repeatedly adjure me to be respectful to my mother, listen to me & give me feedback when I want his opinion (like you're being kind enough to do), to listen to his (sometimes longwinded) analyses, and fight so hard for his house, with the aim of doing justice. A wronged person fights much harder. And, remember, he credits you for being much more honest than Younes, which, I think, he would not do were he dishonest. And, while he is as angry as hell (or putting on a good show!), he insists that he does not want to do Younes and great harm more-than-necessary to get his house back.

He insists that vindictive and petty vengeance is not morally right, and insists that he believes God will use this matter to show how both courts and "the average Joe" are all dishonest and corrupt, and that we need Jesus to help us be honest and follow god's ways; he has repeatedly said this, and as a man thinketh in his heart, so he does and speaks, and this suggests that you're reading him wrongly. Also, it was your notary seal on the POA, which magically appeared on it after it was signed, scanned, & entered into the court record, suggesting it was probably signed after-the-fact - unless you carried a portable scanner with you when you presented it to him to sign, but I think this highly unlikely, and moreover, why would you scan in a signed, but not notarized, copy - and then notarize it and scan in a 2nd image? That makes no sense to me, and I'm sure you notarized it after the fact, getting the document from Erika, the black girl, who I thltnm met him at a local Starbucks.

Since you haven't refuted my belief that you probably did notarize it after the fact (and didn't witness it), I believe you were guilty on this point. Either you were guilty of notary without witnessing or not - but either way, I don't want to bury you or kick you while you're down. I know it can be hard & risky to address this, but whether you're guilty of the notarizing the POA after-the-fact (and without seeing him sign it) or not, you should address the matter truthfully, and quickly. Get it out of the way. (Also, Daniggelis used you let poor people stay in his house's 1st floor, I hear from multiple sources, and I think he's more honest than you see, so please be open to that possibility.)

While I don't fully agree with you, thank you for trying to help me. Nonetheless, King Saul, ISRAEL'S first king, was guilty of offering sacrifices, and not obedience, as the books of Samuel in the Old Testament Bible recount. Please don't let that happen to you - it's good that you care about others' welfare (such as me) and try to clarify tough legal knots, but please also protect and defend yourself. You can be of NO use as an "American National," whatever that is, if you let your name/reputation be marred by the "notary without witnessing" allegation (whether true or not), and this all will prevent you from fighting for truly just causes (which I still think applies to Richard Daniggelis' case, notwithstanding your views). Even if Rich is dishonest, 2 wrongs make not a right, and we must fight the greater evils, and deal with Rich later. We must fight our own battles of honour and justice - and not be distracted by other things.

Gordan:

My main point about the Deed is that Richard sent the woman to the closing, with the knowledge and expectation that the property was being sold to Younes. So, in equity, he expected and authorized the transaction.

But, Richard is a liar and a scammer. He acted exactly as expected, and claimed the house was stolen from him, he never aithorized transfer, the deed was a forgery, etc.

Bottom line, Kharma is a bitch. What was expected to happen did finally happen. He continues to squat, pushing his lie and scam. A scorpion can still sting, even after the head is cut off. he was at the end of the line with refinancing, another bank was after the house in foreclsoure and he is very clever. ou as a legal consultant (and a good lawyer too) can always make an argument for this guy...many scammers and liars have a legal argument...but the story is what it is...he is writhing and fighting as best he can.

Its not a complete anaology, but makes the case: the guy who murders someone, but gets away with it due to a legal technicality...he still did the act...

Richard is dumb like a fox...Hell he has gotten you to waste a lot of time an energy, when that time could have been spent on many others who really deserve it...

Alot of your legal arguments are very valid...but you are fighting for a liar and scammer. I firmly believe that. Your resources are being wasted in the eyes of God.

As for the subpoena versus Notice, the Notice of Dep was issued and I assume LaRocque agreed to appear; that's a much more agreeable situation...once the Judge allows you to issue a Subpoena for Dep it is a required appearance when served, at a set date and place, and the deponent can be held in contempt for not appearing...Not sure what the lawyer's thinking is...But you probably knew all that...

Paul:

You said something that had me confused earlier: [""But in reality, he gave her POA and she had right to alter deed, even date, "forge" it or sign properly as attorney in fact. That is the judges point.""]

First off, I looked at the POA Richard signed, and it was a 'Limited' POA, limited solely to a sale (not a quit claim deed, or giving away the property for Free without consideration eg payment).

But even aside from that, you were WRONG in your claims that Erika Rhone could forge someone's signature using a POA as authorisation - PROOF:

"When signing contracts on behalf of your principal, sign your own name. After signing your name, print your name then, "As POA for" or "As Agent for" followed by the name of your principal." <http://legalbeagle.com/5154849-sign-power-attomey.html>

"There are some legal regulations and some institutional rules about the "proper" form of signature for an agent empowered by a durable power of attorney. But the overriding legal control is that you must make clear that you are one person who is empowered to sign on behalf of another""as opposed to attempting to forge the signature as wholly your own. The American Bar Association sanctions two ways that an agent can sign. If you are Jane Doe empowered as the agent for Dorothy Doe, for example, you could sign either as: "Dorothy Doe, by Jane Doe under Power of Attorney" or "Jane Doe, attorney-in-fact for Dorothy Doe." Either should pass legal muster for some situations." <https://www.caring.com/questions/how-to-sign-documents-as-power-of-attomey>

"How to Sign as Power of Attorney

When you sign a document as someone's attorney-in-fact, your signature needs to make it clear that you—not they—are signing the document and that you are acting under the authority of a power of attorney." <https://www.legalzoom.com/articles/how-to-sign-a-power-of-attomey-document-for-someone>

"When signing on behalf of a Grantor as Attorney-in-Fact, you should always sign YOUR OWN NAME, followed by the words "Power of Attorney".

Do NOT sign the Grantor's name - EVER!

By signing your own name with the words "Power of Attorney" after your name to any contract or other legal document, the person receiving the documents signed by you on behalf of the person who granted you the Power of Attorney understands exactly what is being provided." <http://www.standardlegal.com/blog/if-i-have-power-of-attomey-how-do-i-sign-legal-documents-on-behalf-of-my-grantor>

 See also pages 13-14 of this 90-page PDF, where Lisa Vitek notarised the July 09, 2006 Warranty Deed that you say Erike Rhone was able to forge. Since you were the one who prepared this document, you are involved somehow. But Ms. Vitek did not notarize it properly (see below), and it was not even signed correctly (see above).

"How do I notarize the signature of someone acting as an attorney in fact?"

An attorney in fact typically signs a document with two names: the attorney in fact's own name and the name of the principal. For example, if John Doe is acting as attorney in fact for Mary Sue, he could sign like this:

"John Doe, attorney in fact for Mary Sue, principal"

Or,

"Mary Sue, by John Doe, attorney in fact"

In this case, John Doe is the person appearing before you and signing the document, but doing so on behalf of Mary Sue. Because John Doe is the only person who is physically present and signing, you would write John Doe's name as the signer in the appropriate parts of the certificate wording (for example, "... personally appeared before me John Doe, who acknowledged ..."). "

"" <https://www.nationalnotary.org/notary-bulletin/blog/2015/09/how-to-handle-notarization-attorney-in-fact>

All this suggests that you could be vulnerable to criminal charges. While I disagree with you on some points, I don't think you're as guilty as what you were portrayed, but when you ignore my suggestion to come clean where I feel you were guilty of small issues (notarising something after the fact), you are shooting yourself in the foot, and reducing the chances you'll get a fair shake. Illinois is corrupt, but not as bad as Florida - my home state - trust me! Take heart and have hope - and do the right thing, whatever it may be.

CIRCUIT COURT OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS

Notice of Motion

To: This Honourable Court and all parties being served (see attached service list, below)
From: Mr. Gordon Wayne Watts, LAKELAND, Fla. (full contact data, below)

Notice Proper: Pursuant to Local Rule 2.1 ["Notice of Hearing of Motions"], the undersigned movant is hereby giving this honourable court and all parties proper notice of the attached "MOTION TO INTERVENE BY INTERVENOR, GORDON WAYNE WATTS," being filed instanter, in the above-captioned case—a copy of which is attached hereto and is being served upon you.

Due to unfamiliarity with this very uncommon "local rule," movant did not give proper "notice" of past motions, via the "notice of motion," in accordance with said local rule, which is peculiar to this court alone. As This Court can see, the attached Motion to Intervene gives overwhelming evidence of Movant's right to claim legal standing to intervene – and that the interests not being represented are not "de minimus," (unless the court and parties are willing/able to reimburse to Mr. Watts the full amount documented herewith, and then some for unrecorded costs, time lost from work, and emotional losses).

Moreover: The undersigned Intervenor, Gordon Wayne Watts, through human fault, committed three (3) unintentional offenses against This Court (and all parties), and, by virtue of this pleading, is offering a sincere apology:

(1) While the undersigned litigant has generally had excellent and professional relations with the many clerks and lawyers involved (in Chancery, Civil, and Law Divisions, as well as numerous judges' chambers and the chambers of the Chief Judge, as well as the Office of the State Attorney, and the IL Attorney General), on rare occasion he has expressed human emotion to certain unnamed clerk(s), expressing profound disappointment over the rulings in the various cases regarding defendant, Daniggelis. While this is inexcusable and indefensible, Intervenor, Watts, views Daniggelis as sort-of a grandfather-figure (whom he feels was cheated out of a house, property, and hundreds of thousands of dollars of equity therewith), and, all of us being human can understand that if you kick a dog repeatedly (Mr. Watts is comparing himself to a dog), the dog will eventually yelp or holler. This does not justify the yelping bark, but it is offered up as "mitigating circumstances." Therefore, Mr. Watts offers his sincere apologies for occasional lapses in professionalism.

(2) Although Mr. Watts' legal standing to Intervene is very strong (see above—and the attached motion to intervene), he felt an "amicus" brief would be less invasive and more acceptable. While this may be the view of most courts, nonetheless, for reasons unknown, case law suggests that Cook County, IL courts take a much dimmer view of amicus curiae briefs than they do of, say, Intervention actions. Therefore, Mr. Watts offers his sincere apologies for taking an unintentionally-offensive legal tact, and is hereby changing course to a more accepted and conventional course: that of direct intervention, as provided by statutory and case law.

(3) As mentioned in the instant "Notice of Motion," Intervenor, Watts, was unfamiliar with this uncommon rule (Local Rule 2.1, requiring a "notice of motion" to accompany motions) which appears unique to Cook County, IL courts—and therefore didn't comply with the rules of the court. Therefore, pursuant to R.2.1, proper notice is being given of the above-mentioned motion—and an apology herewith is tendered to the court and parties.

Details: Normally, a notice of motion contains a promise for the movant to appear as such-and-such time in such-and-such courtroom to present the motion: "Please take notice that on (certain date) and at (certain time), I shall appear before (named judge) – or any other judge, as may be holding court, in his/her absence – in (certain courtroom) to present (certain motion), which is attached hereto."

The undersigned Movant understands the value and importance of in propria persona physical appearance (to be available, for example, to answer any questions in real time, as well as connect name & face). However, physical appearance (as is normally done) is mathematically impossible, and yet Due Process requires that This Court consider the matter on the merits, so notice is given – with arguments for an alternative.

Problem: Movant lives in a far, distant locale called "Lakeland, Florida" (which is squarely between Tampa and Orlando, Fla.), and has neither a local attorney retained (to appear on his behalf), nor resources to glibly travel at the drop-of-a-hat whim to Chicago, Illinois (to appear for himself), due to oppressive and ever-present financial constraints.

Proposed Solution: This motion should be considered on its merits via written submission to This Court. In the alternative, This Court may also (if it so chooses) invoke Art. II, Rule 185 (Telephone Conferences), R.Civ. Proceedings in the Trial Court, and/or Rule 206(h)(Remote Electronic Means Depositions), etc., by calling movant at either of his two phone numbers of record: 863-688-9880 (home) and/or 863-409-2109 (cell)

Arguments Whereof: It is very common legal precedent for motions to be considered in written form only. (In fact, this is probably the most common form, or at least a close second, if not first-place.) Here are but a few examples:

(1) Intervenor, Gordon Wayne Watts, filed direct intervention as "next friend" in the Florida Supreme Court on behalf of the late Theresa Marie "Terri" Schindler-Schiavo (see e.g., Exhibit-A). While the court eventually ruled against him in a razor-thin 4-3 split decision (garnering almost 43% of his panel), Mr. Watts' motions, nonetheless, were considered on the merits before the full Supreme Court of his home state, in this high-profile case, and, in fact, his intervention got even farther than that of former Florida Governor, John Ellis "Jeb" Bush, who filed similar intervention on behalf of Ms. Schiavo (Bush lost 7-0), or even Schiavo's blood family (who got only about 33% of their panel in Federal Court).

Watts lost 4-3 on rehearing. Bush lost 7-0 on rehearing – before the same panel, and on the same issue. (Apparently, the court liked Watts' "food/water" arguments better than the similar, but inferior "feeding tube" arguments presented by both Gov. Jeb Bush and Schiavo's parents.) Although Watts occasionally visited The Florida Supreme Court in person while he was a student at The Florida State University (in Tallahassee, Fla.), he never appeared in person to present his motions for intervention in the infamous "Terri Schiavo" case, and yet The Court still considered the matter on the merits. (See Exhibit-A)

(2) Subsequently, Mr. Watts decided to file an Amicus Curiae (a friend of the court brief) in one of the recent "Gay Marriage" cases pending before the Federal Appeals court in his circuit. In fact, he even went as far as to ask The Court for leave to amend 'out of time' (a rare procedure to allow a litigant to amend a brief, even though filing deadlines have passed, to correct errors and/or to add additional material, facts, arguments, etc.). It is believed that Watts was the only non-Lawyer litigant allowed participation in this case. (In fact, Watts was permitted to amend his initial brief, out of time, even though another pro se non-Lawyer was denied: Ex-B) In any event, although Mr. Watts did not present, “in person,” his motion for leave to file an amicus brief, nor the amicus brief itself, by traveling to The U.S. 11th Circuit FEDERAL Court of Appeals, in Atlanta, GA, nonetheless, the court considered his brief and all related motions on the merits. (See, e.g., Exhibit-B)

(3) Let us also consider the case of an imprisoned Illinois prisoner – in some state or county jail: many a “jailhouse lawyer” exists in our correctional institution's incarcerated population. They file all kinds of frivolous lawsuits, motions, and torts! While most of them end up in “file-13” of that great wastebasket of the Judicial System, nonetheless, state and federal Due Process requires these motions be considered on the merits. While the undersigned litigant has no “expert” knowledge of The State of Illinois court system, it goes without saying that not all prisoners are carted “back and forth” to the court for numerous frivolous motions (for very obvious cost-restraint reasons—in fact, Illinois is currently facing a financial crisis!). These prisoners, many of whom do not appear in person to present their motions, nonetheless, get “their day in court”: They don't appear in person, and yet their motions are still considered on the merits!

(4) Perhaps, the best argument for consideration of a motion, where the litigant can't travel to The Court in person to present it, comes from This Court itself! (And would, thus, be legally-binding case-law precedent.)

Looking at GMAC MORTGAGE LLC, et al. v. RICHARD DANIGGELIS, et al. (case number: 2007-CH-29738), which was heard before the Chancery Division of the Cook County, IL circuit court (not to be confused with a case heard in the Law Division, and by the same style and case number, which was subsequently transferred from Chancery to Law), we see a spirited fight put up for justice in this case, by no less than Mr. Watts, himself: As but one example of a motion considered without litigant appearing in person, we find from the docket in the above-mentioned case, on 11/30/2015, Watts moved for rehearing (without appearing in person), and on 12/07/2015, The Court (Hon. Michael F. Otto, associate judge, presiding in this case) ruled, in courtroom 2804, in a ruling titled: “MISCELLANEOUS MOTION – ALLOWED.” While Judge Otto commits a tort of slander on page 3 of his Dec. 07, 2015 ruling¹, nonetheless, he does rule on the merits of Watts request to Supplement the Record on Appeal (in the appeal that was pending at that time).

Although the undersigned movant would argue that rulings made by Hon. Judge Michael F. Otto (Associate Judge, #2605) were exceptionally incorrect (as a matter of case law, statutory law, and State & Federal constitutional rights), as applied to the facts of that case, nonetheless, Judge Otto finally (after much prodding and begging) considered the motions on the merits—and issued a ruling (right or wrong), not just once, but several times. (Judge Otto should be commended for an “A+” performance of granting “Procedural Due Process,” even if “Substantive Due Process” was trampled upon by what movant argues were “unjust” rulings.)

Therefore, even This Court's own legally-binding precedent confirms that State and Federal Due Process require all redresses, grievances, suits at law, and related motions to be heard on the merits—whether or not litigants seeking redress can physically travel to The Court in propria persona: The Court does not discriminate nor deny due process to litigants simply for being “too poor” to afford to hire a lawyer to appear—or to travel to appear themselves. Discrimination is wrong—in any of its forms or manifestations.

¹ Falsely claiming that Watts is arguing that vexatious litigants practices are 'OK'—direct quote: “The argument that all strangers to a case should be allowed to engage in the tactics of a vexatious litigant is so unpersuasive as to require no further discussion.”—Watts never said such things within the “4 Corners” of any of his briefs, arguing only that if vexatious litigants be given a fair hearing, then he should be heard & treated fairly too. Thus judge's statement/claims was false, and slanderous, but we're all human, and make mistakes—and this argument & documentation of slander/libel is not meant as disrespectful of the judge or the court.

Prayer(s) for Relief: Therefore, please review and rule on my motion for intervention, filed instantly, granting speedy relief to effect justice for both Defendant, Mr. Daniggelis, as well as Intervenor, Mr. Watts.

Arguments defending this position are on docket, as This Court has been good enough to grant extensive Procedural Due Process and document (by docketing) the sworn affidavit and arguments of the undersigned Intervenor—in prior filings he has submitted within the last several years to the Chancery, Civil, and Law Divisions of the Cook County, IL circuit/trial courts.

While a “CASE SET ON TRIAL CALL” [whether “bench trial” or a “trial by jury”] might theoretically grant justice, this is passing the buck; and, as The Court created this problem (by transferring title without legal justification—a brute show of force, and no more), therefore the court, which created the problem should decline to “pass the buck” to a “trial call,” and, instead, solve that problem which it, itself, created. Now, I pray This Court speedily grant speedy Substantive Due Process on any & all claims of Redress which I've previously made—and which were made by Defendant, Mr. Richard B. Daniggelis.

I realise that I'm effectively asking for a “Summary Judgment,” which is addressed and circumscribed by Local Rule 2.1(f) (“Filing motions for summary judgment in the Law Division”). This sub-section states en toto: “All motions for summary judgement shall be filed and duly noticed for hearing such that the motion comes before the court for initial presentation and entry of a briefing schedule not later than forty-five (45) days before the trial date, except by prior leave of court and for good cause shown or unless a deadline for dispositive motions is otherwise specified in the case management order.” [Emphasis added for clarity; not in original]

Here is 'Good Cause': Since the nature and magnitude of the injustices are egregious, and since the court and parties have all had very ample opportunities to hash out their arguments, it would prejudice no one should the court issue an order of show cause to Mr. Younes as to why title should not transfer back to its rightful owner—or (simpler & better yet), should the court issue a summary judgment as a matter of law—in favour of Daniggelis. To decline to issue a summary judgment would fulfill the prophecy: “Justice delayed = Justice denied.”

Specifically, This Court is asked to return title of 1720 N. Sedgwick St. to its rightful owner, Richard B. Daniggelis (and award damages as it sees fit for his numerous losses—not the least of which is the fact that he's losing huge amounts of monies paid out-of-pocket for storage of his belongings, as well, possibly, as rent to procure a replacement housing—so that he does not have to live on the streets or in his van—as was reported widely, in the recent past), unless The Court can offer an excellent, detailed, and coherent explanation to the contrary. [Note: While Judge Otto made valiant efforts to argue against justice here, none of his legal arguments were sound or persuasive, excepting the one pointing out that the trial courts had temporarily lost jurisdiction when the matter was on appeal. The mandate has issued, and that appeal is finalised, so no longer will that dog hunt: The trial court is responsible for cleaning up its own messes.] Respectfully: If This Court disagrees with the legal arguments herewith, I hereby move The Court – and all of its judges – to grant a motion for clarification to the contrary. Barring that, relief is sought as previously requested.

This Court may also (if it so chooses) invoke Art. II, Rule 185 (Telephone Conferences), R.Civ. Proceedings in the Trial Court, and/or Rule 206(h)(Remote Electronic Means Depositions), etc., by calling movant at either of his two phone numbers of record: 863-688-9880 (home) and/or 863-409-2109 (cell).

CIRCUIT COURT
COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS

MOTION TO INTERVENE BY INTERVENOR, GORDON WAYNE WATTS

Gordon Wayne Watts ("Intervenor") hereby moves this Court, pursuant to 735 ILCS 5/2-408, for permission to intervene in the above-captioned matter, or in the Alternative, for leave to file an amicus curiae brief, and for the previously-filed notice, and this instant notice/motion (and attached sworn Affidavit), to be deemed to be converted to and constitute said amicus brief.

1. The Amicus brief (containing exhibits & additional facts of interest regarding defendant Younes' behaviour and actions) which proposed Intervenor, Watts, filed with this Court on 04/17/2017, was timely docketed on 04/21/2017, and properly acknowledged as a pro se filing by the undersigned Intervenor.

2. Mr. Richard B. Daniggelis, the true owner, who lost his house (1720 N. Sedgwick St., Old Town, Chicago, IL) through a forged signature in a mortgage fraud scheme (and which fraud tort is still being actively litigated and investigated in several forums, some Judicial and some Executive), was, on occasion, allowed to speak in court, in order that he might get Due Process for his mistreatment. The undersigned Intervenor is in communication with Daniggelis, and he asserts that Daniggelis informed Watts that he (Daniggelis) desires to communicate with the court, but is unable (because he lacks the legal know-how to do so), and his attorney is not at all helpful in this regard.

3. Intervenor, Gordon Wayne Watts, has done much research and work (see Appendix, infra) for Mr. Daniggelis, the latter of whom has indicted his desire to pay Watts for research & shipping services rendered.

4. Mr. Watts has the right to intervene under 735 ILCS 5/2-408(a)(2) because "the representation of the applicant's interest by existing parties is or may be inadequate and the applicant will or may be bound by an order or judgment in the action."

5. Moreover, Watts has the right to intervene under 735 ILCS 5/2-408(a)(3) because "the applicant is so situated as to be adversely affected by a distribution or other disposition of property in the custody or subject to the control or disposition of the court or a court officer."

6. This Motion is timely: Although courts evaluating timeliness consider "the totality of the circumstances," United States v. Alcan Aluminum, Inc., 25 F.3d 1174, 1181 (3d Cir. 1994), "[p]rejudice is the heart of the timeliness requirement," Jones v. Caddo Parish Sch. Bd., 735 F.2d 923, 946 (5th Cir. 1984) (en banc). Indeed, "courts are in general agreement that an intervention of right under Rule 24(a) must be granted unless the petition to intervene would work a hardship on one of the original parties." McDonald v. E.J. Lavino Co., 430 F.2d 1065, 1073 (5th Cir. 1970) (citation omitted). Since the court—and all parties—have long known the legal arguments and views of Intervenor (alho he merely asserted such arguments in amici curiae briefs—which this court is not required to grant), no party is prejudiced or caught off guard.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW:

PETITIONER IS ENTITLED TO INTERVENE AS A MATTER OF RIGHT.

Intervenor, Gordon Wayne Watts, has "unique knowledge" (backed up by a Sworn and Notarised AFFIDAVIT, as well as supported by facts and documented sources, not the least of the which is DNAinfo, a local newspaper, and unique information garnered from Daniggelis, himself, but which he can not convey to the court due to limited legal knowledge). Since his knowledge of the case is 'unique' and presents additional facts and additional legal arguments, by definition, the other parties are not representing said 'unique' facts and arguments, and therefore "the representation of the applicant's interest by existing parties is or may be inadequate," giving Watts the right to intervene under 735 ILCS 5/2-408(a)(2).

Moreover, Intervenor, Gordon Wayne Watts, has a sufficient interest in this case that warrants intervention as of right because the theft of Daniggelis' house forced him to begin using expensive storage facilities (for his belongings), made him homeless (or forced him to move in with some Good Samaritan), and all this costs a great deal of monies. The prior illegal construction/demolition that was Defendant Younes was documented to have performed on this house (see prior Watts filing), and the more-current illegal work, greatly in excess of City of Chicago Building Codes (which was the proximal cause of the above-captioned lawsuit by the City against Younes) caused both financial and emotional harm to Daniggelis. Moreover, the potential illegal destruction of the Sedgwick house (in this Historic District) would 'moot' any pending litigation and/or investigation into the illegal transfer of title.

The court's potential to allow illegal destruction of this historic-district house would make it infinitesimally more difficult for Daniggelis to pay back Watts (due to the additional financial and emotional burden so-placed upon him.) Therefore, Watts is "so situated as to be adversely affected by a distribution or other disposition of property in the custody or subject to the control or disposition of the court or a court officer," giving Watts the right to intervene under 735 ILCS 5/2-408(a)(3).

Where intervention as of right is asserted, "the trial court's jurisdiction is limited to determining timeliness, inadequacy of representation and sufficiency of interest; once these threshold requirements have been met, the plain meaning of the statute directs that the petition be granted." City of Chicago v. John Hancock Mutual Life Ins. Co., 127 Ill.App.3d 140, 144 (1st Dist. 1984). [Emphasis added in underline & bold; not in original] Petitioner satisfies all three requirements, giving Watts the right to intervene under 735 ILCS 5/2-408(a)(3).

Newly-discovered facts of a dispositive nature

This Court knows that defendant, Joseph Younes, has denied ever planning or conspiring to break the law in regards to executing 'excessive' work, beyond the permits. However, DNAinfo reported that a local attorney, who has no motives to be sued for slander, libel, or defamation of character, said quite the opposite:

"Jordan Matyas, who represented the Old Town Triangle Association at Thursday's court hearing, said Younes was being disingenuous in saying he didn't intend to level the site. "He's told me twice that he always wanted to demolish it," Matyas said, and he told the judge that he intended to pursue a demolition permit as well. "So we have some mixed signals from the owner, but his actions speak clearly about his intent for the building.”

[Source: “‘Rotted’ Historic Building In Old Town Triangle Could Be Seized By City,” by Ted Cox, DNAinfo,
March 30, 2017: <https://www.DNAinfo.com/chicago/20170330/old-town/rotted-historic-building-old-town-triangle-could-be-seized-by-city>] See also EXHIBIT-A in the instant filing. [Watts, who knew of this news item right after it published, on 3-30-2017, did not include it in his last filing, dated 4-22-2017, because he was struggling to file it in time for Judge Ball-Reed to get it before the 4-27-2017 hearing. Watts, by virtue of this statement, issues a sincere apology for his oversight & slowness here.]

Newly-discovered Eyewitness Testimony of a dispositive nature

Watts, when speaking recently by phone with Daniggelis, was told three (3) key facts about the condition of the house at 1720 N. Sedgwick, in the case at bar, which have not made it to the “ears of the court” due to the lack of legal mojo on the part of Mr. Daniggelis:

- 1) Daniggelis, who used to help his father build houses (and is an expert) told Watts that his father, when building the house, laid a foundation which is strong enough for a five (5) story house, even though the house at 1720 is only a 2-story house. This fact is relevant because Younes has repeatedly told This Court that the foundation was 'bad.' – I (the undersigned Watts) do not expect This Court to merely take my word (as this is but hearsay). However, I include this testimony from Daniggelis because it can be “helpful guidance” to This Court when asking CR Realty (and other experts in the field) to look with more-exact accuracy about the foundation. [This claim can, thus, be 'tested' by realty & building experts looking for certain things—and potentially save much money if the foundation does not need tearing up & removal/replacement.]
- 2) Daniggelis also said that when the City of Chicago was in civil court against him, recently, for building code violations, one inspector, who looked at the roof, was only able to complain that one piece of wood was turned around “backwards,” so that the label was facing the wrong way. I include this because Younes claimed that the roof have major 'leaks,' and Daniggelis, if This Court can get him to testify (and get prior City code inspectors to testify), can determine whether there were 'major' leaks (like Younes claims) or, rather, an occasional, minor leak (like Daniggelis and others apparently claim).
- 3) Daniggelis said that he was concerned that removing the roof and/or floors would make the house more unstable and susceptible to torque damage from the wind. While he could not determine the extent of the damage Younes inflicted upon the house (since he was not permitted access), I enter this into the record so that inspectors can be on the lookout for this potential danger.
- 4) I include these 3 points, supra, and the DNAinfo quote to call into question Younes' honesty, which is dispositive to This Court's dealings with him.

NOTE: While I am very disgusted with the dishonesty and recklessness which Mr. Younes has exhibited (in both code violations as well as knowingly participating in a fraud—and benefiting from it by the illicit gains of getting a house for free – without any documented payment to Daniggelis), nonetheless, I do not wish any ill or harm upon Younes, nor do I seek revenge. [In fact, in my prior sworn affidavits, I was careful to include the fact that Younes gave Daniggelis some assistance moving out by allowing his employees to help move things; moreover, while 'religion' is not germane to the matter before This Court, I was careful to recall—and attest—to how Daniggelis told me that he and Younes occasionally had conversations about religion, and both men were respectful to one another, in spite of the fact that they are members of two totally-different religions. This, of course, tells us that Younes is not totally evil, and, I hope, assures This Court that while I (the undersigned) am human, my motives are for the good.

Work done for Daniggelis

Mr. Daniggelis asked the undersigned Intervenor for assistance on a number of matters, including, but not limited to searching for, obtaining, and pass along many records (some court records, some publicly-accessible

FILED DATE: 2/27/2019 10:47 PM 2007CH29738

Internet records), sending them to him, and/or assistance on several unspecified technological/computer-related issues. [See also EXHIBIT-B in the instant filing.] If this court would be deny the instant motion, I would respectfully ask: how I might expect to get paid if Daniggelis is getting beaten up in court (house stolen from him, and then illegally destroyed –in violation of Landmark and City CODES), and my interests (to getting Daniggelis being able to avoid burdensome financial weights, that would severely restrict him) are not represented? As a side-note, This Court takes a dim view of elder abuse, and Intervenor's INTERVENTION is of assistance to This Court's desire to have all tools handy to do justice.

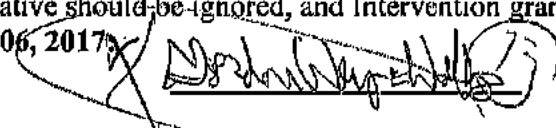

Here are the details of the work done, as shown in the Exhibits:

Where intervention as of right is asserted, “the trial court’s jurisdiction is limited to determining [[#1]] timeliness, [[#2]] inadequacy of representation and [[#3]] sufficiency of interest; once these threshold requirements have been met, the plain meaning of the statute directs that the petition be granted.” City of Chicago v. John Hancock Mutual Life Ins. Co., 127 Ill.App.3d 140, 144 (1st Dist. 1984). [Enumeration and emphasis added in underline & bold; not in original] Petitioner satisfies all three requirements, giving Watts the right to intervene under 735 ILCS 5/2-408(a)(3). [#1] This is timely; [#2] I doubt that anyone would doubt that the many new points Intervenor raises lack representation, as they are key facts that have not been addressed before, and this case could tip either way depending on my submitting (or not submitting) these key facts. However, is prong #3 satisfied?

Looking at the great financial costs Intervenor has incurred, we don't even count his own litigation (printing, service costs, and the huge time lost from working a better-paying job). But, looking solely at the FOIA and other misc. research Intervenor did for Daniggelis, and for which Daniggelis indicated he wished to pay, we see the following: $104.68 + $10.21 + $21.19 + $11.50 + $33.19 + $2.25 + $13.28 + $20.64 + $9.60 + $76.25 + $6.47 + $3.95 + $8.88 + labour + time lost from work. This suggest that Intervenor has spent at least $322.09, not counting huge time lost from work, gas & upkeep for his vehicle, food costs, etc. (And, were we to count the legal filings, and not just the research, estimating what a 'real' lawyer would charge to file supportive briefs – Intervenor is not a lawyer – this would drive up the costs to triple or more, since US Postal and FedEx service don't run on fairy dust.) Based on the foregoing, Intervenor has a huge interest. But – there is one more interest: Daniggelis is like a grandfather to him, and the pain he's suffered inflicts emotional harm upon Watts, in the same way were it to happen to anyone else's mother, father, uncle, grandfather, etc. Were Watts his biological kin, say, a son or daughter, Intervention solely based on emotional pain would not be questioned. #3: Lastly, Watts meets the third prong, sufficiency of interest, and should be permitted to intervene.

Of course, should the court decline to grant intervention as of right, Watts; filings might be deemed amicus curiae, with the good-will intentions to help the court. Indeed, Kinkel v. Cingular Wireless, L.L.C., 223 Ill. 2D 1; 857 N.E.2d 250; 306 Ill.Dec. 157 (Jan. 11, 2006), holds that an Amicus needs merely offer helpful information that the parties have overlooked. Illinois Courts also adopt a 7th Cir. Federal Court standard in which((#1)) a party is not represented at all; ((#2)) the 'direct interest' test; or, ((#3)) the same test as above: Helpful info overlooked by the parties. NOTE: The 7th Circuit test uses the key operator “or,” meaning that any one “or” the other of the three tests need apply. See e.g., NOW, et al. v. Scheidler, et al., (Nos. 99-3076, 99-3336, 99-3891 & 99-3892, 7th. Cir., Opinion July 31, 2000. But, it would appear the amici are disfavoured in Illinois thru some unspoken rule, so maybe this alternative should-be-ignored, and Intervention granted.

Respectfully submitted this Thursday, July 06, 2017

OLD TOWN TRIANGLE — The city has moved to seize control of a historic landmark district building that it says has been left to rot at 1720 N. Sedgwick Ave.

"We believe that this owner is allowing the building to deteriorate so he can obtain a demolition permit," said Ald. Michele Smith

According to Smith, Younes could never get agreements with the Buildings Department and the Landmarks Commission "because he seemed to be dragging his feet all the time."

"Now we have this guy we think is willingly letting it deteriorate," she added. "We're not going to let that happen."

Jordan Matyas, who represented the Old Town Triangle Association at Thursday's court hearing, said Younes was being disingenuous in saying he didn't intend to level the site. "He's told me twice that he always wanted to demolish it," Matyas said, and he told the judge that he intended to pursue a demolition permit as well. "So we have some mixed signals from the owner, but his actions speak clearly about his intent for the building."

Case No: 1-15-0662

Money Order # 41742051

Dear Attorney Schillaci:

Balance 200 65 35 48

07/01/2016
Acct # 28175000 + $ 76.25

Thank you for speaking with me last Friday morning (Fri. 24 June 2016) and this past Tuesday evening (Tue. 28 June 2016), and giving me the proper protocol and procedures for making a records request of court filings in your court with regard to the two court cases cited above. I am sorry that I am somewhat slow to respond, but I have been busy with many things recently.

According to my recollection and notes, it would appear that you told me that the entire file in 1-14-2751 contained 172 pages, which, at $0.25/page, would cost me $43.00 even, and that 1-15-0662 contained 133 pages, which would cost me $33.25, for a sum total of $76.25, and that your court only accepted payment by cash, check, or money order, payable to "Clerk of the Appellate Court" (but had not yet set up payment by credit card or bank account, electronic draft), and, also, that your court did not prefer to deal in case for obvious reasons of security and documentation of the currency. - You also said that if I were short, you could not advance credit, and would require payment in advance. - Moreover, my notes reflect that if the opposite was the case (overpayment), you warned and cautioned me that your court could not issue any refund of excess payment, not even were I to include cash currency as part of all of the payment method, as your court's policy also prohibited sending cash by mail as well.

Because of that, I must get the payment amount "exact" or else risk over-payment (with no avenue or means for giving me change back for overpayment) or under-payment (where I can't get all the records I seek). For that reason, I made a call to your court to ascertain & determine whether any new filings or court orders had been entered into the record on appeal in either of the 2 above-captioned cases. After several unsuccessful tries (one time, a clerk said a motion was due on a certain date, but never answered my question about one case, and then hung up before I could inquire about the other case - meaning, she never answered me at all!), I finally determined that nothing new had been entered in either of these 2 cases since we spoke last week.

I wish you the best in getting your court set up for electronic payment (of "records request" fees) by Credit Card; electronic release of records (by email in PDF or image format in email attachments, like the trial courts currently do); and online dockets (preferably with click-to-see of an image of the docket entry, but at least a docket of the entries, like the trial courts currently provide the public).

Please find, enclosed a money order for $76.25 for the file in both cases.

Chris, this is Gordon again.

I hate to bother you, but these criminals that have been trying to destroy the house at 1720 North Sedgwick Street, Old Town, Chicago, IL (and resolutely make you all very busy, when y'all have to repeatedly put up "Stop Work Order" signs to put a stop to the illegal construction, demolition, & destruction of property), and I feel the need to do more news coverage.

Dear Mr. Watts:

On behalf of the Department of Planning and Development (DPD), please be advised we are in receipt of your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request. Your request was dated and received on April 7, 2017. Specifically, the FOIA states and seeks the following request for public records:

Exhibit-I

Docuemtation that defendant, Watts, timely documented that he qualifies to proceed as an indigent (Exhibit-I), thereby showing that he could, legally, request This Court prepare the entire record on appeal, and transmit it to the appellate court for review. But, in the interests of fairness to the court (humane treatment and judicial economy), Watts notes that the size of the docket in the underlying Chancery case, in this case number, is huge, and would burden This Court to prepare.

Re: “Waiver of Court Fees” confusion in this case

Friday, 19 January 2018

Dear Judge Flannery:

It has come to my attention that there's confusion regarding my application for fee waiver. As you were the presiding judge who adjudicated my last application, it's instructive to revisit the issue: We recall I was a prospective Amicus Curiae aka a “Friend of the Court,” and you denied my application on grounds that I wasn't a party. As much as I disagree, I admit this is a “gray” area of case law, & any review of it would be “de novo.” As such, there's a good argument that you were right in your order (dated Feb. 22, 2016, in the underlying Chancery case, which was transferred to the Law Division) denying me fee waiver. However, when speaking by phone with Pat O'Brien, deputy chief of Civil Appeals, she assured me that your denial of my application last time means that I must be denied now. UPDATE Correction—since writing this (in my last letter, which was Exhibit-D in my Notice of Appeal), I spoke with Ms. O'Brien, who says I misrepresented her view, as to why she disagrees with me. I think she simply thinks that I needed an explicit order –but she's wrong: See the case-law below...

My application for fee waiver this past Monday, 08 January 2018 (the day I filed my notice of appeal) was rejected because it was an 'Exhibit,' and had to have been a stand-alone filing, so I get a redo.

Anyhow, I mean no disrespect to Patricia –but here's my point: Since Ms. O'Brien is very intelligent (knowledgeable of Supreme Court rules, much more than her staff), if she can get confused, judges can also—after all, judges are human too. While you might've been right to deny me last time, things have changed. I asserted intervention (see my Motion to Intervene, dated Thursday, 06 July 2017), an absolute right under IL case law: Where intervention as of right is asserted, “the trial court’s jurisdiction is limited to determining timeliness, inadequacy of representation and sufficiency of interest; once these threshold requirements have been met, the plain meaning of the statute directs that the petition be granted.” City of Chicago v. John Hancock Mutual Life Ins. Co., 127 Ill.App.3d 140, 144 (1st Dist. 1984). I satisfy all 3 requirements, giving me right to intervene under 735 ILCS 5/2-408(a) (3). As there was no denial of my motion, the docket's official listing of me as a defendant is prima facie evidence that I'm now a party, and thus qualify for fee waiver to sue or defend. (And, as I could sue Joe Younes anyhow, my cross-complaint and appeal constitutes suit, thus qualifying me.) Recall Rule 10-100(a) Illinois Supreme Court Commission on Access to Justice: “The Illinois Supreme Court Commission on Access to Justice is established to promote, facilitate, and enhance equal access to justice with an emphasis on access to the Illinois civil courts and administrative agencies for all people, particularly the poor and vulnerable,” which includes me. Therefore, my Notice of Appeal, and my Request for Preparation of the Record on Appeal, both Sine Qua Non necessary to grant me Due Process to proceed indigent in my appeal, require a grant of my request for a Fee Waiver. Otherwise, the injustices occurring in this case can not be reviewed on appeal. Unless your court awards me for my various losses, which I've documented in my Intervention Motion, I'll have sufficiency of interest & thus qualify to Intervene—and obtain fee waiver. This is IL case law; you may check to verify, but you must comply.

With kind Regards, I am, Sincerely,

/s/ Gordon Wayne Watts

If you are currently receiving regular food assistance benefits you are not eligible for D-SNAP (Food for Florida). Do not apply online or go to the site locations. If you try to apply for D-SNAP, you will be denied because you already receive food assistance benefits from SNAP.

- Regular food assistance recipients who live in the 48 counties approved for D-SNAP will have their household allotment increased to the maximum for September and October. The increase will bring them up to the total amount they would have received from D-SNAP, and will be credited to their EBT cards.
- The supplement is automatic. You do not have to do anything.
- The supplement will not be labeled in your MyACCESS Account.

Motion – En Banc – for Extension of Time to file Record on Appeal

This matter comes before the Court on motion of Movant for extension of time to file the Record on Appeal.

Rule 326 addresses circumstances such as this: “Extensions of time for filing the record may be granted by the reviewing court or a judge thereof on motion made before the expiration of the original or extended time or on motion filed within 35 days thereafter supported by a showing of reasonable excuse for failure to file the motion earlier. The movant shall serve any motion for extension of time on the clerk preparing the record on appeal.” [Movant is doing so – see e.g., Service List.] Although the prior 2 motions for extension of time (on 3/16/2018 and 7/18/2018) were “late” insofar as they fell within the 35-day grace period provided by R.326, today’s motion is timely, to show proper respect for The Court and all parties: The July 25, 2018 order extended time to October 17, 2018, which is today, and thus not late. [This motion also seeks an En Banc reviewing court review, as the title indicates.]

The gravity of the case should be mentioned, first, as a recap, since a lot is at stake: [#1] Not only was a house taken from one elderly defendant, via title-theft, but he also lost hundreds of thousands of dollars of equity and was made homeless, all without getting paid a dime—and (most-importantly) no court has been able to “show cause” why this was legal, and the undersigned, in prior pleadings, even quoted Judge Otto’s 3/8/2013 ruling in the underlying Chancery case, in the which this associate judge, in so many words, admitted the existence of duplicate signature forgery fraud (which is a felony). Were this case to not be overturned & remanded, a grave injustice would be done, not even including [#2] the loss of interests by Intervenor, Gordon W. Watts, who has documented his vast interests (in his 7-7-2016 Intervention motion in the law division case), in that he is (similar to a mechanic's lien) owed large sums of monies. [#3] Lastly, This Court has—no disrespect meant—committed Clear Error and Manifest Error in its recent rulings, prompting motions in all 3 sister cases (1-18-0091, 1-18-0538, and 1-18-0572). Great harm would be done for any of the 3 reasons cited above, and grave harm for all three.

While Movant, Watts, is not an attorney, he nearly won the largest case in the last century—all by himself—doing better, even than then Gov. Jeb Bush, before the same panel, which may be verified by looking at that court's docket:

* In Re: GORDON WAYNE WATTS (as next friend of THERESA MARIE 'TERRI' SCHIAVO), No. SC03-2420 (Fla. Feb.23, 2005), denied 4-3 on rehearing. (Watts got 42.7% of his panel) <http://www.FloridaSupremeCourt.org/clerk/dispositions/2005/2/03-2420reh.pdf>

* In Re: JEB BUSH, GOVERNOR OF FLORIDA, ET AL. v. MICHAEL SCHIAVO, GUARDIAN: THERESA SCHIAVO, No. SC04-925 (Fla. Oct.21, 2004), denied 7-0 on rehearing. (Bush got 0.0% of his panel before the same court) <http://www.FloridaSupremeCourt.org/clerk/dispositions/2004/10/04-925reh.pdf>

This would suggest that Watts' filings, and sincere allegations of grave missteps, may have some merit, and should be reviewed En Banc.

The mitigating circumstances which delayed filing of the Record on Appeal (some the fault of the court below, and some family-emergencies, which were unforeseen, and not the fault of Movant) were described in prior filings, and This Court graciously granted 2 extensions of time to file the record.

Reasons for Delay in filing the Record on Appeal: Movant, whose father recently passed away, received a very small inheritance, and had intended to use several thousand dollars of his own monies to pay for the Record on Appeal, since This Court (and the courts below) refused to grant a R.321 motion to limit the record to a manageable size, which Movant was willing to pay. However, right when he was about to do so, some crazy person drilled a half-inch drill into his vehicle's gas tank (presumably to steal gas, but this is very dangerous, risking a spark-induced explosion, which is why the adjective “crazy” was used in a legal filing above). This unforeseen turn of events (see EXHIBIT-A, police report) prompted Movant to upgrade his security system, which cost untold thousands of dollars, leaving Movant almost broke. (See EXHIBIT-B, bank records) Then, even if he would, otherwise, have been looking for a job, he was served an eviction notice (see EXHIBIT-C). Having to move mountains of personal belongings to help his mother move (she resides with him, in the wake of the death of Movant's father), precludes him from holding down a job for a few months, and this does not even account for the fact that he was working part-time for his father, who is now dead, and can no longer contribute charitable donations for part-time work. Thus, Movant is indigent within the meaning of Rule 311(a), and, as proof of that, This Court granted permission to proceed without payment of fees. But, since the lower courts did not obey the law (the same law governs both courts)m and because Movant no longer had the several thousand dollars to prepare the “full” record—and because both the trial court and This Court refused a R.321 motion to limit the record to only that which was needed—something Movant might have been able to afford (as it was likely only several hundred dollars, not the estimated 2 or 3 grand for this very huge Record), the Due Process of this case ground to an abrupt halt. (The courts priced out the Movant, unable to pay an unreasonable fee, and thus no Record was prepared.)

This Court may wonder if Movant has made genuine attempts to prosecute this appeal. However, in communications with the Civil Appeals Division, Atty. Patricia A. O'Brien, Esq., Chief Deputy Clerk of that division, admitted that Movant had made many attempts to procure the record, in her email to the undersigned, when she said: “Good Morning Gordon, [line-break] As you know from our numerous prior discussions, the Civil Appeals Division does not prepare Records on Appeal unless the Request for Preparation of Record on Appeal form has been e-filed and the statutory fee paid.” (See EXHIBIT-D for O'Brien comments, and EXHIBIT-E for full thread)

This shows Movant was making genuine attempts to prosecute appeal, in spite of financial hardship. Her claims, however, that: “The Record on Appeal in this case will not be prepared by this Wednesday because you never filed your Request form,” are incorrect, as is documented in the follow-up replies (see EXHIBIT-E for full thread).

This Court is asked to extend the time to file the Record on Appeal, for those reasons above.

However, absent a miracle, no amount of time would be sufficient because Movant genuinely qualifies for indigent status, and thus court's denial of some amenities denies his day in court. Since it appears very unlikely that Daniggelis' attorney (Andjelko Galic) will refile the case by the statutory deadline in a few weeks (Judge Shelley granted his non-suit motion for voluntary dismissal with leave to refile within a year, in her 12/07/2017 Order), Movant's case is the only hope to get justice for both Movant (who has interests) and Daniggelis (the elderly fellow whose house/land & hundreds of thousands of documented dollars were stolen via title-theft mortgage fraud, and thereby made homeless). Moreover, This Court (in its June 16, 2016 Order, in file #:1-14-2751, a sister-appeal) royally chewed out Atty. Galic for his repeated failure to prosecute Daniggelis' appeal. Thus, it seems highly unlikely that Daniggelis (or Watts) will get justice if Watts' appeal is stricken or otherwise denied.

It is not without moment that This Court (in its 05/03/2018 Order in 1-18-0572, claimed that it lacked jurisdiction: “to allow Watts leave to intervene, grant a fee waiver, or to prepare the record on appeal & transmit to App. Ct. in this matter (1-18-0572). Motion denied.” (Hon. Daniel J. Pierce, JUSTICE, for the Court) That violates well-settled case law on Intervention by this Court (City of Chicago v. John Hancock Mutual Life Ins. Co.*, 127 Ill.App.3d 140, 144 (1st Dist. 1984)), as well as Rule 321, which expressly permits This Court to limit the record on appeal. While reasons may exist to demand a full record (perhaps This Court feels it needs the information), it is patently wrong to claim that This Court lacks appellate jurisdiction (both in general, and as specifically granted by the case-law or Supreme Court rules above). Likewise, This Court (in its 09/28/2018 Order in 1-18-0538) claimed that: “this Cause is DISMISSED for lack of this Court's jurisdiction.” (Hon. Mary Anne Mason, Hon. Terrence J. Lavin, Hon. Michael B. Hyman, JUSTICES, for The Court) This clearly violates the ILLINOIS Constitution, which does indeed, grant This Court jurisdiction to entertain a Mandamus petition: SECTION 6 (APPELLATE COURT – JURISDICTION) of the IL Constitution expressly provides authority here in sentence 3 of that paragraph: “The Appellate Court may exercise original jurisdiction when necessary to the complete determination of any case on review,” which, of course, includes Mandamus actions. In fact, This Court, in permitted (and granted) Mandamus petitions in no less than Gassman v. THE CLERK OF THE CIRCUIT COURT OF COOK COUNTY (1-15-1738) Midwest Medical v. Dorothy Brown (1-16-3230). How is this so, if This Court lacks jurisdiction over Mandamus actions? (Ironically, these were 'Fee Recovery' cases, not unlike this case, insofar as Movant is being asked to pay enormously large Preparation of the Record on Appeal fees for which he is exempt, as his rights to Intervene and indigent status qualify him.)

Then, in its earlier order on 08/28/2018, This Court (Hon. Daniel J. Pierce, Hon. Mary L. Mikva, Hon. John C. Griffin, JUSTICES, for The Court) dismissed 1-18-0572, the sister case, which appealed the Circuit Court's denial of fee waiver for preparation of the record. Since the court asked appellant to do the very thing he was appealing, this was a “Catch-22” gotcha ruling, denying Due Process. The Record on Appeal can't be prepared via Fee Waiver without winning the appeal. But the appeal can't proceed without prep of the very huge record, which was entirely unnecessary to address the simple question at law, here: Whether the lower courts erred in denying Intervention and therefore ruled appellant wasn't a party, entitled to fee waiver. In light of the other two rulings, which violate clear law, this is troubling.

In its 03/28/2018 Order, in 1-18-0091, This Court ordered appellant to: “direct inquiries on the content of the record on appeal to the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County,” which he did in his 04/20/2018 filing before Judge Shelley. However, not only did she not enter an order granting procedural due process (namely, this motion asked for a R.321 order to limit the record to that which appellant could afford, as that was all that was needed), she did not enter an order at all. This was an additional, and grave, Due Process violation, as the judge clearly got the filing, the court stamp in it as proof. This filing is available from the lower court, or on Appellant's own online docket, directly linked here below – and included as EXHIBIT-F, below:

ARGUMENT: While courts are composed of judges and justices, who are human, and it is inappropriate to make fun of anyone's honest mistakes, nonetheless, the grave injustices above warrant an En Banc review. Indeed, the laws (case-law, Constitutional Law, Supreme Court rules, etc.) are “law,” and the courts should obey the law. On the other hand, when laws are enacted, it matters not whether they're “tall laws,” “short laws,” “fat laws,” or “skinny laws”: If the laws are not obeyed and complied with by the sitting judiciary, this brings great dishonour and frustration to the court and litigants. Since Movant, tho indigent, has been shelling out big bucks to keep this appeal alive, and is willing to pay something, even tho he feels that he qualifies for a full “free scholarship” on Fee Waiver, This Court should recognise that Movant is making an honest effort to meet the court and parties halfway, and make their jobs as easy as possible. In fact, since the case for Summary Judgment, returning ownership of Daniggelis' house is so strong, This Court might save itself some time, headache, & man-hours, by simply ordering the limited record suggested in prior filings, and then issuing summary judgment on this case, and, more generally, reviewing policy on the missteps that occurred above, when the court did not comply with clearly-established Rules, case-law, Constitutional Provisions, etc.

Although it seems unlikely that Appellant, who is quite financially strapped, could pay the estimated several-thousand-dollar Record on Appeal fees to prepare the record, were he to somehow do so, he would be entitled to Mandamus relief, as the case-law above hold, and Mandamus would issue (from This Court or The IL Supreme Court) to compel reimbursement, because he qualifies for intervention, and (via poverty) for Fee Waiver. So, that being the case, why not grant relief now, so that we avoid that legal train wreck?

This Court also violated a direct command of the Illinois Supreme Court, here recently, in a related case:

[Date: 5/6/2015] No. 118434 - GMAC Mortgage, LLC, et al., respondents, v. Richard Daniggelis, petitioner. Leave to appeal, Appellate Court, First District. (1-14-2751)

Petition for leave to appeal denied.

In the exercise of this Court's supervisory authority, the Appellate Court, First District, is directed to vacate its order in GMAC Mortgage, LLC v. Daniggelis, case No. 1-14-2751 (09/24/14), denying Richard Daniggelis leave to file a late notice of appeal. The appellate court is instructed to allow Richard Daniggelis to file a late notice of appeal and hear the case. (27 N.E.3d 610 (2015))

Let's looks again at the ORDER rendered here: Notice that it doesn't say “hear” the case only if Atty. Galic files his merits briefs. Notice, please, it says to “hear the case.” Period. Now, no one will hold it against the appellate court judges for being human and getting side-tracked: If This Court does not obey The Supreme Court's last order to hear the merits, four (4) parties will suffer harm:

- (1) This Court will risk censure, embarrassment, & failure to obey the IL Supreme Court.
- (2) Mr. Daniggelis, who is elderly (about 80 or 81 at this time), was made homeless, via title theft.
- (3) Movant is owed monies as documented in Intervention filings, which need to be paid.
- (4) The Rule of Law would suffer, and who else would get denied a fair hearing, simply because he's a poor, out-of-state non-Lawyer?

Conclusion:

Movant is grateful for the kind patience of This Court in extending time twice already, but a failure to uphold the law for poor litigants who qualify for (because they can't afford) a Record on Appeal—and who legally (and morally) qualify for Intervention, would moot any extension of time. Therefore, This Court should review the record, and—on its own motion—permit a fair review of the merits of the case being appealed (whether it requires full prep of the Record or a limited R.321 Record as Movant suggests in prior filings).

There were so many blatant and obviously huge errors committed by This Court in the 3 sister-cases referenced (1-18-0091, 1-18-0538, and 1-18-0572), than an En Banc reconsideration is the only appropriate course to avoid a legal train wreck.

This Court might disagree with the requests made of it or disagree with the claims that This Court violated the law—and no disrespect is meant—but, if This Court disagrees with the legal analyses and/or the requests within the “four corners” of this brief, it should enlighten those on the outside as to why we are wrong via a clearer opinion, En Banc, after careful review.

Hopefully, however, the meager requests made with genuine intent to get justice, but not go overboard or destroy those who broke the law & executed title-theft, should be amenable to This Court, and to that end, Movant (supported by many others who are harmed by these title-theft thieves) moves This Court to execute justice after a careful review of the merits.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/Gordon Wayne Watts

ORDER

This matter coming on to be heard on the motion of Movant, Gordon Wayne Watts, for an extension of time, and, notice having been given, and the Court being fully advised in the premises:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the time for filing the Record on Appeal is extended to February 18, 2019, and, pursuant to Rule 311(b) [Rule 311. Accelerated Docket, (b) Discretionary Acceleration of Other Appeals], this appeal is placed on accelerated track. Pursuant to Rule 311(b), “The motion [to expedite] shall be supported by an affidavit stating reasons why the appeal should be expedited,” and This Court notes that both the instant motion and prior pleadings by Appellant had either 'Verification' affirmations, or actual Sworn/Notarized affidavits, which compel The Court to accept at face value allegations that an accelerated appeal is necessary. [This court notes that Watts' claims on this head were never challenged as false.]

IT IS FURTHERMORE ORDERED that the trial court shall grant Movant's motion for Intervention, Grant his application for fee waiver, and prepare 'selected' items described below:

This court finds, per Rule 311(b), that it is warranted by the circumstances, and This Court now enters a ruling that the trial court prepare only the following supporting record prepared pursuant to Rule 328, consisting only the following lower court pleadings:

- All lower court pleadings – and related “exhibits” – filed by Gordon Wayne Watts
- The 10/17/2007 Complaint to Foreclose Mortgage filed by GMAC
- The July 16, 2008 Motion for Extension of Time filed by CVLS for Daniggelis
- The July 30, 2008 Answer filed by CVLS on behalf of Daniggelis
- Two (2) “Answer” briefs, filed by Defendant, Joseph Younes, dated Oct 24, 2008
- The 2/15/2013 Answer filed by Atty. Galic on behalf of Daniggelis
- The 2/15/2013 and 3/8/2013 ORDERS by Judge Michael F. Otto
- The 5/6/2015 Supervisory ORDER by the IL Supreme Court, in the instant case [No. 118434, (27 N.E.3d 610 (2015))]
- The 8/8/2017 Motion to Reconsider filed by Atty. Galic for Daniggelis
- The 12/06/2017 Motion to Comply filed by Robert J. More
- The 12/07/2017 ORDERS by Judge Diane M. Shelley, from which Watts appeals

ORDER – GMAC v. Watts, et al., 1-18-0091 (ILLINOIS First Appellate Court)

The trial court shall prepare the Record on Appeal, with ONLY the items listed above (all the enumerated items, and ALL pleadings and related exhibits filed by Appellant, Gordon Wayne Watts), and shall place preparation of the selected records on “accelerated” track, and shall notify This Court when the record is prepared, and transmit it instanter to This Court.

After This Court makes the “selected” Record on Appeal, above, available to all litigants, it shall give ALL named parties ONE last opportunity, within thirty (30) days, to respond and to include anything relevant in the record (to make up for anything that was omitted for the sake of brevity), and to file ONE supporting brief, which complies with page and word-length requirements, citing to any supplemental record items.

Since the 'Record on Appeal' shall be less than 100% of the total record (due to time and space constraints), This Court deems it necessary, to satisfy Due Process, to give ALL parties opportunity to respond, and then This Court shall, if no counter arguments are raised, return Richard Daniggelis' house to him, with equitable damages awarded, by Summary Judgment. The “last chance” to file a brief, to grant fair Due Process to defendants, Joseph Younes, and other named defendants, shall be considered a chance to reply to a “Show Cause” order, This Court asking litigants to show cause why Daniggelis' house should not return to him.

Whether or not litigants file an 'answer' brief (this is optional), This Court shall review The Record (and any “one-time” briefs, submitted, as described above), shall consider the facts and law, and shall render a decision, in compliance with the 5/6/2015 Supervisory ORDER by the IL Supreme Court, in the instant case [No. 118434, (27 N.E.3d 610 (2015))].

The trial court shall speedily prepare the selected record, notify this court, and transmit it to this court by electronic means, on accelerated docket.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Narrative

INCIDENT SCENE:

This incident took place in the yard of a residence, located at 821 Alicia Road.

INVESTIGATION:

On 7/29/18 at approximately 1555 hours, I PSA Kercher #646 responded to a residence, located at 821 Alicia Road in reference to a criminal mischief, not in progress. On scene, I met with the victim, Gordon Watts and I interviewed him regarding this incident. Watts reported between 7/27/18 at approximately 0005 and 7/28/18 at approximately 0645 hours someone drilled a hole in the gas tank on his van.

Watts reported that he was awakened on 7/28/18 at approximately 0645 hours by a strong smell of gas. Watts reported the van was parked in the grass on the north side of his residence. LAKELAND POLICE DEPARTMENT

Narrative

I observed the van parked on the north side of the victim's residence. I noticed the ground was dark and there was a strong smell of gas. Watts reported that he was so busy on 7/28/18 with trying to get the van fixed that he did not have time to make a report.

CONCLUSION:

I provided a Victim's Right's pamphlet to Watts along with an event number.

I had no further involvement in this case.

I swear or affirm this report is correct and true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Re: Notice of Lease Termination and Notice to Vacate
That home and premises located at 821 Alicia Dr., Lakeland, FL 33801

Dear Mrs. Watts & Gordon,

As you are aware, the home that you are occupying needs extensive repairs due to Hurricane Irma damage and otherwise, and in this regard the City of Lakeland on 8/2/18 has cited Wingo Investment Corporation, the owner of the above property, with 3 citations requiring repair and upkeep which Gordon has copies of. Wingo does not intend to make these repairs but intends to demolish the premises.

Accordingly, please consider this a formal Notice of Lease Termination & Vacation on behalf of Wingo Investment Corporation, the owner of the above home and premises, which you are occupying on a month-to-month basis. To accommodate you in this regard, it is requested that you vacate on or before Saturday, December 1, 2018 by not only removing yourself from the premises but anything owned by you as the owner, Wingo Investment Corporation, intends to demolish the home you are occupying in December 2018 to remove it from the tax rolls as it has determined that it is not economically feasible to make the ongoing repairs as requested and otherwise.

In the meantime, no rent will be charged you from September 1st until you vacate, and it would be appreciated if that might be early prior to December 1st with Notice of Vacation be given to Doris W. Ellsworth, President of Wingo Investment Corporation.

Sincerely,

W. Wm. Ellsworth, Jr.

Thank you for the clarification on both points. Mom wanted to keep the water heater, even Tho I don't know if we will need one-- or if it is easily movable. Thing like my wall -unit air conditioner, however, are probably useful. Also, you make a good argument about how you have been generous tip us, both in the past and this time with regard to the free rent in our closing months, and I'll be sure to call mom right now and update her on both points.

Dear Gordon,

Responding to your email of 8/21/18 received on 8/22/18:

1. I forgot to tell you that upon timely vacating the premises you and/or your mom may take from the above premises at no cost to you anything contained within or may be attached to it if it will help you with your move to your Plant City house. This would include but not be limited to appliances, light fixtures, air conditioning unit, and any materials that may be salvageable and could be used by you.
2. The 12/1/18 date required for the premises to be vacated is 3 months and 10 days from the Notice to you which is more than sufficient for that purpose. Additionally, any moving expenses can be offset by the 3 months rent you will not be paying. Consequently, your date of vacation of 12/1/18 is non-negotiable, and I intend shortly to be contracting for the premises demolition on that date as the premises must be demolished before 12/31/18 in order to be excluded from the County and City tax roll for 2019 taxes.

Thank you,

Doris W. Ellsworth

Subject: Fwd: Notice of Lease Termination and Notice to Vacate That home and premises located at 821 Alicia Dr., Lakeland, FL 33801

Thank you for your timely notice, Doris, but for important matters, please remember I have several email addresses, and i regularly check both "gww1210" addresses. I am sorry to get evicted, but probably, you are right that mom and I should live in a home we own, versus renting.  GOOD NEWS: When mom was mentioning hiring a general contractor, yesterday (Tue 21 Aug 2018), I asked her why she would need one if she plans to sell her house, and she said that she changed her mind & wants to keep it. See, I told you that miracles were possible!.. When I asked her when & why she changed her mind, she said that she changed her mind this past Friday (Aug 17, 2018), and it was because you evicted us (giving her a wakeup call to reality, and proving us both right that her house is in better condition). She did say that three (3) months may not be enough, and that she would pay for the 4th and extra month. While I think that it will be enough, her concern is not without reason: When dad's landlord (Sun T. Choe) asked me to remove our stuff & vacate the shop, I unexpectedly landed in the emergency room after nearly bleeding to death from a reaction to over-the-counter meds, thus delaying me. While this is unlikely to happen again, this is a reminder that unexpected delays can come up. I hope & think that giving us til Dec 01 will be enough, so I will not cross any other bridge til I come to it. My biggest regret is that you didn't drop the hammer sooner, but better late than never. I think things will work out; thank you for your efforts. I did call Mike Kennedy, and he thinks he will have time to sit down with me, you, and mom, and brainstorm options & solutions. Meantime, I continue to work 'round the clock to safely vacate myself & belongings without incurring a false arrest at the hands of my mother for moving her belongings without her authorization. All This will be a challenge, and time will tell, but thanks for your efforts & assistance thus far.

Gordon Wayne Watts

Good Morning Gordon,

As you know from our numerous prior discussions, the Civil Appeals Division does not prepare Records on Appeal unless the Request for Preparation of Record on Appeal form has been efiled and the statutory fee paid.

Pursuant to Illinois Supreme Court Rule 321, you may only limit the Record on Appeal by stipulation of the parties or by order of court. Also, as you know, my division is required to prepare Records in accordance with the Supreme Court Rules and Standards for Preparation of Electronic Records- you are not able to direct us otherwise.

We do not provide estimates in advance of the Record being prepared because we have no means to calculate it until the images have been reviewed and prepared. However, as you are well aware, this case is eleven years old and was several boxes in size many years ago.

The Record on Appeal in this case will not be prepared by this Wednesday because you never filed your Request form.

As you are aware, the Appeals Court has granted numerous extensions of time in my appeal of 2007-CH-29783, where I have asserted Rights of Intervention. While I'm very displeased (and rightly confused) that the court has claimed it somehow or another lacks appellate jurisdiction to limit the record on appeal or address intervention -- in spite of clear case law to the contrary (see e.g., 05/03/2018 order of 1st Appellate Court where it disclaims jurisdiction "to order the Cir. Ct. to allow Watts leave to intervene, grant a fee waiver, or to prepare the record on appeal & transmit to App. Ct. in this matter (1-18-0572)," an appeal of Judge Flannery's order regarding the sister case, 1-18-0091 -- Contra: City of Chicago v. John Hancock Mutual Life Ins. Co., 127 Ill.App.3d 140, 144 (1st Dist. 1984) -- which the 1st App.Ct. wrote on Intervention or, perhaps, Rule 321, which allows the Appellate Court to limit Contents of the Record on Appeal to only a few Sine Qua Non required filings, sufficient for This Court to easily & quickly review & decide the case)...

...nonetheless, The First Appellate Court has mercifully & graciously extended time twice (the 3/28/18 order extending time to June 12, 2018, and the 07/25/18 order extending time to October 17, 2018 to file the record on appeal).

I am aware of the limits of your authority, and you can rest assured that I'm not asking you to prepare a Rule 321 "limited" record (which can only be allowed by the circuit or appellate courts), but as both courts, in their infinite wisdom, have decided to deny my request for a limited record (which I might be able to pay for), this limits me to an "all or nothing" approach at my appeal... and let me remind you, Patricia, that a lot is riding on my appeal. Since Daniggelis' attorney has been want in prosecution of his appeal, it is dead, and mine is the only live case, and, if I lose, not only my "interests" in intervention are denied their day in court, but my elderly friend remains homeless, which, at his age, no doubt, jeopardizes his health and life.

Therefore, I wish to get my fair day in court. To that end, while I know you can't do much else, I will ask you to do what you can do, and that is this: Please give me a quote, that is, an estimate, on the preparation of the record on appeal, which, by the way, is due this Wednesday, 17 October 2018, unless the court grants me another extension of time.

We just got evicted, and right before that, some nutcase drilled a half-inch drill into my gas tank, and I had to drop several thousand dollars into security cameras, motion lights, etc., and, being unemployed (we're being evicted, leaving me no time to work), those hardships took the monies I might have spent on a "full" record on appeal. Thus, I repeat my request: I request an estimate of the full record on appeal (or some method wherein I might purchase a partial record, which I might be able to afford).

Alternatively, I propose that the record be posted electronically, without alteration (which would alleviate your clerks of the many hours of preparation), in other words, when I file a motion before, for example one of the judges in this Law Division case, the judges can read the full record electronically without your civil appeals division having to prepare anything. If you did this for me, this would ((#1)) save me loads of monies ((#2)) possibly save elderly Daniggelis' life, as he was made homeless ((#3)) save your clerks hours of needless preparation and ((#4)) set precedent to save Cook County Circuit Court untold millions of dollars, since allowing citizens the same portal interface as judges would work: It worked for judges, and would work for litigants.

Anyhow, the appeals court is probably wondering if I am slack in my desire to prosecute this case, but my email to you, and any response you might give, are slated to be put in my appendix in my upcoming Motion to Extend Time, so that I may show that I am not want for prosecution, as Mr. Daniggelis' attorney was. Thank you, in advance, for giving me a reasonable, moral, and fair quote to prepare the record in a timely manner, in this case which has dragged on for too many decades, in the which no one has shown cause why Daniggelis' house could be snatched from him, on admitted fraud (see my pleading where I quote Judge Otto) without him having been paid a dime.

P.S.: No matter how frustrated I am with the 3 levels of court (which includes your Supreme Court's treatment of my recent motion in file #:123481), I must show proper and complete respect for the courts, particularly the appellate court, which has twice extended time to file the record, and to that end, I am making a special effort to grant the appeals court's request to get the record, and transmit it to them--in order to meet the court half-way, and do my part to make their jobs (they are people too, you know), as easy as is reasonably possible. And, if there is anything I can do to make your job easier, I will, but I am maxed out on several levels, but to recap: Record on Appeal in 1-18-0091: Quote requested, and electronic miracles welcome, as described above.

Chris, this is Gordon again.

My apologies for the brevity of my curt reply below, but I am being evicted, and I just lost my elderly father, and now my friend, Rich Daniggelis, the elderly victim in this case where I named your Judge as a defendant, is homeless because of a broken judicial system, and lost his house (and hundreds of thousands in documented equity) on admitted mortgage fraud, without being paid a dime.

I have been under a lot of stress/pressure- again - apologies. Now, all that I said below was true, but I left out key points to reply to your valid, and genuine, concerns regarding prohibited "ex parte" communications with, say, a judge overseeing a case, and I amend now:

As you know, 5 ILCS 430/5-50 defines ex parte communications as: "any written or oral communication by any person that imparts or requests material information or makes a material argument regarding potential action concerning regulatory, quasi-adjudicatory, investment, or licensing matters pending before or under consideration by the agency." HOWEVER, it goes on to say that: ""Ex parte communication" does not include the following:... (ii) statements regarding matters of procedure and practice, such as format, the number of copies required, the manner of filing, and the status of a matter;," which is the case, here. I am trying to follow the proper procedure on filing my Record on Appeal, because I know that the appeals court Justices have a hard job, and can not read minds, and (as yet) do not have access to the electronic record in the case, in the same manner as Circuit Judges in the Law division (but I am seeing if I can change that procedure, as I speak).

To clarify, no, I am not making any arguments to Judge Shelley via email about my case (tho a few hints were included in my comments in my request for the record). To begin with, you, not she, screens the email, as you are her clerk --and, as such, you are charged with preventing the judge from prohibited ex parte communications on the merits. Moreover, were I I to desire to make an argument before this judge, I would file a motion or other pleading -- such as I did in my 04/20/2018, which is on docket at 2007-CH-29738, GMAC v. Daniggelis, Watts, et. al., where even the docket attests I am a named defendant, and thus a party of record eligible for In Forma Pauperis grant, which allows me my Record on Appeal gratis and for free. Lastly, as 5 ILCS 430/5-50 clearly says, some ex parte communications are allowed, such as setting hearing dates, procedural matter, like my record, and other exceptions, incl. but not limited to, say, orders of protection, which, of course, preclude the other side from hearing.

I know you meant well, and I don't fault your motives or intents, but, no, I am not making ex parte merit arguments to the judge, here, in my email: Again, had I wanted to do that, I would have filed a motion, such as my 04/20/2018 filing, which is ON DOCKET at the above-referenced case, and linked here

https://courtlink.lexisnexis.com/cookcounty/FindDock.aspx?NCase=2007-CH-29738&SearchType=0&Database=2&case_no=&PLtype=1&sname=&CDate= on which the judge did NOT rule on... even tho, within the body of my SHORT AND SUCCINCT 'notice' filing, I clearly move for a Rule 321 limitation of the record. Your judge CAN NOT claim the she didn't receive my motion, as it is clearly court-stamped. Here is another copy, or two, in case you've lost your copy:

 https://www.GordonWatts.com/MortgageFraudCourtDocs/Fri20Apr2018_MotionClarification_07CH29738_LawDiv_Watts.pdf

Lastly, when service a copy upon the court and clerk, it is customary to include the judge's chambers a copy of all my filings, motions, etc. Even Judge Otto, who issued the blatantly Unconstitutional ruling, giving elderly Daniggelis' to the local rich attorney, Joseph Younes, without any legal basis, never objected to my having served him copies of my filings, and, up to this point, neither have you.

In conclusion: Your concerns are noted, and again, I do not impute malicious motives on your part, but, as a matter of law, your concern is misplaced. Lastly, no matter how frustrated I am with Judge Shelley's blatant disregard for the title theft in this case, I am not trying to insult her (or the judiciary) in any way, and, for the record (this email thread is slated to be in my appendix to demonstrate to the appalls court prosecution on my part regarding procurement of the record on appeal), anyhow, for the record, I will attest and affirm that I vividly recall Daniggelis telling me in numerous phone conversations that Judge Shelley told Andjelko Galic, his attorney, that she would grant his nonsuit (voluntary dismissal) motion, docketed on Dec.07, 2017, that day, but that she couldn't guarantee that she'd be around to hear the case when/if he refiled it in the Law Division, which implies that she wanted to do her best to assure Galic that he would get a fair day in court, but warn him of her limitations regarding transferal out of the division, or random reassignment of the new case to another judge. I'm grateful & thankful that Judge Shelley made such reassuring & respectful comments to Atty. Galic, letting him know that she was doing her best. My recollections on her comments to Galic do not impact the merits of the case, and are, therefore, not prohibited ex parte communications, and, moreover, I'm angry at the court, in general, and Judge Shelley, in particular, for her comments to Daniggelis, telling her to ask me to butt out of the case, my Intervention rights, notwithstanding, so I have no motives to enter into the record a positive comment about the judge, but my religious beliefs -- whatever they be -- compel me to be honest, respectful, and back up my intents with actions to help the other parties, and judges, to be able to do their jobs as easily as possible, even if I, myself, feel I am being treated unfairly.

With kind regards, I am, Sincerely,

Gordon Wayne Watts

vs.) Before: Hon. DIANE M. SHELLEY, Defendants.) Calendar "W", Courtroom 1912

Motion for Clarification concurrent with Rule 321 motion to limit Contents of the Record on Appeal

In the exercise of the reviewing Court's appellate authority, the Appellate Court, First District, has entered an order, in GMAC v. Watts, 1-18-0091, that: "Appellant must direct inquiries on the content of the record on appeal to the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County."

ORDER ENTERED MAR 28 2018, Appellate Court, First District.

Pursuant to the above-quoted/cited order (see infra: Exhibit-A), Appellant, Gordon Wayne Watts, now directs inquiry to This Court regarding the content of the record on appeal in 1-18-0091—hereby moving for clarification of whether or not the 7-7-2017 motion to Intervene stated sufficient grounds to intervene in the case at bar.

Moreover, in concurrent motion, Appellant, Watts, now moves this court to "order less" for the Record on Appeal, in accordance with Rule 321, notice, and proper hearing will having been given. [In support of this motion, Movant respectfully points out that a stipulation is highly unlikely given the fact that many parties can't even be located or have bad service addresses, and/or are unlikely to consent to anything, big or small, in this regard.]

Specifically, movant requests that the clerk prepare the limited record sought in the 3/16/2018 Motion for Extension of Time, in GMAC v Watts, 1-18-0091, a copy of which has been served upon this court in prior filings—and reproduced below, in the proposed order.

Respectfully submitted,

ORDER - GMAC v. Watts, et al., 1-18-0091 (ILLINOIS First Appellate Court)

The trial court shall prepare the Record on Appeal, with ONLY the items listed above (all the enumerated items, and ALL pleadings and related exhibits filed by Appellant, Gordon Wayne Watts), and shall place preparation of the selected records on "accelerated" track, and shall notify This Court when the record is prepared, and transmit it instantly to This Court.

After This Court makes the "selected" Record on Appeal, above, available to all litigants, it shall give ALL named parties ONE last opportunity, within thirty (30) days, to respond and to include anything relevant in the record (to make up for anything that was omitted for the sake of brevity), and to file ONE supporting brief, which complies with page and word-length requirements, citing to any supplemental record items.

Since the 'Record on Appeal' shall be less than 100% of the total record (due to time and space constraints), This Court deems it necessary, to satisfy Due Process, to give ALL parties opportunity to respond, and then This Court shall, if no counter arguments are raised, return Richard Daniggelis' house to him, with equitable damages awarded, by Summary Judgment. The "last chance" to file a brief, to grant fair Due Process to defendants, Joseph Younes, and other named defendants, shall be considered a chance to reply to a "Show Cause" order, This Court asking litigants to show cause why Daniggelis' house should not return to him.

Whether or not litigants file an 'answer' brief (this is optional), This Court shall review The Record (and any "one-time" briefs, submitted, as described above), shall consider the facts and law, and shall render a decision, in compliance with the 5/6/2015 Supervisory ORDER by the IL Supreme Court, in the instant case [No. 118434, (27 N.E.3d 610 (2015))].

The trial court shall speedily prepare the selected record, notify this court, and transmit it to this court by electronic means, on accelerated docket.

Appellant must direct expenses on the content of record on appeal to Clerk of Circuit Court of Cook County.
IT IS SO ORDERED

My apologies, as I think you are right, Carrie, according to the PDF you attached. But, 2 questions:

1) what was image001.wmz I could not open it?

2) why does the court docket list that agreed order as ruled by Judge DeLort while your copy shows judge Otto as having ruled it? Links to the court docket are on my personal docket, and my smartphone and internet connection are too slow to send you a screenshot, but here is the link: <https://w3.courtlink.lexisnexis.com/cookcounty/Finddock.asp?DocketKey=CAAH0CH0CJHDI0CH>

I hope to order a copy of this doc from the court to see and verify your claim, and, if true, will amend and update my service list as you request.

Subject: GMAC v. Daniggelis, et al.; Case No. 2007 CH 29738

Dear Mr. Watts,

I am in receipt of your correspondence and your voicemail messages. My law firm appeared on behalf Third Party Defendant Stewart Title Company f/k/a Stewart Title of Illinois ("Stewart Title") in case 07 CH 29738. Third Party Plaintiff Richard Daniggelis had asserted causes of action against Stewart Title in Counts X and XI of his third party complaint. Mr. Daniggelis and Stewart Title settled Mr. Daniggelis's claims in 2012 and the court dismissed with prejudice Mr. Daniggelis's Counts X and XI against Stewart Title on November 9, 2012. I have attached a copy of the dismissal order to this email. As you will see from the order, it reads on the second page "As a result of the dismissal of Counts X and XI, Third party Stewart Title of Illinois n/k/a Stewart Title Company is no longer a party to this litigation."

Since Stewart Title is not a party to case number 07 CH 29738 and has not been a party for over 5 ½ years, it is not appropriate to serve pleadings in this matter, or appeals from this matter, on Stewart Title or me. Stewart Title is also not a party to your alleged action against Judge Flannery and Judge Shelley. Please cease adding Stewart Title and me to your service list.

Yours truly,
Carrie

Re: Notice of Lease Termination and Notice to Vacate
That home and premises located at 821 Alicia Dr., Lakeland, FL 33801

Dear Mrs. Watts & Gordon,

As you are aware, the home that you are occupying needs extensive repairs due to Hurricane Irma damage and otherwise, and in this regard the City of Lakeland on 8/2/18 has cited Wingo Investment Corporation, the owner of the above property, with 3 citations requiring repair and upkeep which Gordon has copies of. Wingo does not intend to make these repairs but intends to demolish the premises.

Accordingly, please consider this a formal Notice of Lease Termination & Vacation on behalf of Wingo Investment Corporation, the owner of the above home and premises, which you are occupying on a month-to-month basis. To accommodate you in this regard, it is requested that you vacate on or before Saturday, December 1, 2018 by not only removing yourself from the premises but anything owned by you as the owner, Wingo Investment Corporation, intends to demolish the home you are occupying in December 2018 to remove it from the tax rolls as it has determined that it is not economically feasible to make the ongoing repairs as requested and otherwise.

In the meantime, no rent will be charged you from September 1st until you vacate, and it would be appreciated if that might be early prior to December 1st with Notice of Vacation be given to Doris W. Ellsworth, President of Wingo Investment Corporation.

Sincerely,

W. Wm. Ellsworth, Jr.

Thank you for the clarification on both points. Mom wanted to keep the water heater, even though I don't know if we will need one - or if it is easily movable. Things like my wall-unit air conditioner, however, are probably useful. Also, you make a good argument about how you have been generous to us, both in the past and this time with regard to the free rent in our closing months, and I'll be sure to call mom right now and update her on both points. Dear Gordon,

Responding to your email of 8/21/18 received on 8/2/18:

1. I forgo to tell you that upon timely vacating the premises you and/or your mom may take from the above premises at no cost to you anything contained within or may be attached to it if it will help you with your move to your Plant City house. This would include but not be limited to appliances, light fixtures, air conditioning unit, and any materials that may be salvageable and could be used by you.
2. The 12/1/18 date required for the premises to be vacated is 3 months and 10 days from the Notice to you which is more than sufficient for that purpose. Additionally, any moving expenses can be offset by the 3 months rent you will not be paying. Consequently, your date of vacating of 12/1/18 is non-negotiable, and I intend shortly to be contracting for the premises demolition on that date as the premises must be demolished before 12/31/18 in order to be excluded from the County and City tax roll for 2019 taxes.

Thank you,

Doris W. E Isworth

Thank you for your timely notice, Doris, but for important matters, please remember I have several email addresses, and I regularly check both "gww1210" addresses. I am sorry to get evicted, but probably, you are right - have a home and I should live in a home we own, versus renting. * * * GOOD NEWS: When mom was mentioning hiring a general contractor, yesterday (Tue 21 Aug 2018), I asked her why she would need one if she plans to sell her house, and she said - ha - she changed her mind & wants to keep it. See, I told you - ha miracles were possible!.. When I asked her when & why she changed her mind, she said that she changed her mind this past Friday (Aug 17, 2018), and it was because you evicted us (giving her a wakeup call to reality, and proving us both right that her house is in better condition). She did say that three (3) months may not be enough, and that she would pay for the 4th and extra month. While I think that it will be enough, her concern is not without reason: When dad's landlord (Sun T. Ch...) asked me to remove our stuff & vacate the shop, I unexpectedly landed in the emergency room after nearly bleeding to death from a reaction to over-the-counter meds, thus delaying me. While this is unlikely to happen again, this is a reminder that unexpected delays can come up. I hope & think that giving us til Dec 01 will be enough, so I will not cross any other bridge til I come to it. My biggest regret is that you didn't drop the hammer sooner, but better late than never. I think things will work out; thank you for your efforts. I did call Mike Kennedy, and he thinks he will have time to sit down with me, you, and mom, and brainstorm options & solutions. Meantime, I continue to work 'round the clock to safely vacate myself & belongings without incurring a false arrest at the hands of my mother for moving her belongings without her authorization. All This will be a challenge, and time will tell, but thanks for your efforts & assistance thus far.

Please summarize the details of this incident: Bad ground and/or hot wires caused LOTS of flickering and dimming of lights & burnt up two (2) pumps. We got a BRAND NEW pump on Wed. 03 Oct. 2018, and moved into the house in early December. I, personally, reconnected the ground wire (which reduced dimming effects of heavy draw items, like heaters), but unbeknownst to me, TECO's service ground was DISCONNECTED. First pump burnt up shortly thereafter. Clark's replaced pump, and it burnt up too. We called TECO, who put in new service lines. Dimming effects stopped; we seek reimbursements.

Please provide the details of the damages you sustained (attach an additional page if needed).

Item	Brand/Model # (required)	Age (required)
Pump and relay box	GRUNDFOS / unknown model # - 0 . 5 hp	3 months
Another pump & relay box	same make / model as above	19 days

NOTE: I looked on the data sheet provided to us, and it does not show exact model number, but I think it is an SQ2 or SQ3 model, 240-volt, 1/2 horsepower motor. I got 19 days life for 2nd pump by subtracting January 8 from January 27, and I suspect 1st pump last LOTS longer before burning up because we didn't move into the house & start using heavy draw items (space heaters) until early December. The lack of a service neutral meant that there was lots of voltage on the well ground wire, which we think burnt up the delicate electronic circuitry inside the pump when we clicked on space heaters, which grounded thru the pump, itself!

While houses, in the past, grounded through the pump, nowadays, there's lots of delicate circuitry in the newer pumps. And, since two (2) GRUNDFOS pumps burnt up in a very short period of time, odd for a VERY good brand name, and leader in the industry, we think it was the house wiring, not "bad luck" of the pump. We paid $375.00 for the labour on the 1st pump (which was warranted for parts, but not labour). The pump guy gave us a quote of $1,620.85 for the 2nd pump's replacement (they would not pay for the 2nd pump, as the autopsy they performed on the 1st pump suggested it was the bad house wiring, not a faulty pump). That is at least $1,995.85 that we are out because TECO's service ground and/or hot wires were very old and bad. However, there is no guarantee that there will not be additional labour costs. Moreover, we are still out water, and can't take showers, flush toilet, do laundry, get drinking water, etc. The pain & inconvenience & uncertainty mean we lost slightly over two (2) thousand dollars, sum total, and that is only a Conservative lower estimate.

Lastly, before I put in the ground, turning on even a small lightbulb would cause "dimming" effects (half the house got dimmer, as it loaded down the circuit, and the other half the house got brighter, as it "pulled the ground" farther away, causing the voltage to start approaching 230 or 240 volts). As you might expect, we burnt up some sensitive LED house lights, but I realise & admit that Wal-Mart reimbursed me for those losses, and therefore, I am honour-bound (see the terms, right below) to NOT seek reimbursement for those losses. But, I add this recollection to verify that over-voltage or under-voltage (the latter of which is alleged in the pump problem, as well as putting voltage on the circuitry when there was a "bad" TECO service ground) can (and does) damage electronic equipment and appliances. [[Please excuse any spelling errors, as Microsoft's PAINT doesn't have spell-check.]]

I certify that the expenses for which I am seeking reimbursement from TECO Energy, Inc. have been incurred by me. I further certify that these expenses have not been reimbursed, nor shall reimbursement be sought from any other company. I agree to submit and retain sufficient documentation for any expense for which I seek reimbursement.

Any person who, with the intent to injure, defraud, or deceive any insurer or insured, prepares, presents, or causes to be presented a proof of loss or estimate of cost or repair of damaged property in support of a claim under an insurance policy knowing that the proof of loss or estimate of claim or repairs contain any false, incomplete, or misleading information concerning any fact or thing material to the claim, commits a felony of the third degree, punishable by law.
