Hello, Lisa - thank you for helping me in the past with public records requests, in the past.

Today, I need a simple records request from a case. In order for me to avoid paying the nine ($9.00) dollar research fee, here's the case number, style, and docket link:
GMAC v. Daniggelis, Watts, et al, 2007-CH-29737
It's got a 'CH' in it, but it was a 'Chancery' case that was transferred into the Law Division:

The Honourable Diane M. Shelley (Circuit Judge, LAW DIVISION) is presiding, and here's the link:
https://w3.courtlink.lexisnexis.com/cookcounty/FindDock.asp?NCase=&SearchType=2&Database=2&case_no=&PLtype=2&sname=daniggelis&CDate=

Basically, I need everything from the two entries dated 02/22/2016 (e.g., slightly over a year ago) until present; Activity Date: 2/22/2016 to Activity Date: 8/8/2017. Please quote me a price, and call me with the phone number, provider ID, and product code (which might have changed since my last email, below), and I'll invoke my Credit Card, as before.

Thank you,

Gordon (863.688.9880 is main number; and 863.409.2109 is backup number, and my full contact info is below; Please send the request to Gww1210@AOL.com and Gww1210@GMAIL.com when done. Or, you could simply "reply to all," here.)

In a message dated 12/3/2015 5:52:21 P.M. Eastern Daylight Time, LGWimberly@CookCountyCourt.com writes:

Good Afternoon Mr. Watts

Please find the information that you requested of case 2007-ch-29738.

If you will like to pay for the whole file on the law division side which is 104 page with a price of $32.50 and if you will just like to have November 16, 2015 only 8 pages with a price of $5.50.

You can pay with your credit card by calling LexisNexis at 1-888-497-8701 and provide them with ID 70964. If they ask you for a product #8612.

Once the payment is made I will fax or e-mail you.

Now searching for additional duplicates. (: None found! :-)

I appreciate the service, in re Public Records requests, but I do not wish to pay for duplicates, unless I specifically ask for them in another records request.

2016 Calendar is still available for download

An accounting of what I got is as follows:

Lisa's 1st email: Ten (10) pages.

Lisa's 2nd email: Thirteen (13) pages.

Lisa's 3rd email: She included a duplicate, so only eighty-one (81) images were unique.

Lisa's 4th email had attachments which were identical to those of her second (2nd) email, above, and I should not be charged for duplicates.

Lisa's 5th & last email only had four (4) *.tif image attachments, but all of them were duplicates of attachments found in her 3rd email, above.

Ten + Thirteen + Eighty-one

=equals= One-Hundred and Four (104) images that were not duplicates.

An accounting of what I would owe is as follows:

* Search fee: None – since I provided the case number and style of the case. (-: I thank them for not charging me this, since I would not previously know this had they not told me. Good job! I appreciate honest neighbours!! :-)

* First page: $2.00

* Next nineteen (19) pages: 19 x ($0.50) = $9.50

* There were 104 pages, total, and 20 were accounted for above, so the remaining pages are 84 in total: 84 x ($0.25) = $21.00

Costs incurred: $2.00 + $9.50 + $21.00 = $32.50

However, she charged me One-hundred and One dollars and seventy-five cents ($101.75) for this (see below).

That would imply a 381-page Records Request: $2.00 for first page, $9.50 for next nineteen pages, and 361 more pages at $0.25/each, adding another $90.25, which would add up to $101.75, as charged for this. I'm guessing it was an accident, but I was over-charged (see both images below, both what I was quoted, and a copy of my Credit Card receipt, which shows the charge, plus a small 2.1% service fee of $2.14

Thus, I was over-charged $69.25 –not counting the 2.1% service fee, the headache researching the details, and/or several days of near-continuous research from then (early AM on Fri. 08-11-2017) until now (late PM on Tue. 08-15-2017) of time lost from work researching and documenting this.

Alternatively, I paid for 381 pages, and got only 104, so, alternatively, I am owed 277 more pages, if I ended up needing more records.
