 Judicial Notice of request of clerk for corrections – and corrections as requested ***

I give judicial notice to This Court of receipt of a request from The Clerk to submit an Amended Certificate of Service with the exactingly correct “1-109” language in my Motion to Reconsider in this case. (See: EXHIBIT - “A”) Moreover, it has come to my attention that my Motion to Reconsider did not have the Sine Qua Non required RULE 328 Affidavit, certifying the supporting record. (See: EXHIBIT - “B”)

My apologies for overlooking this, but I just recently nearly lost my life & bled to death, lost my father, have encountered several financial & family emergencies—and am still under doctor's care—and not completely all there—hopefully accepted as mitigating circumstances for my several de minimus procedural filing errors.

To that end, please find, below, the corrections, as requested by This Court.

Good morning,

The Supreme Court Clerk's Office is in receipt of your motion to reconsider the denial of the motion for supervisory order in the above referenced case. Before the motion can be filed, please upload an amended certificate of service with the complete Section 1-109 language. The Court strictly enforces Supreme Court Rule 12, which states that service must be proved "by certificate of the person, as provided in section 1-109 of the Code of Civil Procedure." Therefore, please upload an amended certificate of service with the following required language in its entirety: "Under penalties as provided by law pursuant to Section 1-109 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the undersigned certifies that the statements set forth in this instrument are true and correct."

If the amended certificate of service is not uploaded by 9:00 a.m. on Monday, July 23rd, the envelope containing your motion to reconsider will be rejected.

Thank you.

Illinois Supreme Court Clerk's Office.

And, pursuant to R.328, I'm submitting this affidavit so that this Supporting Record may be properly authenticated by the the affidavit of the attorney or party filing it.
