Motion for Extension of Time to file Record on Appeal
concurrent with: Motion for Clarification

Appellant, Gordon Wayne Watts, gives judicial notice to Reviewing Court that, on Wednesday, March 28, 2018, This Court (Hon. Daniel J. Pierce, Justice, writing on behalf of The Reviewing Court), in response to a motion to extend time, entered an order (Exhibit-A) that the time to file the Record on Appeal was extended to Tuesday, June 12, 2018. Today's motion, to extend time, is within the guidelines of Rule 326, which allow an extension of time to file the record on appeal “on motion made before the expiration of the original or extended time or on motion filed within 35 days thereafter supported by a showing of reasonable excuse for failure to file the motion earlier. The movant shall serve any motion for extension of time on the clerk preparing the record on appeal.” [Movant / Appellant, Watts, is doing so; see infra.]

Since 5 ILCS 70/1.11 states that “The time within which any act provided by law is to be done shall be computed by excluding the first day and including the last...,” this mean that 1st day of the 35-day time limit begins to run on the following day, Wednesday, June 13, 2018, and that the 35th day falls on Tuesday, 17 July 2018. It is believed that Appellant will be able to timely finish writing, filing, and serving this motion either late Monday the 16th or early Tuesday the 17th, thereby preventing the reviewing court from losing appellate authority in this case.

Good cause (reasonable excuse) in this case shall include (but not be limited to) the fact that [[#1]] Appellant's father, Bobby Watts, passed away (Exhibits-B, C, and D), on Thursday, 03 May 2018, and [[#2]] Appellant, himself, nearly died in an unrelated incident (Exhibit-E), not to mention that 3—4 sources of income all dried up and disappeared at the same time: [[#3]] Appellant's father was the chief source of income, but is now dead. [Documented by death certificate and obit notices] [[#4]] Appellant's part-time boss began beating the pure living daylight out of him (Exhibit-J), while they were in a vehicle and on the road—returning from work from his construction job—justification for Appellant to immediately quit his job. [See exhibits in Watts v. Flannery, No.123481, heard by the ILLINOIS Supreme Court recently, for a copy of the police report to verify—and included as Exhibit-J, infra.] [[#5]] Appellant, himself, nearly bled to death. [See Exhibit-E here of the Emergency Room stay.] [[#6]] Even not counting financial or health difficulties, the “time-off” from any meaningful side-ventures (such as this case) were precluded when Appellant had to quickly move, sell, or otherwise handle a huge inventory of his father's business, when his father unexpectedly died, as well as time spent on funeral, obituary, and estate family matters. (Exhibit-F)

Appellant represents to this court that he acted in good faith during the time-period in which This Court prior granted an extension of time to file the Record, and made all reasonable attempts/efforts to get hold of the Record on Appeal & transmit it to This Court—PROOF:

Motion Ext. Time / Clarification – GMAC v. Watts, 1-18-0091 (IL 1st App.Ct.) 7-17-2018

(#1) CIRCUIT COURT FAILURE TO RESPOND TO MOTION AT ALL: This court, in its March 28, 2018 order (Exhibit-A), ordered that the appellant, Watts, “direct inquiries on the content of the record on appeal to the Circuit Court of Cook County,” which he did, as ordered by This Court: After numerous inquiries, he was told that the only way to get a Record prepared for a party too poor to pay for it was to move the circuit court. Appellant, in his 04/20/2018 filing (Exhibit-G) before the Judge of Record in said case (Hon. Diane M. Shelley, Circuit Judge #1925, who was presiding judge in said case), moved the Circuit Court to not only prepare the Record on Appeal – but, in a nod to efficiency, and to respect the man-hours of the hard-working staff – included a Rule 321 motion to limit Contents of the Record on Appeal to only a few Sine Qua Non required filings, sufficient for This Court to easily & quickly review & decide the case.

The Circuit Court—and the circuit judge—were both served four (4) ways, and without question received a copy of appellant's motion: ((#1)) Both Judge Flannery, the presiding judge in the Law Division, and Judge Shelley, who was (and still is) the presiding judge in this case (both judges, each independently, having authority to rule on the motion sub judice) were both served (Exhibit-H) by First Class U.S. Postal Mail, ((#2)) by e-mail (Exhibit-I) (Judge Shelley actually has three (3) valid emails, and Judge Flannery has one (1) email), and ((#3)) via electronic service, as documented (Exhibit-G) by the court-seal on the e-filed copy. ((#4)) BONUS: All filings, including this one, were placed online at Watts' Open Source docket, which is linked in front-page news of the websites in his Signature footer—and, as indicated in the Certificates of Service in said filings—and in the certificate of service in this motion.

Judge Shelley (and for that matter, Judge Flannery), both having received multiple copies of appellant's motion, nonetheless refused to issue any order whatsoever—even a contrary order—thereby “ghosting” (ignoring) any attempt to Redress the Circuit Court and get Procedural Due Process review (whether granting or denying the motions), much less a Substantive Due Process ruling on the merits of the valid RULE 321 motion to limit the record. When This Court ordered Appellant (Exhibit-A) to inquire of the Circuit Court, the implied order to the circuit court was to reply to such inquiry, “yay” or “nay,” giving reasoning for whatever decision was made. This the lower court did not do, through no fault of the appellant.

(#2) REVIEWING COURT FAILURE TO EXERCISE CONSTITUTIONAL APPELLATE AUTHORITY: Appellant, in an attempt to grant This Court's valid request to get hold of & review the Record on Appeal, moved for Summary Judgment (Exhibit-K) in his 04/20/2018 filing to This Court, in a separate appeal, 1-18-0572, which appealed Judge Flannery's denial of an IFP fee waiver for a party to sue or defend—both of which apply. However, despite authority granted by Rule 321, to limit the record, this court alleged (Exhibit-L) in its Thursday, May 03, 2018 ruling, that it did not have appellate authority over the circuit court to compel it to obey the law in the matter of fee waiver, or several other matters where Appellant, Watts, alleges the Circuit Court did not comply with the law—and refused to explain why it ruled to the contrary. Appellant, Watts, also respectfully disagrees with the legal conclusion by This Court that it lacks appellate authority on these matters. (Exhibit-L)

(#3) SUPREME COURT HEARS MOTION FOR SUPERVISORY ORDER: In addition to seeking redress from both the circuit and appellate courts, Appellant took the extraordinary measure to seek review by the ILLINOIS Supreme Court, which, Justice Theis ruling, granted “Motion by Movant, pro se, for leave to proceed in forma pauperis. Allowed,” in its 05/01/2018 order in case number 123481, In re: Watts v. Flannery.

While The ILLINOIS Supreme Court granted the IFP motion, nonetheless, it eventually, in a ruling issued on 05/09/2018, declined to review the merits and issued the following order: “Motion by Movant, pro se, for a supervisory order. Denied. [line-break] Order entered by the Court.”

 Administrative Note (i.e., “Obiter Dictum of the motion”) – Appellant, Watts' motion to the Supreme Court was double-spaced, as the rules require, and while it was tempting for the undersigned movant to do likewise with This Court (since most filings in This Court are, indeed, double-spaced), to show proper respect, and make a “good first impression,” Movant knew that This Court's local rules do not require “double-space,” and knew This Court would still fairly review the merits of the motions—anyhow, understanding that saving costs of paper, printer ink, & mailing weight, were/are factors that justify using single-spaced paragraphs. (Moreover, Service Copies were/are “printed double-sided” to parties, to cut costs further, & be efficient.) But in a nod of respect to the Reviewing Court, this brief shall be double-spaced.

(#4) FEDERAL COURTS SOUGHT: Appellant was considering seeking review by a Federal Circuit court to compel the (state) circuit court to comply with the law in regards to obeying Intervention and Fee Waiver law (and, by extension, prep of the Record on Appeal—all Procedural Due Process issues, the “ministerial duty” of the trial courts, here), but was side-tracked when his elderly father passed away (Exhibits B—D), and he, himself, nearly died in a separate incident. (Exhibit-E)

CONCLUSION

Appellant made a genuine effort to get hold of the Record on Appeal—and to transmit it to This Court in a timely manner. But, through no fault of his own, he was unable. CAVEAT: There was one “theoretical” possibility to get the record, e.g., for Appellant to have paid for it, but as he's documented to be “In Forma Pauperis” (this court, itself, granted Appellant's motion for fee waiver, and we trust This Court, no?), and appellant was told by the circuit court that the record was very, very lengthy, by this writer's estimate, into the thousands of dollars, something very impossible for In Forma Pauperis petitioners to pay. (Appellant represents to This Court that the Civil Appeals Division told him that the full “Chancery” docket, not merely the “Law Division” docket, by the same case-number, was the actual Record on Appeal, and must be included unless excused by a RULE 321 motion, which only this court or the trial court may do—or by a 'stipulation' agreement, which is unlikely given the animosity between the parties.)

Moreover, even had he paid for prep of the record, many contemporary legal observers noted that if the circuit court didn't abide by basic law on IFP & Fee Waiver application regs, how could the courts then be trusted with the merits of the case, which—when appellant heard & considered—scared the pure living daylight out of him, thus convincing him to not spend his last few dollars on a bad investment, paying people who have shown a track-record on flouting the law, and refusing to obey even basic laws (necessitating several appeals to correct this).

Therefore, in conclusion, Movant / Appellant respectfully documents that he made several good-faith efforts to get the record & to transmit it to reviewing court, as you require, but, that through no fault of his own, he was unable. Moreover, Movant respectfully points out that he missed filing this motion to extend time to file the record on appeal within standard guidelines because a number of extraordinary circumstances occurred, including, but not limited to (A) his father passing away, (B) Movant losing his job through no fault of his own, (C) Movant, himself, nearly bleeding to death & dying in an unexpected reaction to standard over-the-counter drugs, and (D) cumulative physical, financial, social, & emotional stresses from various circles (including, we add, lower courts' continued refusal to obey basic law), and Movant, as of this writing, is still under doctor's supervision, & not fully recovered. (E) The lower courts still refuse to not only prepare the record & grant fee waiver (for IFP filers, such as appellant, Watts), but even more egregious, they even refuse to prepare a “much smaller” Rule 321 Record, which appellant is willing to pay for (even tho he's IPF & not require to). Thus, the Circuit Court purposely and of free will even refuses to prepare a “very small” record, which appellant is willing to pay for in advance—and still hasn't explained why it refuses to do so—thus delaying prep of The Record through no fault of the appellant, Gordon Wayne Watts.

Therefore, Movant respectfully represents to this court that Good Cause (reasonable excuse), within the meaning of Rule 326 existed for a delay in filing the instant motion to extend time to file the Record on Appeal.

Motion for Clarification

Appellant is in need of clarification on several points still unclear and respectfully moves for clarification from This Court, in order that appellant may better understand what is legally required of him, and therefore obey the law—and comply with court rules, guidelines, etc.

[[1]] This court, in its 5/3/2018 order (Exhibit-L), claimed that: “This court has no jurisdiction to order the Cir. Ct. to allow Watts leave to intervene, grant a fee waiver, or to prepare the record on appeal & transmit to App. Ct. in this matter (1-18-0572). Motion denied.” [emphasis added for clarity]

Appellant respectfully asks This Court to clarify how that can be true in light of Rule 301 which vests appellate authority in This Court to review the merits of every final judgment below—including the final judgments of Judges Flannery and Shelley, as here:

Rule 301. Method of Review

Every final judgment of a circuit court in a civil case is appealable as of right. The appeal is initiated by filing a notice of appeal. No other step is jurisdictional. An appeal is a continuation of the proceeding.

Moreover, if This Court lacks authority in re Intervention, then how was it able to issue the following ruling, holding, infra, in CoC v. Hancock? [Has Hancock been overturned?]

“[T]he trial court’s jurisdiction is limited to determining timeliness, inadequacy of representation and sufficiency of interest; once these threshold requirements have been met, the plain meaning of the statute directs that the petition be granted.” City of Chicago v. John Hancock Mutual Life Ins. Co., 127 Ill.App.3d 140, 144 (1st Dist. 1984). [Emphasis added in underline & bold; not in original, thus showing that Petitioner satisfies all three requirements, giving Watts the right to intervene under 735 ILCS 5/2-408(a)(3).]

[[2]] This court, in its 5/3/2018 order, claimed that: “This court has no jurisdiction to order the Cir. Ct. to allow Watts leave to intervene, grant a fee waiver, or to prepare the record on appeal & transmit to App. Ct. in this matter (1-18-0572). Motion denied.” [emphasis added for clarity] How is this possible in light of RULE 301, supra—and the Article VI, Sec.6 of the ILLINOIS State Constitution, infra?

SECTION 6. APPELLATE COURT - JURISDICTION

Appeals from final judgments of a Circuit Court are a matter of right to the Appellate Court in the Judicial District in which the Circuit Court is located except in cases appealable directly to the Supreme Court and except that after a trial on the merits in a criminal case, there shall be no appeal from a judgment of acquittal. The Supreme Court may provide by rule for appeals to the Appellate Court from other than final judgments of Circuit Courts. The Appellate Court may exercise original jurisdiction when necessary to the complete determination of any case on review. The Appellate Court shall have such powers of direct review of administrative action as provided by law.

(Source: <http://www.ilga.gov/commission/lrb/conent.htm>)

[[3]] This court, in its 5/3/2018 order, claimed that: “This court has no jurisdiction to order the Cir. Ct. to allow Watts leave to intervene, grant a fee waiver, or to prepare the record on appeal & transmit to App. Ct. in this matter (1-18-0572). Motion denied.”

Appellant respectfully moves This Court for clarification, posing the question: How can this legal claim be true in light of Rule 321, which vests this court with authority to do just that?

Rule 321. Contents of the Record on Appeal

The record on appeal shall consist of the judgment appealed from, the notice of appeal, and the entire original common law record, unless the parties stipulate for, or the trial court, after notice and hearing, or the reviewing court, orders less. The common law record includes every document filed and judgment and order entered in the cause and any documentary exhibits offered and filed by any party. Upon motion the reviewing court may order that other exhibits be included in the record. The record on appeal shall also include any report of proceedings prepared in accordance with Rule 323. There is no distinction between the common law record and the report of proceedings for the purpose of determining what is properly before the reviewing court.

In other words, in light of RULE 321, RULE 303, RULE 301, and Art.VI, Sec.6, Ill.Const., how can The Reviewing Court claim that it lacks authority to issue a RULE 321 Order which “orders less” to be placed in the record—as Appellant is wishing to direct—and pay for?

[[4]] Why are some parties not required to serve all the parties of record, as appellant is required to do, pursuant to RULE 11?

It is a matter of record that GMAC MORTGAGE LLC, the lead plaintiff in the instant case, has just entered an appearance (Exhibit-O), by and through 2 of its staff attorneys, Rosa M. Tumialán (RTumialan@Dykema.com) and Dawn Williams (DWilliams@Dykema.com), of the DYKEMA GOSSETT PLLC law firm, as reflected in their notice, which was e-filed on 05/02/2018, with This Court, a day before appellant's father untimely passed away on 05/03/2018. However, looking at their certificate of service, we see that they only served appellant, Watts, in spite of the plain-language meaning of RULE 11, which requires otherwise:

Rule 11. Manner of Serving Documents Other Than Process and Complaint on Parties Not in Default in the Trial and Reviewing Courts

(a) On Whom Made. If a party is represented by an attorney of record, service shall be made upon the attorney. Otherwise service shall be made upon the party. [Emphasis added for clarity]

Ironically, the lower courts claims (Judge Flannery's opinion) that appellant, Watts, was not a party, and ironically, he was the only one that DYKEMA served—refusing adamantly to serve all the other parties of record—whom really were 'parties' according to Flannery, et. al.

Appellant, Watts, is not trying to embarrass or insult Attys. Tumialán or Williams. Indeed, he sought to privately, & discreetly, contact them (Exhibits-M and N), asking what was going on with regard to the Rule 11 service concerns that he had, here—and, to that end, emailed and telephoned them, in order to privately inform them of this matter—and avoid embarrassing them. After all, even attorneys are human, and Watts wasn't seeking to bully or embarrass anybody.

However, his “good faith” efforts to privately & discreetly resolve this matter were met with a bizarre response: Atty. Tumialán responded by email (Exhibit-M), implying that Watts was about to tread into dangerous territory and issuing a veiled or implied warning to not tread any further. In all fairness to Attorney Tumialán, Watts isn't representing to This Court that she had any malicious or ill motives. Indeed, had she had ill motives, she could easily have made up false allegations of harassing phone calls, harassing emails, etc. That Tumialán did not not do. Moreover, her advice to limit communications solely to that which is in writing (e.g., emails, court filings, etc.) is good advice, both to avoid misunderstandings, as well as to document all communications—and make it easier to have a clear record of legal filings.

Nonetheless, even after Watts politely & respectfully inquired (sending only ONE email, with ONE follow-up reply, and leaving only ONE polite, respectful—albeit a bit lengthy—voice-mail, which was identical to the email—even as Tumialán, herself admits), the attorneys never responded to the question, nor said they were concerned about looking into it—and furthermore refused to clarify who were and were not attorneys of record for plaintiff, GMAC.

Moreover, while Tumialán's advice was good, many attorneys –including, for example, Peter King (Atty. No.: 48761), the Attorney Of Record for co-Defendant, Joseph Younes –have had no qualms or compunctions in speaking briefly with Appellant, Watts, on legal matters. (Watts represents to This Court that King answered questions about updates to his service address—and even offered to accept filings solely by email, which was a generous offer.)

Watts is not representing to This Court that Tumialán's email was meant to threaten, intimidate, or bully (as shown above by her refusal to make any false allegations—especially in light of the fact that her email was “good advice” in general). However, her email most certainly did intimidate and frighten the pure living daylights out of Appellant, Watts—and for this reason: While Tumialán's motives, herself, were no doubt pure & without malice, nonetheless, her refusal to either clarify Indyke's role or ever address the Rule 11(a) issue (even admitting that, hey, we don't know: We're looking into it) is damning proof that her actions were pushed, motivated, & mandated by her bosses at the law firm—which apparently viewed Watts' filing as some sort of threat to their client's interest: Since DYKEMA's only interests here are to protect their client, any actions they make are without doubt motivated by this motive.

For the record, Appellant, Watts, has no animosity, malice, or ill will towards either the Dykema law firm (which he doesn't know) or GMAC (who was the mortgager, here, and not responsible for any of the felony photocopy forgery frauds, documented to have occurred in the title-theft in this matter—and the subject of much litigation & other investigation).

But, after much thought on this matter, appellant now believes that Dykema views Watts as some sort of threat to their client, GMAC, which is the only conclusion that can be drawn from the bizarre silence from the 2 staff attorneys regarding ((A)) their refusal to clarify Indyke's status—which was questioned when his claims of being no longer attorney of record were contradicted by the record below; ((B)) their refusal to address the Rule 11 _issue, and (more-importantly) ((C)) their refusal to comply with this rule—their actions, in ((C)) speaking louder than their words (or emails) in ((B)). While Appellant sympathizes with DYKEMA in their concerns, here, he notes that it's just as likely that their client will be out the monies owed if Younes (who stole the title) keeps possession, as opposed to if Daniggelis (the true & rightful owner) takes possession through a ruling of this court.

 VERY IMPORTANT  This is the most important aspect of the Dykema law-firm involvement, and is highlighted as such: If, in fact, This Court returns possession of 1720 N. Sedgwick (property & damaged house) to Daniggelis, it is more likely that GMAC will get any monies owed, since an elderly victim is more likely to get donations via community sympathy than verses Younes being able to repay it—especially in light of Mr. Younes' continued legal battles with the City of Chicago, wherein he continues to get deeper & deeper in trouble for both ((a)) repeated code violations, as well as ((b)) outright destruction of the house by negligence, with, as the CoC claims, an attempt to skirt the historic district building restrictions: See e.g., 2017-M1-400775 (City of Chicago, IL v. 1720 N. SEDGWICK ST., Atty. JOSEPH YOUNES, et al.), which is still pending, due to the fact that This Court hasn't exercised its appellate authority over Younes in the instant case—which has allowed him to continue to wreak havoc & destruction in this code violation case, cited above. Therefore, appellant includes this finding for the benefit of the Dykema attorneys, who are probably worried that Watts' eventual success in returning Daniggelis' stolen house will be adverse to their client, GMAC. (Returning Daniggelis' house to him will ~~(-a-)~~ increase the odds that GMAC gets any monies it's owed; ~~(-b-)~~ increase the odds that Watts will get paid monies Daniggelis owes him for research issues, the reason Watts is legally above to intervene with the equiv. of a Mechanic's lien; and ~~(-c-)~~ will help the elderly Daniggelis get justice, and also, lastly: ~~(-d-)~~ will restore the reputation & good name of the judicial system, which has taken a hit in recent years—which is good, since the good judges on This Court don't deserve to be made fun of in the news media—and also good because courts run smoother if there's more light & less heat in the news. So, to recap, appellant respectfully seeks clarification: Are the DYKEMA attorneys right—or, rather, is appellant right—in regards to whom must be served pursuant to RULE 11(a)?

[[5]] Since neither of the 2 DYKEMA attorneys (Exhibit-O) were willing to answer the question (Exhibits-M and N) about who is (and isn't) the attorney(s) of record for plaintiff, GMAC, [e.g., where appellant asks the DYKEMA attorneys: “I would like clarification on Mr. Indyke's concern: Is he correct in asserting that a new attorney or firm took over representation of the plaintiff?”], appellant now puts forth this question to The Court: Please see Exhibits M and N for said question—and DYKEMA's refusal to clarify this matter. CAVEAT: The record in the court below shows that Indyke is the last attorney of record, but he claims otherwise, and since several of DYKEMA's attorneys refuse to clarify, it's now passed on to the reviewing court to clarify—via this concurrent motion for clarification.

Respectfully submitted,

ORDER – GMAC v. Watts, et al., 1-18-0091 (ILLINOIS First Appellate Court)

The trial court shall prepare the Record on Appeal, with ONLY the items listed above (all the enumerated items, and ALL pleadings and related exhibits filed by Appellant, Gordon Wayne Watts), and shall place preparation of the selected records on “accelerated” track, and shall notify This Court when the record is prepared, and transmit it instanter to This Court.

After This Court makes the “selected” Record on Appeal, above, available to all litigants, it shall give ALL named parties ONE last opportunity, within thirty (30) days, to respond and to include anything relevant in the record (to make up for anything that was omitted for the sake of brevity), and to file ONE supporting brief, which complies with page and word-length requirements, citing to any supplemental record items.

Since the 'Record on Appeal' shall be less than 100% of the total record (due to time and space constraints), This Court deems it necessary to give ALL parties to respond, and then This Court shall, if no counter arguments are raised, return Richard Daniggelis' house to him, with equitable damages awarded, by Summary Judgment. The “last chance” to file a brief, to grant fair Due Process to defendants, Joseph Younes, and other named defendants, shall be considered a chance to reply to a “Show Cause” order, This Court asking litigants to show cause why Daniggelis' house should not return to him.

Whether or not litigants file an 'answer' brief (this is optional), This Court shall review The Record (and any “one-time” briefs, submitted, as described above), shall consider the facts and law, and shall render a decision, in compliance with the 5/6/2015 Supervisory ORDER by the IL Supreme Court, in the instant case [No. 118434, (27 N.E.3d 610 (2015))].

This Court, in its Rule 321 appellate authority, orders the circuit court to speedily prepare a selected record, as specified in this order, notify this court, and transmit it to this court by electronic means, on accelerated docket.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Motion for Clarification concurrent with Rule 321 motion to limit Contents of the Record on Appeal

In the exercise of the reviewing Court's appellate authority, the Appellate Court, First District, has entered an order, in GMAC v. Watts, 1-18-0091, that: "Appellant must direct inquiries on the content of the record on appeal to the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County."

ORDER ENTERED MAR 28 2018, Appellate Court, First District.

Pursuant to the above-quoted/cited order (see infra: Exhibit-A), Appellant, Gordon Wayne Watts, now directs inquiry to This Court regarding the content of the record on appeal in 1-18-0091—hereby moving for clarification of whether or not the 7-7-2017 motion to Intervene stated sufficient grounds to intervene in the case at bar.

Moreover, in concurrent motion, Appellant, Watts, now moves this court to "order less" for the Record on Appeal, in accordance with Rule 321, notice, and proper hearing will having been given. [In support of this motion, Movant respectfully points out that a stipulation is highly unlikely given the fact that many parties can't even be located or have bad service addresses, and/or are unlikely to consent to anything, big or small, in this regard.]

Specifically, movant requests that the clerk prepare the limited record sought in the 3/16/2018 Motion for Extension of Time, in GMAC v Watts, 1-18-0091, a copy of which has been served upon this court in prior filings—and reproduced below, in the proposed order.

Respectfully submitted,

ORDER

This matter coming on to be heard on the motion of Movant, Gordon Wayne Watts, for an extension of time, and, notice having been given, and the Court being ~~by~~ advised in the premises:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the time for filing the Record on Appeal is extended to June 12, 2018, and, pursuant to ~~Rule 311(b)~~ [Rule 311 Accelerated Docket, (b) Discretionary Acceleration of Other Appeals], ~~this appeal is placed on accelerated track. Pursuant to Rule 311(b), "The motion [to expedite] shall be supported by an affidavit stating reasons why the appeal should be expedited," and This Court notes that both the instant motion and prior pleadings by Appellant had either 'Verification' affirmations, or actual Sworn/Notarized affidavits, which compel The Court to accept at face value allegations that an accelerated appeal is necessary. [This court notes that Watts' claims on this head were never challenged as false.]~~

IT IS FURTHERMORE ORDERED that the trial court shall grant Movant's motion for Intervention, Grant his application for fee waiver, and prepare selected items described below:

This court finds, per Rule 311(b), that it is warranted by the circumstances, and This Court now enters a ruling that the trial court prepare only the following supporting record prepared pursuant to Rule 328, consisting only the following lower court pleadings:

- All lower court pleadings – and related “exhibits” – filed by Gordon Wayne Watts
- The 10/17/2007 Complaint to Foreclose Mortgage filed by GMAC
- The July 16, 2008 Motion for Extension of Time filed by CVLS for Daniggelis
- The July 30, 2008 Answer filed by CVLS on behalf of Daniggelis
- Two (2) “Answer” briefs, filed by Defendant, Joseph Younes, dated Oct 24, 2008
- The 2/15/2013 Answer filed by Atty. Galic on behalf of Daniggelis
- The 2/15/2013 and 3/8/2013 ORDERS by Judge Michael F. Otto
- The 5/6/2015 Supervisory ORDER by the IL Supreme Court, in the instant case [No. 118434, (27 N.E.3d 610 (2015))]
- The 8/8/2017 Motion to Reconsider filed by Atty. Galic for Daniggelis
- The 12/06/2017 Motion to Comply filed by Robert J. More
- The 12/07/2017 ORDERS by Judge Diane M. Shelley, from which Watts appeals

ORDER - GMAC v. Watts, et al., 1-18-0091 (ILLINOIS First Appellate Court)

The trial court shall prepare the Record on Appeal, with ONLY the items listed above (all the enumerated items, and ALL pleadings and related exhibits filed by Appellant, Gordon Wayne Watts), and shall place preparation of the selected records on "accelerated" track, and shall notify This Court when the record is prepared, and transmit it instantly to This Court.

After This Court makes the "selected" Record on Appeal, above, available to all litigants, it shall give ALL named parties ONE last opportunity, within thirty (30) days, to respond and to include anything relevant in the record (to make up for anything that was omitted for the sake of brevity), and to file ONE supporting brief, which complies with page and word-length requirements, citing to any supplemental record items.

Since the 'Record on Appeal' shall be less than 100% of the total record (due to time and space constraints), This Court deems it necessary, to satisfy Due Process, to give ALL parties opportunity to respond, and then This Court shall, if no counter arguments are raised, return Richard Daniggelis' house to him, with equitable damages awarded, by Summary Judgment. The "last chance" to file a brief, to grant fair Due Process to defendants, Joseph Younes, and other named defendants, shall be considered a chance to reply to a "Show Cause" order, This Court asking litigants to show cause why Daniggelis' house should not return to him.

Whether or not litigants file an 'answer' brief (this is optional), This Court shall review The Record (and any "one-time" briefs, submitted, as described above), shall consider the facts and law, and shall render a decision, in compliance with the 5/6/2015 Supervisory ORDER by the IL Supreme Court, in the instant case [No. 118434, (27 N.E.3d 610 (2015))].

The trial court shall speedily prepare the selected record, notify this court, and transmit it to this court by electronic means, on accelerated docket.

Appellant must direct inquiries on the content of record on appeal to Clerk of Circuit Court of Cook County.

 Watts v. Flannery and Shelley (No.: 123481 IL Supreme Court), Motion for Supervisory Orders, with IFP motion, and lower court filings: Motion for Summary Judgment (1st. App. Ct., 1-18-0572, GMAC v. Watts, et. al.) and Motion for Clarification concurrent with Rule 321 motion to limit Contents of the Record on Appeal (07CH29738, Law Division)

Court and Counsel:

I have just filed a motion for Supervisory Orders in the Illinois Supreme Court, Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 383, and, after several failed attempts, it has now been accepted for review in case number 123481, and was E-FILED & court-stamped on Friday, 4/20/2018, 10:38 AM, by Carolyn Taft Grosboll, SUPREME COURT CLERK, seeking full review of the GMAC-line of cases, in which I am a defendant. As required by Rules 9-12, I filed electronically with the Supreme Court, and am effecting service as indicated in the Certificates of Service, and including courtesy email copies of those court and counsel for whom I have email addresses. The lead document is a 142-page PDF file, has numerous exhibits (A-M), and is about 20.4 MB in file size, and is therefore too large to include as an attachment. Pursuant to Rule 11(c), "If service is made by e-mail, the documents may be transmitted via attachment or by providing a link within the body of the e-mail that will allow the party to download the document through a reliable service provider." You may pick up a copy at mirror 1, hosted by GoDaddy, in Mesa, AZ:

http://GordonWatts.com/MortgageFraudCourtDocs/Court-Stamped_No.123481_Fri20Apr2018_MotionForSupervisoryOrder_with_Exhibits_GordonWayneWatts.pdf

You may also pick up a copy at mirror 2, hosted by HostGator, in Austin, TX:

http://GordonWayneWatts.com/MortgageFraudCourtDocs/Court-Stamped_No.123481_Fri20Apr2018_MotionForSupervisoryOrder_with_Exhibits_GordonWayneWatts.pdf

The other 3 filings (my Motion in forma pauperis, in the Supreme Court, my motion for summary judgment to the 1st Appellate court, and directions for record on appeal, to the circuit court) are attached as PDF's. Additionally, you may pick up all the latest filings in this case, under the 'Law Division' heading, at my online docket, at these 2 direct links (which are also linked in front-page news of my main, namesake web-ring):

<http://www.GordonWatts.com/MortgageFraudCourtDocs/DOCKET-MortgageFraudCase.html>

* P.S.: Please note, in the cc line of this email, the current and updated service addresses all parties, as there have been a few additions/deletions, in recent times. ****

Besides (#1) the hard copies served via U.S. Postal Mail, and (#2) the electronic copy of my filing, served, hereto (and #3 via court-approved efilings), you can, for your convenience, also (#4) if you lose the link above, you can pick up your copies of the all the key filings, on my Open Source (free) online docket—which appears to be up-to-date—in the above-captioned case (and related cases), linked as front-page news on my namesake blogs, GordonWatts.com or GordonWayneWatts.com – or directly linked above – which, unlike the court's docket, has downloads available: https://courtlink.lexisnexis.com/cookcounty/FindDock.aspx?NCase=2007-CH-29738&SearchType=0&Database=2&case_no=&PLtype=1 ;

Let me remind everyone that there's a CASE MANAGEMENT CALL in Court Room 1105, before Hon. Patrice Munzel Ball-Reed, Associate Judge, CIVIL DIVISION, in the related Housing/Code case, at 9:30am CST, on Thursday, 31 May 2018, the sister-case, where Mr. Younes is also a defendant, City of Chicago v. Younes et. al., case #: 2017-M1-400775. Here's the Court's docket to verify:

<https://courtlink.lexisnexis.com/cookcounty/FindDock.aspx?DocketKey=CABH0MB0EAAHHF0MD>

For your reference, this code violation case is the one which was featured in at least seven (7) recent DNAinfo stories, and other news sources—two of which are shown here for brevity:

 "'Rotted' Historic Building In Old Town Triangle Could Be Seized By City," by Ted Cox, DNAinfo, March 30, 2017:

<https://www.dnainfo.com/chicago/20170330/old-town/rotted-historic-building-old-town-triangle-could-be-seized-by-city>

 "'Rotted' Old Town House Owner Given 45 Days To Come Up With Repair Plan," by Ted Cox, DNAinfo, September

01, 2017: <https://www.dnainfo.com/chicago/20170901/old-town/rotted-old-town-house-owner-given-45-days-come-up-with-repair-plan>

—and several related stories The Register, for which I'm the editor-in-chief, & more-recently, ChicagoCityScape:

 "Landmarks commission still threatening fines if house in historic district isn't worked on once building permit is issued," by Ted Cox, ChicagoCityscape, November 09, 2017:

<https://blog.ChicagoCityScape.com/landmarks-commission-still-threatening-fines-if-house-in-historic-district-isnt-worked-on-once-390f052a2ab2>

Both the Housing and Law Division filings are docketed on the Open-source docket above, on my personal blog. Or, you could wait for the hard copies, which are in the mail to you, as required by Court rules. Should you lose these links, above, my open-source docket is still linked through the front-page news item in question, on The Register, my namesake blogs.

Best,

Narrative

Watts contacted MSPD and advised he was battered by his employer [REDACTED] on the listed date and between the listed times at the listed hotel. Watts stated he and [REDACTED] were staying at the Clarion Inn (rm# 431). Watts stated [REDACTED] then confronted him about talking about a subject that [REDACTED] did not want Watts talking about with other employees. [REDACTED] then became irate and pushed Watts onto the bed and then started slapping him numerous times in his face, causing a minor cut to Watt's right eyebrow. Watts stated he did not fight back or call the police because he was worried about not having transportation back to Lakeland the next day.

The following day Watts and [REDACTED] were traveling back to Lakeland in [REDACTED]'s vehicle, at which time [REDACTED] back handed Watts in the face because Watt's was talking to much. It is unknown if the battery inside the Watt's vehicle occurred in Miami Springs jurisdiction. Watts stated he took photos of his injuries and e-mail them to the Miami Springs CPO. This report was taken over the telephone since victim is back in Lakeland.

Motion for Summary Judgment

Appellant, Gordon Wayne Watts, gives judicial notice to Reviewing Court that the appeal in this case was on 16 March 2018, and Rule 326 mandates that the Record on Appeal “shall be filed in the reviewing court within 63 days after the filing of the notice of appeal,” making Friday, 18 May 2018 the due date for the Record on Appeal. However, as the matter being appealed (1-18-0572, the instant appeal) is the circuit court's refusal to prepare the Record on Appeal in the sister case, 1-18-0091, due to 'alleged' lack of rights to Intervene, and subsequent lack of rights to Fee Waiver, the preparation of any preparation of the record in these case is moot: The trial court refuses to comply with the law, forcing this appeal. However, as the 7-7-2017 Motion to Intervene (Exhibit A, which was filed with the docketing statement and fee waiver in this case) gives sufficient, even overwhelming, rights to Intervene, no further record is needed, and the matter is ripe for Summary Judgment is favour of movant.

A motion for summary judgment should be granted only when the pleadings, depositions, admissions, and affidavits on file, if any, show that there is no genuine issue of material fact and that the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. 735 ILCS 5/2-1005 (West 1994) Summary judgment is a drastic measure and should be used only when the right of the moving party is clear and free from doubt. Loyola Academy v. S & S. Roof Maintenance, Inc., 146 Ill.2d 263, 271, 166 Ill.Dec. 882,586 N.E.2d 1211 (1992). This court reviews summary judgment orders de novo. Zoeller v. Augustine, 271 Ill.App.3d 370, 374,208 Ill.Dec. 17, 648 N.E.2d 939 (1995); Demos v. National Bank of Greece, 209 Ill.App.3d 655, 659,153 Ill.Dec. 856, 567 N.E.2d 1083 (1991).

Appellant, Gordon Wayne Watts, elects to allow his docketing statement & exhibits to stand as his initial brief of the appellant, as no new material facts are needed to decide this appeal—and now moves for Summary Judgment vacating the order being appealed.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/Gordon Wayne Watts

I received a similar long winded voicemail. Tread carefully. And perhaps only in writing.

Attorneys Tumialán and Williams:

I am in receipt of your e-filing, earlier today, in GMAC v. Watts, 1-18-0091, in the Illinois 1st Appellate Court (and which I've attached as a PDF to my email, here). There are a few confusing issues that need addressing.

[[#1]] -- First off, I got an email from Atty, Richard Indyke (who is a cc recipient here), and he claims that he is not representing any party in my appeal, but he was the last attorney of record for LaSalle Bank. So, I kept him in my "Service List" to comply with IL Supreme Court Rule 11(a), regarding service of parties. However, now that I see you enter an appearance for GMAC, and call it "aka LaSALLE BANK NATIONAL ASSOCIATION" in the case style of your appearance brief (which is attached as a PDF file to my email here), I would like clarification on Mr. Indyke's concern: Is he correct in asserting that a new attorney or firm took over representation of the plaintiff?

I ask this because he strongly implied in his last email that he didn't want me to bother with serving him Service Copies of my pleadings, as I thought I was required to do. (I inferred this from his request to not respond to his email.) If either, or, both of you can certify that you all (and not Mr. Indyke) now represent the plaintiff, then I will (in any future Certificates of Service and/or Service Lists) note that Mr. Indyke no longer is on my Service list due to not representing any party any longer. (I am advocating on Mr. Indyke's behalf, as a professional courtesy, and because my religion -- whatever it is -- compels me to seek the easiest, and most peaceful, solution for all.)

[[#2--a]] Secondly, you made 2 typos in your brief: First off, my zip code isn't 3380, but rather 33801, as zip codes are either 5-digit, or, in my case, a 9-digit upgrade is applicable, which is 33801-2113, if you like.

[[#2--b]] Your other typo is a bit tricky.. while Judge Flannery is indeed the presiding judge of the Law Division, he is NOT the presiding judge of the underlying case from which I appeal in 1-18-0091 (as you indicate in your appearance brief), but rather, as the docket shows, Judge Diane M. Shelley, Circuit Judge (Law Division, Cook County, IL Circuit Court) is the presiding judge, at present. Now, in 1-18-0572, a sister case, where I appealed Judge Flannery's denial of a fee waiver, he might be considered a 'presiding' judge, and, in fact, both appeals derive from the same Law Division case (which was transferred from Chancery, and bears the same style and case number), so I can see why you might have gotten confused. (No worries, as this is -- legally-speaking, "de minimus," LOL).

[[#3]] -- Lastly, however, speaking of Rule 11(a)... No disrespect meant to any of you ... but I plainly notice that you all are egregiously violating this rule, as you claim, in your Certificate of Service, to have served ONLY myself. I'm not trying to insult or offend any of you, but I respectfully ask: Am I missing something, here? Is there some rule, statute, or case law, which allows you to serve only 1 or 2 of the parties... and not "all" of the parties as the rules clearly require?

Rule 11. Manner of Serving Documents Other Than Process and Complaint on Parties Not in Default in the Trial and Reviewing Courts

(a) On Whom Made. If a party is represented by an attorney of record, service shall be made upon the attorney. Otherwise service shall be made upon the party.

Also, in case you didn't notice, your client, LaSalle aka GMAC, is a party to all five (5) cases in which I am litigating for justice: (1) the circuit court case, GMAC v Daniggelis, Watts, Younes, Shelton, et al. 2007-CH-29738, (2) THREE cases in the 1st Appellate Court, 1-18-0091 (appealing Judge Shelley's last order), 1-18-0572 (appealing the subsequent order by Judge Flannery in that case), and 1-18-0538 (an Art. 6, Sec. 6, Original Jurisdiction MANDAMUS action in this reviewing court, and, yes, they do have jurisdiction under Art. VI, Sec. 6), and lastly, a Rule 383 Motion for Supervisory Orders in case number: 123481, in the Illinois Supreme Court.

As I am the guy who nearly won the infamous 'Terri Schiavo' case -- all by myself -- in my state's supreme court (losing 4-3, and doing than former Gov. Jeb Buch, who lost 7-0 before the same panel), I think I have a chance of getting a fair shake in this state's supreme court.

In case you didn't get the note, regarding these filings, and don't want to pay huge Public Records fees to the courts, you may download a True Copy of most or all filings in these - and related - cases, on my own on-line docket, for free. Mirror 1, here, is hosted by GoDaddy, based in Mesa AZ:

By the way, in case you're curious, I will spill: I don't have any beef, gripes, complaints, or grievances with or against your client, GMAC, as I think they were just as much an innocent victim, here. Thank you for exercising your 1st Amendment Rights of Redress in these matters: This is what makes Democracy work in our Republic.

Please clarify me on these matters, above. Thank you, in advance, for your help here. With kind regard, I am,

Sincerely,

"First, they [Nazis] came for the Jews. I was silent. I was not a Jew. Then they came for the Communists. I was silent. I was not a Communist. Then they came for the trade unionists. I was silent. I was not a trade unionist. Then they came for me. There was no one left to speak for me." (Martin Niemöller, given credit for a quotation in The Harper Religious and Inspirational Quotation Companion, ed. Margaret Pepper (New York: Harper & Row, 1989), 429 -as cited on page 44, note 17, of Religious Cleansing in the American Republic, by Keith A. Fornier, Copyright 1993, by Liberty, Life, and Family Publications.

Some versions have Mr. Niemöller saying: "Then they came for the Catholics, and I didn't speak up, because I was a Protestant"; other versions have him saying that they came for Socialists, Industrialists, schools, the press, and/or the Church; however, it's certain he DID say SOMETHING like this. Actually, they may not have come for the Jews first, as it's more likely they came for the prisoners, mentally handicapped, & other so-called "inferiors" first -as historians tell us -so they could get "practiced up"; however, they did come for them -due to the silence of their neighbors -and due in part to their own silence. So: "Speak up now or forever hold your peace!"-GWW

You are correct: I left you a similar, somewhat lengthy, voicemail. Thank for your suggestions, atty Tumialan. I hope to do as you suggest. As soon as you are able to look into my questions, you would have my gratitude for clarifying these gray areas.

I know normally email suffices, but the last matter looked important, and I thought maybe it wouldn't inconvenience you when you might know the answer easily, so I called before it got too late in the central time zone, where you are. But as important as the service matter may be (and I admit frustration with the system, tho not with your client), take your time if you need more time to get clear answers yourself. Thank you in advance in this regard.

Ps: what are gmac's interests in this matter, as they apparently suffered less losses than myself and Mr. Daniggelus, if I may ask?
