NOTICE OF FILING

To: See attached service list

On October 19, 2017, Judge Patrice Ball-Reed requested that I serve all the parties in this case, and did not honor my affidavit of Indigency, nor grant my request for the court grant me a “298 waiver” of Indigency, as other courts have granted me, and which would have allowed the court to serve the parties on my behalf, as an indigent “pro se” litigant, proceeding without any lawyer. Accordingly, I am attempting to comply with the request of the court in this matter.

You are hereby given notice that on October 19, 2017, shortly before the hearing that day, in this case, I, Richard B. Daniggelis, personally filed with the Clerk of the Circuit Court, of Cook County, Illinois, my motion to intervene in this case, a copy of which is attached and hereby served upon you.

NOTICE OF MOTION

To: See attached service list

On October 19, 2017, Judge Patrice Ball-Reed did not grant my request to make a motion in open court, as I have heard others sometimes do, but, instead, Judge Reed requested that I set a court date on any Thursday afterwards, to present my motion to intervene, and then to notify all the parties in writing. Accordingly, I am attempting to comply with the request of the court in this matter.

You are hereby given notice that on November 9th, 2017, at 9:30 A.M., or as soon thereafter as I may be heard, I shall appear before Judge Patrice Ball-Reed, or any judge sitting in her stead, in Room 1105 of the Richard J. Daley Center, 50 W. Washington Street, Chicago, Illinois, and then and there present my motion to intervene, a copy of which is attached and hereby served upon you.
