Tony,

thank you for speaking with me on the phone just now.

Here is my FOIA request: Please email me an audio file (like an MP3) of the "REGULAR MEETING" of the Commission on Chicago Landmarks, which occurred yesterday, Thursday, April 6, 2017, at 12:45 p.m. in City Hall, 121 North LaSalle Street, Room 201-A, 2nd Floor.

Cindy, who spoke to me when Kandalyn Hahn was unavailable, said that you all could get me the audio.

If you're curious as to prior news coverage we've given the matter (my friend who had his house on 1720 N. Sedgwick in Old Town, taken in mortgage fraud), you can scroll down to the Dec. 01, 2015 (wow! over a year ago!) story on the front -age news of The Register, my namesake webpage, below. I'm the main writer, but I have a few 'helpers' along the way. Thank you, in advance, for your help, Tony. When you reply, please reply to both my email addresses, Gww1210@aol.com and gww1210@gmail.com - not case sensitive: Capitol or small letters, all ok.

Get Truth

"First, they [Nazis] came for the Jews. I was silent. I was not a Jew. Then they came for the Communists. I was silent. I was not a Communist. Then they came for the trade unionists. I was silent. I was not a trade unionist. Then they came for me. There was no one left to speak for me."(Martin Niemöller, given credit for a quotation in The Harper Religious and Inspirational Quotation Companion, ed. Margaret Pepper(New York: Harper &Row, 1989), 429 -as cited on page 44, note 17,of Religious Cleansing in the American Republic, by Keith A. Fornier, Copyright 1993, by Liberty, Life, and Family Publications.

Some versions have Mr. Niemöller saying: "Then they came for the Catholics, and I didn't speak up, because I was a Protestant"; other versions have him saying that they came for Socialists, Industrialists, schools, the press, and/or the Church; however, it's certain he DID say SOMETHING like this. Actually, they may not have come for the Jews first, as it's more likely they came for the prisoners, mentally handicapped, & other so-called "inferiors" first -as historians tell us-so they could get "practiced up"; however, they did come for them -due to the silence of their neighbors -and due in part to their own silence. So: "Speak up now or forever hold your peace!"-GWW
