Counsel,

I have filed a timely notice of appeal in this case. It is attached - and dated Wednesday when I timely filed it (see USPS 2-day Priority Mail receipt). My apologies for not serving you a courtesy copy via email until today, 2 days later, but I had several last-minute house and pet and family emergencies, and then I had to make sure my online docket was updated. These delayed me. My apologies. (I will make up for that by including some hopefully helpful mortgage rescue scheme case law in this attachment. FYI: This notice of appeal, however, has several notices and motions appended and bundled together for the sake of brevity/simplicity. See enclosure.)

PS: Counselor Galic: Before I forget, the IARDC asked me to provide to your elderly client, Mr. Daniggelis, the enclosed information about the 'Client Protection Program.' It is attached-along with its underlying complaint. Their reply concerned Mr. Shelton's case, No. 2015IN03388, but does not address Mr. Younes' pending sister case, No. 2015IN03387.

Additionally, for your convenience, I have posted this -- and most or all -- filings online at these online dockets:

Should you lose these links, my docket of selected items is still front-page news on The Register, my namesake blogs.

I hope you all have a happy new year.

Best,

Gordon
