* Watts v. Flannery and Shelley (No.: 123481 IL Supreme Court), Amended Certificate of Service and Motion to Reconsider

* Motion for Clarification and Motion to Extend Time to file the Record (1st. App. Ct., 1-18-0091, GMAC v. Watts, et. al.)

Court and Counsel:

The Illinois Supreme Court has just docketed my motion to reconsider a denial of my Rule 383, Supervisory Order Motion, along with an Amended Certificate of Service which the Clerk of the IL Supreme Court requested I submit. Additionally, I have filed Motions for Clarification and Extension of Time to file the Record on Appeal with the First Appellate Court in the above-captioned cases. These filings are a bit different than prior filings by any party, insofar as both serious Rule 11(a) violations, as well as documentation to the court, has been included. While my electronic service is not the proper venue to argue these points, I would be remiss in my duty to fail to mention it: If you are an attorney or party in these cases, the R.11(a) allegations may involve you, and you may want to take a closer look. At this time, the IARDC (Illinois Attorney Registration & Disciplinary Commission) has not been formally notified, but I have it on good authority that they are aware of these issues, and I can not speak for them as to whether they will overlook these violations of the Supreme Court Rules. Additionally, I apologize for slight delays in effecting service, but both courts returned my filings and requested minor de minimus corrections, and resubmission, thus delaying my filings, printing, & service by Postal Mail, email, etc. – My apologies. – Additionally, a few weeks ago, I nearly lost my life, and am still not fully recovered, which may account for a slight delay in serving you copies (as documented in the medical records in my exhibits). Again, my apologies for the slight delay in complying with Rule 11(a) service requirements (which I've asked others to do in my filings to The Courts).

As required by Rules 9-12, I filed electronically with the Supreme Court and the Appellate Court, and am effecting service as indicated in the Certificates of Service, and including courtesy email copies of those court and counsel for whom I have email addresses. The lead document is a 145-page PDF file, has 3 exhibits, two of the exhibits, themselves, having numerous exhibits (A-O), and is about 23.6 MB in file size, and is therefore too large to include as an attachment. Pursuant to Rule 11(c), "If service is made by e-mail, the documents may be transmitted via attachment or by providing a link within the body of the e-mail that will allow the party to download the document through a reliable service provider." You may pick up a copy at mirror 1, hosted by GoDaddy, in Mesa, AZ:

The "Judicial Notice of request of clerk for corrections – and corrections as requested," which was filed and docketed this past Friday the 20th of July, however, is small enough to include, and is 1.05 MB, an attached PDF file: CourtStampedCopy-Fri-7-20-2018_CORRECTIONS_No.123481_Watts-v-Flannery.pdf

My Motion for Clarification (11.6 MB size PDF file, 65-pages) to the appellate court is linked here:

Additionally, you may pick up all the latest filings in this case, under the 'Law Division' heading, at my online docket, at these 2 direct links (which are also linked in front-page news of my main, namesake web-ring):

** P.S.: Please note, in the cc line of this email, the current and updated service addresses all parties, as there have been a few additions/deletions, in recent times, such as 2 new attorneys of record who have entered an appearance for the plaintiff, GMAC, and a few other new additions, whose email addresses you may need when serving response briefs, etc.. ****

Besides (#1) the hard copies served via U.S. Postal Mail (see the attached U.S. Postal receipts), and (#2) the electronic copy of my filing, served, hereto (and #3 via court-approved eFiling), you can, for your convenience, also (#4) if you lose the link above, you can pick up your copies of the all the key filings, on my Open Source (free) online docket—which appears to be up-to-date—in the above-captioned case (and related cases), linked as front-page news on my namesake blogs, GordonWatts.com or GordonWayneWatts.com – or directly linked above – which, unlike the court's docket, has downloads available:

<https://courmlink.lexisnexis.com/cookcounty/FindDock.aspx?NCase=2007-CH-29738&>

SearchType=0&Database=2&case_no=&PLtype=1

Let me remind everyone that there have been a lot of new, recent, filings in the related Housing/Code case (Court Room 1105, before Hon. Patrice Munzel Ball-Reed, Associate Judge, CIVIL DIVISION), which is the sister-case, where Mr. Younes is also a defendant, City of Chicago v. Younes et. al., case #: 2017-M1-400775. Here's the Court's docket to verify: <https://courtlink.lexisnexis.com/cookcounty/FindDock.aspx?DocketKey=CABH0MB0EAAHHF0MD>

For your reference, this code violation case is the one which was featured in at least seven (7) recent DNAinfo stories, and other news sources—two of which are shown here for brevity:

** "Rotted' Historic Building In Old Town Triangle Could Be Seized By City," by Ted Cox, DNAinfo, March 30, 2017:

—and several related stories The Register, for which I'm the editor-in-chief, & more-recently, ChicagoCityScape:

** "Landmarks commission still threatening fines if house in historic district isn't worked on once building permit is issued," by Ted Cox, ChicagoCityscape, November 09, 2017:

Both the Housing and Law Division filings are docketed on the Open-source docket above, on my personal blog. Or, you could wait for the hard copies, which are in the mail to you, as required by Court rules. Should you lose these links, above, my open-source docket is still linked through the front-page news item in question, on The Register, my namesake blogs.
